HOOVER ORDERS PUBLICATION OF ALL TAX REFUNDS

Broadens Mandate of Last Congress.

BY ARTHUR CRAWFORD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 14.—[Special.]—Publicity of decisions in tax refund cases, marking a departure from the policy of secrecy heretofore maintained, today was decreed in an executive order issued by President Hoover.

While a step in this direction was required under a compromise provision in the first deficiency appropriation bill enacted by congress in the closing days of the recent session, the order went somewhat farther than necessary under the congressional mandate.

The action was based on a recommendation by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, who heretofore has opposed all moves made in congress in the direction of tax refund publicity.

Mellon Sees Hoover.

Mr. Mellon held a lengthy conference with President Hoover yesterday at which it is assumed the new policy was discussed. Just how much Mr. Hoover had to do with the broadening of the rule by congress was not disclosed.

That the policy represents to some extent a yielding to congressional pressure which has been directed persistently at Mr. Mellon for several years seemed clear.

Some significance was attached to the fact that an investigation of Mr. Mellon is hanging fire in connection with the resolution adopted by the senate directing the judiciary committee to inquire into his right to remain in office without reappointment and also the question of possible violation of the old statute prohibiting a secretary of the treasury from engaging in trade and commerce.

The resolution was sponsored by Senator Kenneth McKellar [Dem., Tenn], who has been Mr. Mellon's most persistent critic on the tax refund publicity question.

Must Prepare Decision.

The effect of the executive order and regulations issued simultaneously by Secretary Mellon is to require the commissioner of internal revenue to prepare a decision in every case in which an overassessment, whether resulting in a refund, credit or abatement, of income, war profits, excess profits, estate or gift taxes in excess of $20,000 is allowed.

This decision will be accompanied by a brief summary of the relevant facts and a citation of the applicable statutory and judicial authorities and will be open to public inspection in the office of the commissioner.

Under the deficiency bill it was provided that decisions in the case of refunds in excess of $20,000 should be a public record. This rule, however, applied only to the $75,000,000 deficiency appropriation for tax refunds and no specifications were included as to how much information should be included in the decision. The Hoover-Mellon order and regulations apply to all refunds and establish a permanent policy.

Lifts Mystery Veil.

"The congress adopted as an amendment to the first deficiency appropriation act a provision which as a matter of legal interpretation would require no material change in the procedure or practices of the bureau of internal revenue," said Mr. Mellon in his formal letter of recommendation to President Hoover.

"However, upon the assumption that this provision reflects an expressed congressional policy and in order that the public may know that there is nothing mysterious about tax refunds and that there is nothing which the treasury desires to hide, I am recommending the approval of the proposals submitted herewith."

Secretary Mellon in a statement made it clear that there is no intention to embarrass taxpayers by disclosing in the decisions information relative to their business affairs as contained in their tax returns which, under the law, are not open to public inspection.

The new regulations provide that "under no circumstances shall the provisions of this paragraph be construed as making any return, or any part thereof, open to inspection; or as authorizing the course of any income, gains, or profits or the specific transactions resulting in losses or expenditures, to be made public."

Points to Mellon's Reversal.

"The treasury has entered serious objections to all so-called publicity proposals," said Mr. Mellon in his statement. "The soundness of this

Broker's Wife Stabs Woman with Penknife

Mrs. Mary Ellsworth, bride of Paul Ellsworth, Chicago broker, was arrested in the apartment of her husband at 232 East Walton place last evening when detectives summoned from the East Chicago avenue police station found her bending over Miss Mildred Rogers, 28 years old, 1232 Jarvis avenue, who was suffering from severe knife wounds about the face and shoulders. Ellsworth could not be found by the policemen, although it was reported that he had been in the apartment a short time before.

According to information obtained by the police, Mrs. Ellsworth surprised Miss Rogers visiting her husband early in the evening. Enraged at the discovery, she is alleged to have seized a penknife from a table in the suite and attacked the other woman.

Police Hear of "Accident."

Shortly after 8 o'clock a woman telephoned the police and said there had been an accident at the Walton place address. When detectives arrived they found the Rogers woman weeping and bleeding. Mrs. Ellsworth was attempting to bind up her wounds.

The wife refused to tell the police what had happened, but was insistent that Miss Rogers be taken to a physician. She was carried to the Henrotin hospital, where physicians said her condition was not critical but that the knife thrusts might cause permanent disfigurement.

Emil Wetten Signs Her Bond.

Mrs. Ellsworth was taken to the Chicago avenue station, where she was charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Shortly afterward Emil Wetten, well known Chicago attorney, appeared at the station and signed a $1,000 bond for her release. The property schedule was waived by Judge Daniel P. Trude, the police said.

Neither Wetten nor Mrs. Ellsworth would discuss the arrest as they emerged from the station. The police said they learned, however, that the cook in the Ellsworth establishment informed the wife of Miss Rogers' presence in the apartment by telephone and that the wife appeared at her husband's home soon afterward.

At the hospital the Rogers woman first gave her name as Mildred Edwards, 843 Lafayette parkway, but later admitted that her real name is Rogers, the police said.

Mrs. Ellsworth is to be arraigned before Judge Joseph L. McCarthy in Chicago avenue court this morning.

MERCURY AT 68; NEW RECORD SET FOR MARCH 14

Chicago's weather will be cooler today, but still not chilly, according to last night's official forecast. The thermometer attained the almost summerlike mark of 68 degrees at 2 p. m. yesterday, thereby shattering all records for balminess on March 14. Last night it was declining easily and the midnight reading was about 56 degrees. Forecaster J. R. Lloyd expected the dawn reading to be about 40 degrees, with a slight climb during the day. Skies will be clear today, but tomorrow will be cloudy, he predicted. The breeze, although northerly, will be pleasant. The normal temperature for this period is 34 degrees.

25 SNOWBOUND IN WYOMING.

Laramie, Wyo., March 14.—(AP)—Twenty-five travelers, most of them suffering from frozen hands, feet, or ears, are snowbound in the Summit tavern, ten miles west of here.

Frank King, manager of the inn, and Jack Daniels, who lives near by, arrived here tonight after struggling through the snow on snowshoes. They immediately began the assembly of a pack horse train to take provisions and medical supplies to the inn.

The group includes eight passengers of an Interstate bus and motorists who abandoned their cars in drifts which blocked the road from Laramie to Cheyenne.

King and Daniels said the road was covered by four or five feet of snow.

Joseph B. Drell, 34 years old, rated as one of Chicago's wealthiest bookmakers, was in hiding last night in a loop hotel, physically unharmed but mentally distracted after nine hours in the custody of a band of kidnapers.

"I didn't pay them a cent," Drell chattered to a friend. "They were after $50,000 and maybe I would have given it, but about 5 p. m. they bought a newspaper and saw the story on page one. One of them said, 'This fellow's getting too hot for us,' so they put me out of the car, blindfolded, in Niles Center."

Drell's car was forced to the curb by another machine at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at Spaulding avenue and Monroe street, near the John Marshall school. He had driven his two children from his home at 25 South Central Park avenue to the school grounds.

Boys See Kidnaping.

Two school boys, Le Roy Bingham and Abe Milestone, saw three armed men surround Drell and force him into their car. They gave an alarm and Police Lieut. Phil Carroll was assigned to the case.

About 6 o'clock last night, it is understood, Drell called his partner, Leonard Hirschberg, in the Drell smoke shop at 641 West Madison street. The latter drove to Niles Center and returned to the loop with Drell, who is reported to have been considerably shaken by his experience.

Recall Gun Battle.

The shop at 641 West Madison street was the scene two years ago of a robbery and gun battle, Lieut. Carroll recalled. The street floor of the shop is dingy, but the basement two years ago contained one of the most elaborate casinos on the west side. More than 100 men were playing roulette, cards, and dice when three robbers held it up. Drell, violating the underworld code, telephoned for police, and one bandit was killed and two others were captured in the ensuing battle.

"I'm going to get out of Chicago," Drell is reported to have told his friends. "These fellows may go after my children next."

Drell sent word to police officials that he would appear at the bureau of identification today to scan photographs of suspects. He was too unnerved for it last night, it was said.

[Copyright: 1929: By The Chicago Tribune.]

MEXICO CITY, March 14.—Gen. José Gonzalo Escobar, commander in chief of the Mexican rebel forces, with approximately 9,000 men, according to a report from the rebel headquarters, has thrown up extensive entrenchments about Torreon and has fortified the heights above Gomez Palacio, a suburb, with the evident intention of defending both places.

Federal aviators flying over Torreon this morning report notable activity among the rebels. They saw hundreds of men working on additional entrenchments and advance lines of defense.

The government says that the rebel claim of 9,000 men in Torreon is highly exaggerated. The probable strength, with the addition of Gen. Francisco Urbalejo's army from Durango and 2,000 rebels which fell back from Saltillo, is about 6,000, the government says.

Calles Advances on Durango.

The position of the five armies converging on Torreon is more clearly seen this morning. It becomes evident that although Torreon is surrounded at a distance of some thirty miles by federal troops on all sides except the north, it is unlikely that an attack will be begun until Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles, minister of war, advances by way of Durango, as it is inadvisable to leave a fortified city of the importance of Durango in the rear of the attacking armies.

Therefore, Durango must be taken before Gen. Calles can begin the 160 mile march from Durango to Torreon.

Gen. Eulogio Ortiz, who is moving along two highways westward from Saltillo, has sent advance forces of cavalry to cut the railway north of Torreon, isolating Gen. Escobar and preventing a rebel retreat over the railway toward Chihuahua. Gen. Escobar is now committed to give battle or to fight his way through the federal forces.

Thirty Miles from Torreon.

Gen. Lazaro Cardenas, commanding the right wing of Gen. Calles' army, this morning was thirty miles from Torreon with 5,000 men. Gen. Cardenas expected to effect a junction with forces from the east under Generals Almazan and Cedillo, surrounding Torreon on the south, east, and west.

The actual position of the troops centering about Torreon was not stated tonight, but it is said that 20,000 men are closing in on the city. Gen. Escobar, speaking over the radio, said he intended to stay in Torreon and that he would fight it out as he believed his position was strong enough. In preparation for the battle, Gen. Es-

350 Children Are Trapped in Schoolhouse

BULLETIN.

Birmingham, Ala., March 14.—(AP)—Gov. Bibb Graves tonight broadcast an appeal over radio station WAPI urging that relief be sent to Elba, Ala., as speedily as possible, declaring unless aid is given the stricken city within the next six or eight hours that "all will be dead."

BULLETIN.

Dothan, Ala., March 14.—(AP)—An unnamed courier reaching the office of the Dothan Eagle tonight said 350 school children, marooned on the second floor of the Elba elementary school today, were out of control of the teachers and screaming for aid.

Troy, Ala., March 14.—(AP)—Grave fears were felt tonight for the safety of the 4,000 inhabitants of Elba, Ala., 32 miles south of here, who were cut off from all communication late today by flood waters of Pea river and White Water creek that rose suddenly to block all means of egress.

Urgent appeals for help were received from the stricken town shortly before telegraph and telephone communication was broken, presumably by rising waters that flooded offices.

Scores of lives were endangered unless boats reached the town by midnight, A. E. Lee of Enterprise informed local relief workers.

Streets in 10 Feet of Water.

Lee said his last reports were that water flowed through the streets of Elba to a depth of 10 feet in midafternoon and was still rising steadily as the torrents came down from the watersheds of Pea river and White Water creek.

Citizens moved to aid the flooded town, and at Montgomery Gov. Bibb Graves ordered two companies of Alabama guards to the scene to aid in rescue work.

Volunteers in Enterprise, Ala., 18 miles southeast of the stricken town, bent every effort to carry relief to the marooned residents. A relief crew of 100 men in boats and hastily constructed rafts set out from Enterprise this afternoon and were reported to have reached the city about 3 p. m. But at 7 p. m. no word had been received from them and none had returned.

Conditions elsewhere in south Alabama were reported as serious, with a steady rain continuing tonight.

FLOODS RAGE IN MIDWEST.

Swollen to the flood stage, the Mississippi river and some of its tributaries, including the mighty Missouri, were turbulent and threatening last night. Melting snows and ice jams set smaller streams boiling over their banks in four midwest states, while forty-eight hours' rain in the southland left the father of waters barely within its levees from Quincy, Ill., to Vicksburg.

Thousands of acres in Iowa were under water and gravel roads in many places were impassable.

The Des Moines river at Keokuk was at a 12 foot stage, a two foot rise having been recorded since Wednesday morning.

Danger from the swollen Galena river was lessened and stores on Main and Commerce streets in the town of Galena reopened yesterday.

HOLDS UP FAMILY IN HOME; NABBED WITH $1,700 LOOT

Max Schwartz, 6042 Champlain avenue, was aroused from his sleep shortly after 3 o'clock this morning by a flashlight thrown into his face. Standing beside his bed was a burglar pointing a pistol at his head. The burglar demanded his valuables, threatening to kill him, his wife and baby, sleeping in the same room, if his demands were not complied with. Schwartz told him there was no money in the house, and no jewelry of value.

The robber repeated his demand, snapping the trigger of his pistol twice. The weapon failed to discharge, but Schwartz jumped from his bed and gave the robber two diamond rings valued at $1,600, and $120 in money. The robber fled.

A few minutes afterward Lieut. Michael Kelly's detective squad from Woodlawn station saw a man enter a taxicab at 61st street and St. Lawrence avenue, driven by Henry Seeman, 1118 North Richmond avenue. The police followed it a block and stopped it. Seeman denied he had a passenger, but an armed man was found lying on the floor of the cab, and arrested. He gave the name of Albert Pianko, 1547 South Hamlin avenue. Schwartz's rings and money were found in his pockets. Seeman was held as an accomplice.

PROPOSE USING ALL COURTS TO CLEAR DOCKETS

Would Suspend Civil Cases Temporarily.

Law Enforcement Under Volstead Act

Suspension of the hearings of civil cases in Cook county for an indefinite period in order that all forty-four judges in the county might hear nothing but criminal cases was viewed favorably yesterday at a joint meeting of the executive committees of the Circuit and Superior courts. Under the suggested plan, the entire judicial system would be transformed into one great criminal court division until the 1,800 indictments now pending are disposed of.

The proposal startled Chicago's legal world. It was regarded as by far the most drastic move thus far suggested in the war against crime, overshadowing even the recent conference of United States Distict Attorney George E. Q. Johnson, State's Attorney John A. Swanson, Police Commissioner William Russell and Prohibition Administrator E. C. Yellowley. This conference initiated a drive against gangsters and will include an effort to drive them out of the city through the use of the drastic Jones law.

Judges Take Action Today.

These two developments were termed by judges and lawyers as vast strides forward in the campaign against lawlessness. The judges are to meet again today to take action on their plan in the chambers of Judge Denis E. Sullivan of the Superior court. The law enforcement chiefs also plan a second meeting within a day or two.

Not a divorce case would be heard if the judges' plan were adopted; not one of the thousands of damage suits involving approximately $250,000,000 would be given judicial notice until the burglary, robbery and rape cases on the criminal docket are tried. It was said that an emergency court might be left open to consider petitions for temporary injunctions and other classes of civil cases which should be given immediate attention, should the plan be adopted today.

Resent Criticism of Courts.

The judges were said to have looked with favor upon the plan only after grave deliberation. But resentment at what they termed a widespread belief that delay in punishment for criminals in this district is due to some extent to dilatory practices on the bench also prompted their action, it was said. They wanted entire responsibility for prosecution of crime in Cook county to be laid upon the shoulders of State's Attorney John A. Swanson, it was reported.

State's Attorney Swanson last night expressed doubt that all the judges would be willing or ready to hear criminal cases.

"If the judges go through with this plan," he declared, "I'll find the assistant state's attorneys to send into their courts. I hardly believe that the state's attorney's office could be conducted as efficiently with such an unwieldy organization, but I will go along with whatever they decide upon.

Swanson Pledges Coöperation.

"Putting all the forty-four judges into the Criminal court seems hardly possible or probable. It would involve temporary abolition of the chancery and law divisions and perhaps the Appellate court. However, I promise heartiest coöperation with whatever the judges may suggest."

Sidney S. Gorham, president of the Chicago Bar association, said he was surprised at the course of action contemplated by the judges.

"I think that such a procedure ought not to be necessary," he said. "There are other methods, in my judgment, by which the congested Criminal court calendar can be relieved much more effectively."

In the absence from the city of

Frank J. Loesch, president of the Chicago Crime commission, Henry Barrett Chamberlin, operating director, declared the commission was pleased to see the judges endeavoring to clean up the criminal calendar.

"Cases involving life and liberty are undoubtedly more important than any other class of cases," he declared. "There is much hope that the criminal calendar may soon be cleared up."

Point to Summer Courts.

Not wishing to be officially quoted until action is taken today, the judges favoring the plan pointed out that it was a logical proposal if the jail is ever to be rid of its 1,400 and more prisoners, most of them awaiting trial. The plan is practical, they asserted, pointing out that for three months in the summer hearing of all cases is suspended with only two emergency courts left open.

"If all the judges can go away on vacations during the summer, why can't they all turn to hearing criminal cases for a period?" one judge asked during the meeting.

"It has been the custom to blame the judges for delays in court procedure," said another jurist. "This, in face of the fact that the waiving of felonies, a practice which is helpful to speedy and just dealing with criminals, has been discouraged. The grand jury is turning out 450 indictments a month and a judge cannot hear more than eight jury cases a month.

Would Give Prosecutor Free Rein.

"Under the suggested plan we would turn the entire court system of the county over to the state's attorney. In six weeks all the pending indictments can be cleared up. It would be a real test of all the theories so freely aired at the present."

"Let the county board appropriate money for extra assistants," declared the judge when it was pointed out that both the state's attorney and the Criminal court clerk might need additional aid. "Let the commissioners provide for extra clerks. They've been free enough with the taxpayers' money in appropriating for grand juries."

Sullivan Asks More Judges.

Chief Justice John J. Sullivan of the Criminal court had gone to the meeting hoping to receive from six to ten more judges to help dispose of criminal cases.

"What good will a few more judges do you?" the judges asked. "The few extra judges you have now have been unable to make a dent in the mass of indictments which are daily added to. The best way would be to give you every judge in the county."

Judge Sullivan was noncommittal after the meeting. All the judges seemed to want time to sleep on the proposal, said to be unprecedented in the history of English law.

The virtual abolition of felony waivers in the Criminal court was said by many of the judges to be responsible for the crowded condition of the criminal docket. Since the trial of Judges Emanuel Eller, Stanley Klarkowski, and Otto Kerner on charges of paltering with justice by waiving felonies indiscriminately, other judges have been fearful of waiving felonies and disposal of cases in the Criminal court has been slow and cumbersome, it was said.

Claims Courts Handicapped.

Before the outcry against felony waivers had been raised, from 300 to 400 cases were disposed of in the Criminal court each month. Now the eleven judges have trouble in disposing of 100 cases monthly.

"Nothing was more just than the waiving of felonies," one judge stated. "It is a common practice in every state in the Union and in England where the courts are pointed to as models for the United States. Doing away with the felony waiver has turned each case into a lengthy jury trial with the jury often turning a man loose when they know him guilty because the penalty provided by law seems too severe for the crime."

One result of the suggested plan would be to make 1,700 lawyers engaged in civil practice temporarily idle, it was pointed out.

Lawyers Join to Nullify New Jones Dry Enforcement Law

New York, March 14.—[Special.]—A committee of lawyers, including three former assistant United States attorneys, was organized here today with the avowed purpose to educate New York juries so that they will refuse to convict under the Jones law. Frederick R. Coudert Jr. was named chairman and the committee immediately went into action, with Harold Content appearing for a defendant arraigned in Brooklyn. Content, like Coudert, was formerly assistant United States attorney in the Brooklyn district.

The formation of the committee took place simultaneously with the monthly meeting of the Voluntary Committee of Lawyers, Inc., who were told by George E. Worthington, counsel for the committee of fourteen, that vice conditions and illegal liquor traffic will grow worse unless the prohibition law is repealed.

Method Is Outlined.

Frederick C. Bellinger, who was an assistant under former United States Attorney Buckner, explained that the Coudert committee hopes to "nullify" the drastic Jones law in the same way that this was accomplished to all practical purposes when the government tried to obtain convictions of night club owners charged with conspiracy.

Federal judges invariably refused to convict in these conspiracy cases, and Bellinger said his committee hoped to "educate juries" to do the same thing when citizens are tried under the Jones law, which provides a possible penalty of five years in prison and $10,000 fine for all dry law violations except possession.

Mr. Coudert said his committee might be helpful in "aiding juries to perform this invaluable function of preserving civil liberties."

Says Act Crippled Law.

He added:

"Since the sale of a glass of beer has been raised to the dignity of a felony, carrying penalties similar to those provided in this state for assault and manslaughter, it was thought best to form a committee to assist those who have done nothing condemned by civil society and who might be subject to such severe penalties.

"Apart from the law, the sale of intoxicants is not wrong. While it may be illegal, it cannot be made wrong by any statute, as it is not condemned by moral sentiment nor inherently dangerous to others. To endeavor to penalize such acts by the infliction of penalties hitherto only applicable to serious moral infractions, brings the whole criminal law into contempt and handicap its administration."

Meanwhile, a good many of the wet night clubs were closed today, following report that the first arrests here yesterday under the "five and ten" law were only preliminary to a new federal enforcement drive.

Thirteen men were arrested by federal agents in five raids yesterday.

St. Louis Bars Scared.

St. Louis, Mo., March 14.—(AP)—Chief of Police Joseph Gerk announced today, following a survey that 195 saloons in St. Louis are known to have closed their doors since the Jones amendment to the Volstead act, increasing the maximum punishment for first violations to 5 years in prison and a $10,000 fine, became effective March 1.

Operation Dulls Sense of Smell; Gas Kills Woman

Owing to the loss of her sense of smell due to an operation performed upon her several days ago, Mrs. Nellie Martin, 37 years old, 1938 Bradley place, was asphixiated in the basement of her home last night. Mrs. Martin was washing clothes in the basement, according to police, when a gas hose became disconnected. Due to the operation on her tonsils some days ago she was unable to smell the escaping gas and was suddenly overcome, according to the police.

VOLUNTEER DRY SNOOPER SHOOTS FLEEING NEGRO

Jacksonville, Fla., March 14.—[Special.]—Joseph Haywood, a volunteer deputy sheriff with a special flair for prohibition work, shot an unarmed Negro in the back for attempting to escape custody after arrest for possession of two quarts of moonshine. The Negro, named John Carter, was sprawling on the ground when Haywood shot him, having stumbled in his flight. He probably will die. Haywood is serving under a special commission from Sheriff W. B. Cahoon, without salary.

"He was justified in shooting the fugitive," said the sherff.

Senate Reports Bootlegger Measure.

Lansing, Mich., March 14.—[Special.]—A spirit of compromise, apparent yesterday in the ranks of the hitherto unyielding bone dry element forces, has flickered out with the result that the Cuthbertson "bootlegger bill," believed to have been killed in the senate state affairs committee by the champions of tolerance, was reported out by that committee today.

But the bill is not the harsh support to the notorious "life for a pint act" it originally was intended. It will not affect the habitual criminal act in the amended form, favored by the administration, and almost certain of passage. The committee changed the bill's provisions so that not even bootleggers will come under the life sentence provision for four felonies. This was done by reducing the maximum sentence provided for rum dealers from five years to four. Under the proposed amendment to the criminal code, the mandatory life term for a fourth felony will be applicable only to persons convicted of a crime carrying a penalty of at least five years.

Sensational Features.

Appearance of the Cuthbertson bill on the floor of the senate, however, was not without its sensational features, despite its augury of probable peace in relation to the prohibition issue. Senator Albert J. Engel, chairman of the prohibition committee, and former prosecutor of Lake county, charged Gov. Fred W. Green, by inference at least, with responsibility for lack of enforcement of the Michigan prohibition law.

Engel made his accusation after Senator Peter F. Lennon of Genesee county had charged that the liquor law is not being enforced against "the big fellows."

Engel replied that if prohibition is not impartially and fully enforced it is not the legislature's responsibility, but that of the executive branch of the government.

Armed Bootleggers.

Lennon then announced he would ask for an amendment to the Cuthbertson bill to provide five years' maximum imprisonment for bootleggers found armed when arrested.

While the senate was debating prohibition legislation, Representative James McBridge announced in the house that he had received a reply from Bishop Thomas Nicholson, Detroit, president of the Michigan Anti-Saloon league, in regard to the protest of 14 dry house members, against the lobbying activities of the Rev. Mr. Holsaple. Bishop Nicholson said he had referred the complaint to F. Scott McBride, head of the national dry league. He expressed his regret that the feeling against Holsaple had appeared, but indicated it would be impossible for him to consider the case.

SUICIDE LAID TO MONEY LOSSES.

Suicide due to financial reverses was the verdict yesterday of a coroner's jury investigating the death of J. L. Billingsley, 40 years old, of the Spencer Arms hotel, 1050 East Seventy-first street, a bond salesman, who was found dead in his room Wednesday from a bullet wound.

HOOVER WANTS HUGHES TO HEAD HIS CRIME QUIZ

New Yorker Spends Night at White House.

Washington, D. C., March 14.—[Special.]—Charles Evans Hughes conferred tonight with President Hoover upon the Root formula for American adherence to the world court and upon the administration's plan for a law enforcement commission.

Mr. Hughes spent the night at the White House. His views on the world court were sought because he is familiar with changes in sentiment here and abroad relative to American adherence and the probabilities of the rules being changed affecting Reservation 5, dealing with advisory opinions.

It is reported the President would like to press Mr. Hughes into accepting the chairmanship of the law enforcement commission if the latter feels that he can perform such work without embarrassment to his world court and other activities.

In any case, it is said, he intends to rely on the judgment of Mr. Hughes as to the personnel of the commission.

Familiar with Subject.

As a member of several committees of the American Bar association which have studied lawlessness and failures in prohibition enforcement, Mr. Hughes can give the President valuable advice as to how the commission might proceed and the type of men calculated to make the survey successful.

William Draper Lewis, former dean of the University of Pennsylvania, law school, and now president of the American institute, was brought forward today as eminently qualified to head the commission.

Dean Hutchins of the Yale Law school and Professor Charles E. Clark, who have devoted much time to such an inquiry, saw the President early in the day. The former was later mentioned as a probable member of the commission.

Chief Justice Taft and Mr. Hughes have been advocates of reforms in judicial procedure and better methods of law enforcement. President Hoover is represented as having favored many of the suggestions made by the council of federal judges and intends to confer with Chief Justice Taft before he announces the personnel of the commission.

Silent on Root Plan.

There was no official statement as to President Hoover's attitude relative to the formula presented by Mr. Root in Geneva on the world court's advisory opinions which if adopted would place the United States on an equality with members of the league of nations.

Certain changes in the Root formula have been made at the suggestion of Sir Cecil Hurst of Great Britain. Until these have been received officially, with some indication as to the probability of their adoption by the league council, official comment will be withheld, it was said at the state department and the White House.

Some Republican senators are inclined to believe that the Root formula would not be accepted by the senate. They assert that if the world court gives an advisory opinion on a matter in which the United States has, or claims an interest, this action would place the United States in effect, in the rôle of an outlawed nation.

JUDGE FACES QUIZ ON $7,000 SPENT ON RUM EVIDENCE

Much Liquor Bought; Woman Entertained.

Madison, Wis., March 14.—[Special.]—An investigation looking toward impeachment proceedings against Circuit Judge E. B. Belden of Racine is asked in a resolution introduced in the assembly today by Assemblyman A. F. Woller of Milwaukee.

The resolution was the outgrowth of charges read in the senate yesterday by Senator Herman J. Severson of Iola. Senator Severson read from photostatic copies of bills said to have been approved by Judge Belden during a grand jury investigation in 1921 and 1922. These bills were from private detectives and included several hundred dollars for liquor purchases and one item listed as having been spent with a prostitute.

The resolution was referred to the committee on revision. It calls on the judiciary committee to make an investigation of the charges against Judge Belden and to report its findings to the lower house as a possible basis for impeachment proceedings.

The resolution declares that "a state senator produced photostatic copies of official court records showing that payments in excess of $7,000 to the Russell Detective agency were approved by Circuit Judge E. B. Belden in connection with the work of the grand jury in Kenosha county in 1921 and 1922, including numerous and large expenditures for liquor and immoral women."

Items in the expense account objected to and on which the charges are based include:

Jan. 26, spent with prostitute, "Vic," $4.40.
Feb. 21, one case of whisky, $140.
Commission, $10.
Feb. 10, one gallon of whisky, $48.
Feb. 13, one gallon of moonshine, $8.
Feb. 13, one gallon gin, $8.

The charges against Judge Belden are a direct outgrowth of an attempt to win passage in the senate of a bill to permit expenditures of $10,000 in grand jury investigations.

It was charged that this bill was aimed particularly to permit the employment of more private dtectives in the Kenosha strike situation and the measure is bitterly opposed by labor.

They will be presented at the annual opera to be held by the society next week.

CRIME INCREASES IN NEW YORK, REPORT FOR 1928 REVEALS

New York, March 14.—[Special.]—Crimes of violence, burglaries, grand larceny, and assault and robbery during 1928 were greater in number than during 1927, according to the annual report submitted to Mayor Walker today by Police Commissioner Whalen.

"The total number of arrests made for all classes of crime committed in 1928 shows a big increase, totaling 454,339, as compared with 416,719 in 1927," Mr. Whalen's statement said. "This is an increase of 37,622, or 9 per cent. Convictions on all arrests show an increase of 35,182, or 11 per cent."

Mr. Whalen did not discuss the figures for murder cases but the official report shows there were 339 murder and manslaughter cases in 1928, as compared with 278 in 1927.

RAIDER SUED FOR BURNING HOME OF DRY VIOLATOR

Constable Also Faces Charge of Arson.

Phillips, Wis., March 14.—[Special.]—Constable Hjalmer Blomberg, Prentice, Wis., will go on trial here on March 19 in a civil suit begun by James T. Fagg, whom Blomberg arrested on a liquor charge. An arson charge has also been lodged against Blomberg.

The constable is alleged to have burned the Fagg dwelling, in which he discovered a moonshine still. The warrant for his arrest on a charge of arson was issued by District Attorney J. H. Ledvina of Park Falls on complaint of the state fire marshal's department. Fagg is suing for damages.

Blomberg, accompanied by Constable Stevens of Ogema, entered the Fagg dwelling with a search warrant and destroyed seven barrels of mash found there. After a quarrel with Fagg, Blomberg, the suit charges, suggested that the place be burned, and in spite of objections by Constable Stevens, applied the torch.

Reports that a dozen summer cottages were burned after liquor raids have come to the attention of the state fire marshal's office. The majority of these places were broken into while the owners were absent and were used for manufacturing liquor.

Federal and state prohibition departments, as well as the state insurance and fire departments, are interested because of the technicalities involved.

The prohibition law grants the right to destroy a building housing a liquor plant, but not by burning, in the opinion of Deputy Fire Marshall Scott McLean.

MILLS, INVENTOR OF SLOT MACHINE, LEAVES $930,000

The will of Herbert S. Mills, inventor of slot machines and president of the Mills Novelty company, who died in Miami, Fla., on Feb. 2, was filed yesterday before Edward S. Scheffler, assistant to Probate Judge Henry Horner. It disposes of an estate valued at $930,000. The beneficiaries are his widow and children, four sons and four daughters.

One-third of the estate is left to his wife, Mrs. Leonie E. Mills, and the remaining two-thirds is divided equally among his children, Frederick, Mrs. Marie Armstrong, Ralph, Herbert S. Jr., Helen, Mrs. Audrey Donlay, Hayden, and Dorothy. All live in Oak Park and River Forest.

In his youth Mr. Mills was a newsboy. He perfected a slot machine which amassed a fortune. In 1907 he was sentenced to serve a year in the house of correction for misuse of the mails. There he won the title of "the bridewell's best prisoner" after spending $6,000 for the welfare of the prisoners.

Wife, Age 26, Ends Her Life by Taking Gas

Following a cozy dinner with her husband, Mrs. Dorothy Loweree, 26 years old, returned to her apartment on the sixteenth floor of 211 East Delaware place last night and killed herself with gas. In a note the girl declared she was afraid of a nervous breakdown. The husband, Paul, left his wife after dinner to keep a business appointment. When he returned home he found the girl's body slumped over the gas range in the kitchen. A pulmotor squad made a futile attempt to revive her.

RAIDERS MAKE CLUB'S PARTY AN ARID OCCASION

Prohibition agents under Assistant Administrator George H. Hurlburt last night raided a cloakroom in the Southmoor hotel, 6646 Stony Island avenue, which had been rented in conjunction with a dinner dance given by the Harmony club, an electrician's organization, and found a large suit case full of whisky.

The management of the hotel grew suspicious when a request for the room was made and notified Mr. Hurlburt that it thought some drinking might be planned by attendants at the dance. About 600 men and women attended.

While the Southmoor raid was in progress other agents purchased several bottles of whisky from Leo Riley, a bellboy at the Congress hotel, where Prohibition Administrator E. C. Yellowley makes his home, and promptly arrested him. He was held for arraignment this morning. Riley told the agents he could furnish them with either "wine, women or song."

Four Overcome by Gas; Revived by Firemen

Mrs. Victoria Siepp, 28 years old, and her two babies, Steven, 3 years old, and Frances, 18 months old, and a neighbor, Dominick Lopez, were revived by firemen yesterday morning after they had been found overcome by gas in the Siepp home, 1613 West Erie street.

Mrs. Siepp had been too ill to attend the wake for her mother, Wednesday night, and her husband asked Lopez to stay in the house while he attended it, Mr. Siepp explained yesterday.

WANTED: 7 GOOD MEN FOR HONEST PAY ROLL PROBE

BY PARKE BROWN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfitld, Ill., March 14.—[Special.]—In the eyes of Speaker David E. Shanahan of the Illinois house of representatives, Diogenes had a cinch. That was the conclusion drawn this morning when the dean of the legislature confessed that he has not been able to select the personnel of the Branson committee to investigate and find out what state legislators are on other pay rolls, chiefly those of the Chicago sanitary district.

The ancient Greek set himself the task of finding an honest man. But Shanahan has had imposed on him the job of selecting seven members who are not only honest, but also disinterested in the field of inquiry and willing to stick their fingers into unhealed wounds caused by prior publicity.

Following adjournment for the week end, the speaker admitted to newspaper men that his failure to announce the committee authorized more than a week ago was caused by his inability, despite modern illumination, of which Diogenes had not the benefit some 2,300 years ago, to find seven members qualified—or not disqualified—to make the sort of an investigation he thinks necessary.

Another speaker might have let his executive committee make up the slate for him and thereby avoid responsibility; but that isn't the way Shanahan does business. The selections are to be his own.

His close friends say that not only has he devoted many daylight hours to his problem during the last week but that he has outdone Diogenes in the amount of work in striving to complete the septet. Time and time again, it is said, as he has run down the list of 151 eligibles, he has come to a man—or a woman—with the required ability and honesty, only to analyze qualifications further and find that there is a colleague from the same district who managed to get on two pay rolls or to have a relative, a friend or—it is whispered—even a dummy in some nice place at the trough.

When that situation exists it is more than suspected that the proposed investigator might be prompted either by a desire to aid a friend or to punish an enemy, the tilting of the scales of justice being determined largely by political alliances or animosities.

Half Legislature Affected.

It is reported here that when the identities of the backers of numerous dummies on the Chicago pay rolls are fixed, about half the membership of the house will be splashed with mud that will reach into most of the districts in the state.

In some instances where none of the three representatives of a district reached the luxury of double compensation, the senator from that district has been found perched on a second pay roll. In others some political boss of a district has been found enjoying a workless job.

Most of the Cook county members are considered ineligible. Even where a trio of representatives has remained unsmirched, analysis shows nearly every time an alliance with some faction that has two or more of its members on the board or is in power in the city hall, the county building or one of the park boards, all of whose pay rolls are covered by the Branson resolution.

In addition many acceptable legislators are reluctant to cripple their legislative opportunities by turning scores of other members against them.

Senate Quiz Starts Today.

In the meantime the senatorial committee headed by Senator Harry W. Starr of Chicago will get a long lead over the delegation from the lower branch. Chairman Starr has called a meeting at the Palmer house tomorrow morning, and, while he said no program had been agreed upon in advance, it is predicted operations will be started at once.

State's Attorney John A. Swanson is said to have assured representatives of the house that its committee may have the records of the Sanitary district now in his possession. Right here Starr may get the jump, as his committee may determine to ask that these papers be turned over before the house committee is named.

The Starr committee consists of five members. One of them, Senator Arthur A. Miles, Rosiclair, Hardin county, will be unable to be present because of cases in court at home. That is expected to leave the meeting in the hands of three Chicagoans, Starr, Adolph Marks, a Republican from the near south side, and Edward Hughes, a west side Democrat, if they can agree among themselves.

Such an agreement is not expected. Prophets here say Marks and Hughes will stand together and that Starr's only chance of wholehearted support lies in William R. McCauley, Republican, from Olney, Richland county.

Schnackenberg Defends Self.

The subject of this investigation was mentioned before the house today when Representative Elmer J. Schnackenberg made a statement denying a recent reference to him as one of the present experts on Corporation Counsel Ettelson's staff. He said that he dropped his city hall service at the opening of the session.

Both he and Representative Roger F. Leader, floor leader of the house, championed the rights of attorney members to sell their services to public bodies when the legislature is not in session

The Day in Springfield

Two bills introduced in each house for improvement of financing of local governmental bodies, sponsored by Illinois Manufacturers association.

SENATE.

NEW BILLS: By Bailey, to require coroner's certificate involving payment of $75 for cremation of bodies; by Cuthbertson, to appropriate $750,000 for Illinois river bridge at Hardin; by Mills, to impose new tax on foreign insurance companies; by Thompson, to require one day of rest in seven for employès in certain occupations.

HOUSE.

NEW BILLS: By McCarthy, to prohibit daylight savings time; by O'Neill, women's eight hour bill; by Whitely, to appropriate $100,000 to purchase Mississippi River Palisades for state park.

FALLING BOLT KILLS WORKMAN.

Fears Water Pollution in Illinois Valley.

A vivid description of sanitation conditions which would prevail in the Illinois river valley should the legislature deny the plea of trustees of the sanitary district for the right to pass bond issues without a referendum was given yesterday by Edward J. Kelly, chief engineer of the district.

Recalling the state of the Chicago river in the days before the sanitary district inaugurated its sewage treatment program, Mr. Kelly declared that towns along the Illinois river would face a similar pollution of their water supplies were Chicago forced to dump its sewage untreated into the Chicago river.

Tells Pollution Peril.

"As the situation stands now," Mr. Kelly said, "Chicago may be forced to such an extremity unless the legislature passes the district's bill allowing a free hand in issuing bonds to finance work demanded by the government. If we cannot finish $27,000,000 worth of construction work this year the war department has the right to stop our diversion of water from Lake Michigan. This would nullify our whole scheme of sewage treatment and force us to turn the sewage from a city of 3,000,000 into the Chicago river in its raw state. From there it would flow into the Illinois river and pollute the whole water supply of the Illinois valley.

"Any one who remembers the Chicago river prior to the inception of the present system knows what that would mean. I have seen the river so choked with filth that a pig walked across it at Archer avenue. I have seen the river on fire—the oily scum and waste on the top burning like kerosene. The acids in the sewage were so strong that they took the paint off buildings some distance from the banks."

Danger of Pestilence.

A grave danger of pestilence in the valley would follow the failure of the district's plans, Mr. Kelly asserted. The Illinois river, he said, would become a breeding place for mosquitoes, and the drinking water in the whole of the Illinois valley would be filled with typhoid germs.

"On the other hand," he said, "if we should be allowed, by the passage of the bill now before the legislature, to go ahead with our building program, we could promise the Illinois valley almost ideal sanitary conditions. The water supply would be purer than ever before. An enlarged fishing industry could be built up, a thing impossible in polluted waters. We could also look forward to a deep waterway to the Mississippi, which would be of inestimable value as a commercial asset to towns along its course."

Inventory Is $3,000,000 More than Estimate.

An inventory of the estate of the late James A. Patten, capitalist, made public yesterday by the executor, the Chicago Title and Trust company, lists assets with a market value of more than $21,000,000. This is approximately $3,000,000 more than was estimated when the will was filed for probate on Dec. 20.

Since half of the estate goes to charity on the death of the widow, Mrs. Amanda Louisa Patten, this increased evaluation means that seven public institutions named beneficiaries will share approximately $10,500,000 rather than the $9,000,000 originally estimated.

Bonds Less Than 10 Per Cent.

The assets, as shown by the inventory, consist of $2,500,000 worth of real estate, bonds with a market value of $1,925,000, stock estimated at about $16,000,000, and cash and receivables totaling $760,000.

The portion of the estate in bonds, less than 10 per cent, is considered below normal for large fortunes. However, of the bonds, $1,890,000 are in tax exempt securities.

The stocks are almost entirely of established industrials, banks and utilities, so sound that John L. Patten, son of the deceased, declared it would be foolish to sell any of them. A large proportion in Chicago and Illinois corporations indicates, it was said, the confidence held by the financial genius in the future economic welfare of his community.

Frugality His Success Key.

Mr. Patten devoted most of his life to the science of investments. On his seventieth birthday he gave the following as his recipe for success: "I believe frugality of habit is the one essential. Men may be brilliant and yet never get anywhere because they do not have the money necessary to back their schemes." He was 76 when he died on Dec. 8 at his Evanston home.

The bulk of the income from the estate will go to the widow. On her death half goes to charity and half to the children, John L. Patten of 399 Fullerton parkway and Mrs. Agnes Patten Wilder of Santa Barbara, Cal. The seven charitable institutions which will divide $150,000 with the probating of the will, and which ultimately will share approximately $10,500,000, are: Evanston hospital, Presbyterian Home of Evanston, Old People's Home of Chicago, United Charities of Chicago, Visiting Nurses' association, Glenwood Manual Training school, and the Chicago council of Boy Scouts.

Bank Stocks $6,225,000.

Bank stocks totaling $6,225,000, with their approximate market values, are as follows: City National Bank of Evanston, $8,000; Continental National Bank and Trust company, $1,206,000; First National bank, $786,000; Illinois Merchants Trust company, $3,140,000; National Bank of the Republic, $455,000; Northern Trust company, $137,000, and State Bank and Trust company of Evanston, $493,000.

BITTEN BY DOG

HARRIET MURRAY.

A mongrel dog which strayed yesterday into the home of John F. Murray, a bank official living at 2121 Lincolnwood drive, Evanston, attacked Mrs. Murray, who drove it from the house into the yard. There the animal attacked the Murrays' 3 year old daughter, Harriet, and gnawed her right hand before police arrived and captured it. The dog was held in the Evanston pound for observation and a physician administered an antirabies treatment to Harriet.

MINNEAPOLIS CHICAGO ST. PAUL

VOUCHERS SHOW REID A NINE YEAR CITY PAY ROLLER

Congressman Has Steady Job Under Thompson.

Congressman Frank R. Reid, who does not reside in Chicago or Cook county, has received $25,638 from the city treasury during the Thompson administrations, an examination of voucher lists disclosed yesterday. The size of the sum was a surprise to members of the city council, who declared that Mr. Reid's emoluments could not be duplicated by many Chicagoans. They recalled the days when the mayor proclaimed that men capable of carrying on the city's affairs invariably could be found at home.

Mr. Reid lives in Aurora. At present he is counsel for the city in its fight against the straight 10 cent elevated fare.

$25,638 Since Close of 1917.

The sum of $25,638, it was pointed out, is what Mr. Reid received on voucher payments since the close of 1917. Records in the city controller's office show that he was also on the pay rolls during the year 1917, but the vouchers for that year are gathering dust in the Bridewell warehouse. With them are the pay rolls of that time. An attaché of Corporation Counsel Samuel A. Ettelson's office said yesterday that Reid was on the regular pay roll in those days.

The voucher records show payments to the congressman all through the years from 1917 to 1929 with the exception of the period from 1923 to 1927, when William E. Dever was mayor. In the Thompson administrations, the vouchers reveal, the payments have ranged from a voucher for $100 in 1918 to one for $1,100 covering eleven days in January, 1929.

Flood control may have been a common tie between the mayor and the congressman, one alderman suggested. Reid received $750, at $50 a day, for special legal services to the Thompson flood relief commission.

What the Vouchers Show.

The voucher payments, for "services rendered," and the years in which they were made, are as follows:

Expenses to Washington on track elevation matters	$ 100
1919.
Three vouchers in connection with litigation against the Chicago & Western Indiana railroad to recover damages for encroaching on city property; total	2,500
1920.
Chicago & Western Indiana litigation	2,900
For above and services to committee on local industries	2,050
1921.
As attorney for committee on local industries at rate of $5,000 a year	2,373
Track elevation and river straightening	1,500
Special counsel on printing opinions at the rate of $6,000 a year	500
1927.
Special legal services for Thompson flood relief commission	750
Special legal services on legislative matters and Illinois commerce commission cases	1,900
Legal services on public utility matters	1,400
Special legal services on public improvements and public utilities	2,500
1929.
Eleven days in January on traction matters and the elevated fare case	1,100

As Mr. Reid's work varied under the direction of Mr. Ettelson, so did his compensation, the records show. The per diem rate of his recompense, aldermen said, puts the congressman in the same class with the high paid experts hired by Mr. Ettelson and Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements. Reid's services in 1927 were valued at only $50 a day, according to the vouchers, but by July, 1928, the rate had doubled, it was pointed out.

Enters Congress in 1923.

Congressman Reid was elected from the 11th congressional district in the fall of 1922 and took up his duties in the Sixty-eighth congress in the following year. Mayor Dever went into office in 1923 and Reid's name disappeared from the voucher records until Mayor Thompson was inducted into office for the third time.

Since the flood control days of 1927 the congressman has been in the service of the city's legal department, dividing his time between Chicago and Washington. A special session of congress is to be held soon, but Mr. Reid said that will not hinder him from contesting the elevated fare raise.

ELEVATED OFFICIAL DENIES $10,000,000 DEBT TO EDISON CO.

A recent statement that the Commonwealth Edison company is a creditor of the Chicago Rapid Transit company to the extent of $10,000,000 was denied yesterday by Vice President Charles E. Thompson of the elevated lines in testimony before Master in Chancery Roswell B. Mason at the thirtieth hearing of the elevated fare suit.

On next Wednesday will occur the thirty-first hearing of the suit, which began 253 days ago, and the record of which already fills 1,686 typewritten pages. The case began when the Elevated lines obtained an injunction to restrain the Illinois commerce commission from preventing collection of a straight 10 cent fare. The city has joined the commission in its fight to keep the injunction from being made permanent.

"If the elevated lines owe any $10,000,000 item I never heard of it, and I would hear of it if it were true," declared Mr. Thompson, who is in charge of operation of the company.

Congressman Frank R. Reid, who is representing the city, requested that the elevated company furnish cost figures on the building of the Maywood-Westchester and Niles Center extensions and the amount of rentals being paid by the Aurora and Elgin and the North Shore lines. This information may be presented at the hearing on Wednesday, it was said.

HOME AND HONEY ARE BIRTHDAY GIFTS TO EINSTEIN

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, March 14.—Prof. Albert Einstein fled with his family from his home here to the country today to escape the tide of congratulations from all parts of the world on this his fiftieth birthday. However, his apartment, as well as the two garret rooms at the top of the house which are fitted up as his study, heaped from the floor to the ceiling with presents, bore testimony of the high regard in which his well-wishers hold him.

The city of Berlin broke all German precedents by presenting Prof. Einstein with the life use of a beautiful country villa at Neukladow, near Berlin. It is in the midst of one of the most magnificent parks in north Germany. Another gift—from the Paris Sorbonne—was an honorary doctor's degree.

Among the gifts was a beehive full of honey, with a huge basketful of Jaffa oranges.

CITY MANAGER PLAN IS SOUGHT FOR CHICAGO

Designed to combat the high cost of local government, a meeting has been called by the Illinois Manufacturers' Cost association for next Tuesday at the La Salle hotel when a campaign for adoption of the city manager plan will be launched. The meeting will be addressed by John W. Esterline, Indianapolis manufacturer and engineer, who was chairman of the league which waged the successful fight for the city manager plan in Indianapolis.

In the meantime the manufacturers' group, headed by R. I. Pierce, secretary of the Chicago Heights Manufacturers' association, is drafting a bill for introduction before the state assembly providing that all cities may organize under the managerial form of government.

EXPECT SURPLUS UNDER REDUCED TAX ON INCOMES

Treasury Officials Await Returns with Interest.

Washington, D. C., March 14.—(AP)—Confident that a surplus will be rolled up, treasury officials are awaiting with interest the sum total of income tax payments now being made to learn the full effect the tax reduction bill enacted by the last session of congress will have in the fiscal period ending tomorrow midnight.

These payments will afford the first opportunity to ascertain what effect the reduction in the rate on corporation incomes from 13½ to 12 per cent will have in the amount of revenue.

Compromise on 12 Per Cent.

A year ago reduction of the corporation rate was a disputed subject. The treasury insisted a reduction of more than one per cent would endanger the treasury surplus while Democrats contended the rate could be lowered to 11 per cent with perfect safety. A compromise on the 12 per cent rate was effected.

Secretary Mellon today predicted there would be a comfortable surplus in the government's income for the fiscal year 1929. Payments, including those from corporations and individuals, so far have exceeded expectations. Receipts to date are $4,000,000 more than expected.

With one day remaining in which income tax returns may be filed, treasury officials believe the first quarter's payment will equal, if not exceed, the 97,137,752 collected during the first quarter of 1928.

Predict Another Cut.

Business men are viewing the returns, especially those by corporations, from a standpoint that larger receipts under the lower rate may pave the way for another tax reduction.

Last year 135,000 corporations paid taxes while 360,000 others not subject to the tax made returns. Many of the latter class are expected to have incomes warranting tax payments for their 1928 business. The total income tax collections last year amounted to 2,169,417,231, while a total of 2,500,000 citizens paid such taxes.

With more than a half a billion dollars in treasury certificates falling due tomorrow the treasury is issuing an additional offering of certificates totaling $475,999,500.

TONIGHT'S THE DEADLINE.

All income tax returns for the first district of Illinois must be filed in the office of Mrs. Mabel G. Reinecke, collector of internal revenue, by midnight tonight or mailed so as to show a collection time stamp of not later than 1 a. m. tomorrow morning, Mrs. Reinecke announced yesterday. For the purpose of allowing last minute taxpayers to get in under the wire the internal revenue office on the fifth floor of the Federal building will be open until midnight.

At closing time last night 91,500 returns had been filed, representing a total collection of $10,919,818.26. For a like period last year 100,500 returns had been filed and $12,079,843.36 collected. It is expected that today's final collections will show total returns exceeding the 1928 figures.

TRIBUNE HONORS THAT 'RISING TIDE OF CIRCULATION'

And the Reason for It Is Explained at Banquet.

Qualities that go to make THE TRIBUNE, the "world's greatest newspaper," were the theme last night at a dinner at the Congress hotel in celebration of the passing of the million and a quarter mark in Sunday circulation. Col. R. R. McCormick, editor and publisher of THE TRIBUNE, was host to the circulation department and wholesale news dealers. Addresses by executive heads of THE TRIBUNE were interspersed with a program of theatrical entertainment, with Louis H. Rose, circulation manager, acting as toastmaster.

"The growth of THE TRIBUNE is a source of great satisfaction and pride to all of us," said Col. McCormick. "Lord Beaverbrook recently said in London that THE TRIBUNE is recognized as the greatest newspaper in the world. It merits that distinction because of the character, personality, spirit and team play of all those connected with the paper.

Tells Tribune's Policy.

"Never has the circulation department failed to meet the demands placed upon it. And nowhere in the past has there been such an editorial department as THE TRIBUNE boasts today. It has the policy of always getting the best men, raising them if possible, or else going out for them. And when we get them we keep them.

"Problems of news have changed. The difficulties of getting news have altered. News is easy to get now—too easy. News factories are turning out what are termed handouts and a lazy editor or reporter can get all the filler he wants by merely opening his mail. We on THE TRIBUNE don't handle that sort of news. We turn it down. Our men go out and get the actual facts; they find out the truth and then write it in a skillful and literary manner.

"At all times and in all parts of the world, THE TRIBUNE has fearless men working to get the world's news."

Scoops in Foreign Lands.

Col. McCormick dwelt upon some of THE TRIBUNE's foreign service, such as the Tokio earthquake and the recent airplane flight of Larry Rue into the wilds of Afghanistan and his interview with the ruler. Also he told of the feat of the correspondent in Belgium, a girl, who had herself hoisted over the wall around the home of the ex-kaiser in order to get the story of his recent birthday party.

Other speakers were Weymouth Kirkland of THE TRIBUNE law office, Max Annenberg, former TRIBUNE circulation manager, now in charge of the circulation of the New York News and Liberty Magazine, and George Seidler of Rockford.

"THE TRIBUNE's great growth," said Mr. Rose, the circulation manager, "is explained by the fact that the circulation men are given a piece of merchandize to sell which is the best of its kind in America."

The program of entertainment was assembled by Miss May Dowling, special representative of the Messrs. Shubert, and John J. Garrity, manager of the Shubert theaters in Chicago. They also directed the routine of the performance.

Among those on the program were De Wolf Hopper, Allan Ragan, tenor, of "White Lilacs"; Miss Roberta Beatty, soprano, of "And So to Bed"; Frank Gaby, the ventriloquist of "Gay Paree," and the Reddicks, dancers, of "Hello, Yourself."

Miss Mae West, star of "Diamond Lil"; Lewis and Winthrop from the Palace; the entire cast of "Music in May," including Gladys Borter, Sally Ward, and Bartlett Simmons; Miss Odette Myrtil, Guy Robertson, and Pierre de Reeder of "White Lilacs," and Slyvia Froos of "Gay Paree," likewise furnished some of their best numbers.

Flu in Germany Takes Toll of 60,000 Deaths

BERLIN, March 14.—The German influenza epidemic in the first ten weeks of the year, as shown by official statistics, killed over 56,000 people. The total of the victims, including the tail end of the epidemic, is estimated as close to 60,000.

Make Fast Progress on Straightening of River

Swift progress in dredging the new channel of the Chicago river between Polk and 18th streets was reported yesterday with advent of warm weather. Dredging operations were resumed last Tuesday after a period of delay during the winter months because of cold weather. The new channel will be completed by the last of October, according to city officials. It will open up the south side to a vast railroad terminal development.

One workman was drowned in a caisson and another crushed to death under tons of timbers yesterday at the site of the Merchandise Mart, Kinzie and Wells streets, when a locomotive crane toppled from a Chicago and North Western spur track, wrenching a carload of beams with it. James Vincensi, 40 years old, 1411 W. Ohio street, was hurled into a flooded caisson where he was drowned. Frank Valenza, 35 years old, 406 North May street, was crushed to death.

THORNTON MILLS, OUSTED PASTOR, TAKES OWN LIFE

Third Attempt, Wife Says —Tells of Reverses.

The Rev. Thornton Anthony Mills, modernist, who tried some years ago to bring hobos and radicals within the walls of his Gold Coast church, the New England Congregational, Delaware place and Dearborn street, and who lost his church because of it, died yesterday in Jackson Park hospital, a victim of suicide by veronal poisoning.

He believed in democracy within the church; his church was taken from him. He preached violently against divorce; his wife divorced him. He adored his children; they were given by law into his wife's custody. His eldest son died.

Such is the story that his second wife, Mrs. Lois Mills, gave yesterday as the obvious explanation of why her husband killed himself after two attempts during the last week in their apartment at 1443 East 53d street.

Married 14 Months.

Lois Mills was formerly Lois Hobson, loyal church secretary, who refused to spy on the pastor when his congregation, wishing to find evidence for his ejection, was said to have asked her to do so. She has been married to him just 14 months, and for six of them she has had to seek employment to supplement the meager funds brought in by his lecturing, she related.

A week ago today she found her husband unconscious, but after receiving medical attention from Dr. W. C. McGregor he rallied. On Monday night Mrs. Mills again found him unconscious and called the doctor. Poison, they discovered, was responsible both times. Wednesday morning pneumonia set in to complicate the condition, and they removed him by ambulance to the hospital, where he died yesterday.

Blame Church Trouble.

That Mills never recovered from being ousted from his north side church four years ago, and from the break with his family which followed, is the story told also by his friends. He believed that the membership of his wealthy church needed augmenting, and he saw a field of service among hobos. He felt that they could be brought into the church and taught. These views he put into practice, to the distaste and alarm of certain influential members of his congregation.

Immediately after his resignation, his wife, Ruth Tichnor Mills, began proceedings for divorce through her lawyer, Clarence Darrow, and received the custody of their three children. The two of them still living are now with her in Rockford, Ill.

The inquest will be held this morning at 10 o'clock at Jackson Park hospital. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

LINDY BACK IN U. S.; ENDS PROSPECT OF HIS EARLY MARRIAGE

Brownsville, Tex., March 14.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh returned to the United States today from his visit in Mexico City with his fiancée, Miss Anne Morrow, thus apparently ending any prospect of an immediate marriage.

Piloting the regular air mail plane over the international route he formally opened last Saturday, Lindbergh reached here at 2:35 p. m. He took off from Mexico City at 9:37 a. m. today. An 8 minute stop was made at Tampico.

The flyer found his personal plane awaiting him here and it was understood he planned to make an air trip eastward to New York.

Col. Lindbergh said he would take off from the local airport at 9 a. m. tomorrow, but would not give his destination except to say he planned to go north.

Four Mexican military aviators were among the group of passengers aboard the big air mail plane. They came to the border to accept delivery of four new planes purchased by the Mexican government.

It was understood that Col. Lindbergh returned to this country to dispose of matters in connection with his work for various commercial air lines.

May Wed March 31.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MEXICO CITY, March 14.—This afternoon the newspaper, Excelsior, said it had "inside information" that Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will be married at Cuernavaca on March 31, and that all American Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow's family, including the ambassador, his two daughters, his brother, once governor of the Canal Zone, also Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, the airman's mother, and Mrs. Morrow and her sister, are on their way here for the wedding. Excelsior says that Mr. Morrow will make an official announcement of the wedding next week. The embassy is not yet ready to make a statement on the subject.

HOOVER LIFTS MYSTERY VEIL ON TAX REFUNDS

Treasury Has Nothing to Hide, Mellon Says.

position is reiterated. However, in an effort to dispel any misunderstanding that might have arisen in the minds of the public because of the recent discussions of the matter, the treasury has undertaken to go much further than the amendment requires.

"It is believed the publication of the decisions in the manner outlined will in a very short time show that virtually all refunds, credits and abatements which are allowed are attributable directly to such causes as decisions of the courts or of the board of tax appeals, overturning the treasury position or holding a provision of the statute unconstitutional, to retroactive legislation, to uncertainties, ambiguities or omissions in the statute and that the refunding of overpayments of taxes merely is a necessary part of the administration of our tax laws."

Senator James Couzens [Rep., Mich.], who has severely criticized the treasury refund policies, said that the new policy represents "a vast improvement over existing conditions." He pointed out that one of the effects of the executive order is to make public records of abatements and credits which have not been included in the list of tax refunds annually sent to congress. The new system, he said, represents a reversal of the policies of Mr. Mellon.

"The real test of its efficacy," Senator Couzens said, "will be the honest intent and disposition on the part of those charged with the responsibility of carrying out the order."

Indict Race Betting Writer as Evader of Income Tax

George E. Stewart, 4707 Sheridan road, was indicted by the federal grand jury yesterday on charges of evasion of income tax payments to the amount of nearly $10,000 in 1925 and 1926. His bond was set at $10,000. According to Assistant United States District Attorney Dwight H. Green, Stewart obtained most of his income through the sale of three books on horse racing. He is reported to have charged $50 for one of the books and $15 for another. In one book Stewart told of making $260,000 through racing bets in two years. It is claimed, however, that most of his wealth came from the sale of the books.

HELD TO GRAND JURY ON BIGAMY CHARGES BROUGHT BY 2 WIVES

William Mielach, 32 years old, of 1114 South Keeler avenue, was held to the grand jury in bonds of $5,000 by Judge Peter H. Schwaba in South State street court yesterday on charges of bigamy brought by two women, Mrs. Lillian Buchanan Mielach and Mrs. Rae Moore Mielach, second and third in order of their succession as helpmates to Mr. Mielach. The first wife did not bring charges.

"It's like this," Mielach explained yesterday. "I had another wife, a woman I married before I met Lillian Pecora. When I eloped to Crown Point in 1924 with Lillian I was still married. That marriage was therefore illegal. Then I got a divorce from my first wife. I had never married the second one legally, so I eloped to Waukegan and married Miss Moore. That's how it stands."

Last Stone Is Placed on New Palmolive Building

The last block of Bedford stone was laid yesterday in the new $5,000,000 Palmolive building, which rises 37 stories at Michigan avenue and Walton place. Officials of the Palmolive company climbed to the roof and ran up an American flag in token of the finishing of the exterior construction. Interiors will be completed within a few weeks and the first offices will be ready for occupancy before May 1, it was said.

ASKS U. S. HELP TO SAVE MILLION DOLLARS IN RUM

New Yorker Says Smuggler in Cuba Has It.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 14.—[Special.]—The American state department today acted to protect the interests of a mysterious well to do New York business man said to have been swindled out of a million dollars' worth of pre-prohibition American whisky by an international smuggling syndicate.

At the request of the New York man's lawyer, whose name the state department declined to divulge, Secretary of State Kellogg directed the American ambassador in Cuba to investigate the New Yorker's claim to a share of the liquor cargo of a Cuban schooner named the Tres Reyes. Controversy over the ownership of this rum cargo is said to be responsible for the murder in a Coral Gables hotel of Thomas "Fatty" Walsh, bodyguard of the late Arnold Rothstein.

Would Detain Liquor.

The mysterious lawyer asked the state department to make representations to the Cuban government in behalf of his mysterious client. The lawyer wanted the Cuban authorities to detain the liquor, if it still was within its jurisdiction, until the New York business man had time to protect his interests in the courts.

The state department asked its ambassador at Cuba to look into the affair and if the facts warranted to make appropriate representations to the Cuban government.

The New York business man, according to his lawyer's story, put up $172,000 of $215,000 used in purchasing American rye whisky held by the Cuban government for nonpayment of taxes. The New Yorker was told, according to his story, that the liquor, valued at American prices at $1,000,000, was to be sold to American tourists in Havana at high prices. Walsh and another man put up the balance needed for purchasing the liquor.

Consigned to Florida.

According to the lawyer's story, his client was swindled out of his share of the cargo. Instead of selling the liquor in Havana, the New Yorker's partners, according to his lawyer's story, put it aboard the schooner and prepared to ship it to Florida, where it would be retailed by a bootlegging syndicate. The lawyer asked that the Cuban government hold up the ship's departure until his client could file suit in the Cuban courts.

FAMILY OF AUTO AGENCY HEADS ON CANAL PAY ROLLS

Find Names of Saracinos in Sanitary Records.

The Saracino family, which ostensibly is interested in the stock of the Central Auto Service company, 1427 North Clark street, seems not only to have had a monopoly on the furnishing of automobiles for the whoopee parties of the sanitary district employés, but also shared in the pay roll gravy, Assistant State's Attorneys Thomas H. Slusser and Otho Fasig said yesterday.

A perusal of the pay rolls yesterday disclosed that several Saracinos appeared thereon and that similar names also showed on the rolls from time to time, the addresses given being in the neighborhood of the Saracino home at 6337 Kenmore avenue.

Woman President Vanishes.

S. Saracino, president of the corporation which received more than $70,000 from the district, supposedly for automobile hire during 1928, left the city several weeks ago and has not returned, it developed yesterday. S. Saracino has turned out to be Mrs. Susane Saracino.

It is reported that Mrs. Saracino is in or near Miami, Fla. Miss Nettie Klindt, the bookkeeper for the automobile company, which is fighting for the return of the company's records, testified yesterday in Chief Justice John J. Sullivan's Criminal court that her employer left town several weeks ago, supposedly for Florida. Before leaving she left instructions that should any trouble develop a Mr. Higgins, a lawyer, was to be consulted immediately. Higgins is reported to be a close friend of Timothy J. Crowe, former president of the sanitary board and president of the First National bank of Oak Park.

Believe She Expected Inquiry.

Prosecutors say that Mrs. Saracino apparently believed the sanitary investigation searchlight would ultimately lead to her garage, and she decided to leave the city before it did. Another indication of this, it is charged, was the fact that the records were all bundled up and ready to be moved when the grand jury investigators arrived.

In the papers the prosecutors found evidences of some unusual business connections between various companies and Crowe's Oak Park bank.

The pay roll records show the following names for 1928 and the amounts collected:

M. Sacino, $2,458; Frank R. Saracino, $866.67; Frank Sacco, $500; Frank Sacco, $366; Frank Sacco, $175; F. R. Savacino, $175, and J. D. Saracino, $160.

Sift Pay Roll Reports.

The prosecutors are investigating further reports that John D. Saracino was on the pay roll on July 15, 1928, as an investigator for the water survey department, with the address of 6354 Kenmore avenue, the name appearing then as Sacino. On the October pay roll the name appeared as Saracino. Frank R. Saracino is also reported on the rolls at the same time. John D. Saracino is listed as secretary of the Automobile Service company.

The taking of evidence on the question of whether or not the state had the right to seize the records was finished yesterday. Judge Sullivan is expected to give his decision today after listening to arguments from Attorney Michael Ahern for Miss Klindt and from Assistant State's Attorneys John E. Northup and John Elliott Byrne.

Admits Giving False Information.

Miss Nettie Klindt, whose name appears in the city directory as Miss Nettie Klindh, admitted under cross examination yesterday that she had not testified truthfully about her place of abode or about her knowledge of her employer, Mrs. Suzane Saracino, owner of the automobile company. She admitted living at 6337 Kenmore avenue, which is also the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Saracino. She had previously given an address on Winthrop avenue and was very vague about the identity of the mysterious "S. Saracino."

"I testified as I did because I did not want Mrs. Saracino or myself bothered by reporters or policemen," she said.

"That is a matter for the judge to decide," was the comment of the prosecutors when asked what if any action was to be taken against Miss Klindt for her untruthful testimony.

Mrs. Saracino apparently sensing that the district investigation would ultimately involve the automobile company, left Chicago some weeks ago, according to Miss Klindt, and advised that if any trouble developed to communicate with a Mr. Higgins, a lawyer. The latter is, according to the prosecutors, a friend of Crowe.

Garage Chauffeurs Testify.

The defense testimony yesterday consisted of calling garage chauffeurs to tell of the actions of the prosecutors and detectives in taking away the whoopee records.

Steps were taken by the district yesterday to dispose of nine high priced automobiles purchased during the Crowe regime for the trustees and officials. None of the cars has been used since Howard Elmore took over the presidency and it is expected that the board today will ask for bids on the automobiles.

GREAT MEDICAL CENTER, U. OF I. PLAN IN CHICAGO

Solons Hear Dr. Kinley Envision Colleges.

BY CARL WARREN.

Urbana, Ill., March 14.—[Special.]—Plans for the development in Chicago of a great new University of Illinois medical and dental center, unsurpassed by any other in the world, were outlined in an address here tonight by David Kinley, president of the university. His listeners were 120 members of the state legislature.

The legislative delegation journeyed here on a special train from Springfield this afternoon for an inspection trip, preliminary to passage of the biennial university appropriation bill They were guests tonight at a banquet given by the university officials in the women's building, at which Dr. Kinley was the chief speaker. Tomorrow they will inspect the campus and student activities.

Envisions Great Colleges Here.

Envisioning the proposed new Chicago program, President Kinley devoted the largest part of his address to a plea for a $1,500,000 appropriation which is being asked for the coming biennium, in addition to the university's regular two year allotment of $12,500,000.

The $1,500,000, if granted by the assembly, will be used to construct new laboratories for the colleges of medicine and dentistry on a site near the Cook County hospital. These buildings Dr. Kinley pictured as the second units of a clinical and research group, rivaling those of Columbia, Northwestern and the University of Chicago. The first units for the colleges were built in 1921 at the same site and nothing has been done on the program since.

Need More Room.

Because of the inadequacy of the buildings, according to the president's figures, they have been crowded to more than capacity for six years. It is estimated that there will be a total of 354 applications for entrance to the college of medicine next fall, and of this number only 130 can be enrolled. The other 224 will be turned away and forced to go to other universities for their medical education. The situation in the dental college, he said, is almost as bad.

"At one time, twelve years ago," Dr. Kinley continued, "leaders in the legislature conceived the program which I am outlining to you here tonight. Had we carried out that program the University of Illinois now would be leading America in the field of medicine. But it was not completed and today, we are face to face with a critical situation."

Bills Up Next Week.

Bills providing for the University of Illinois appropriations have been introduced in the legislature by Senator Harry M. Dunlap of Savoy and Representative Roger F. Little of Champaign. They are set for consideration week after next.

The university budget upon which the bills are based totals $12,030,000, which includes the cost of the Chicago buildings.

Both Senator Dunlap and Representative Little expressed confidence following Dr. Kinley's address that the legislature will give the university all the money it is asking for.

In addition to the inspection trips, the visiting legislators will be guests at a luncheon, given by the university, at noon tomorrow and in the afternoon will review a dress parade of the student R. O. T. C. corps.

Striking Students, Police Clash in Madrid Streets

MADRID, March 14.—(AP)—Activities of striking students of the University of Madrid today were confined to promenades in the streets by various groups, some of which came into collision with the police and a number of store windows were broken. None of the students went to their schools today, even the professors refraining from entering the lecture rooms.

Nine, ten—the younger men

They endorse these four-piece suits for Spring because they are British fabrics, new patterns, and have two pairs of knickers. 7 to 17 years. $25. Swagger caps are $2.50.

For their play and schooltime hours they prefer the ease of knickers and sweaters. Bright slipon sweaters, $5. Plus-four knickers in tweeds and herringbones, $4.75. At right.

AGNES CAROL
BEAUTY CHATS

Defeating the March Winds

ABOUT this time of year, a young girl's fancy should turn more than lightly to thoughts of protecting her complexion from the damaging effects of the March winds.

First, cleanse the face twice a day, if possible, with plenty of cold cream. But, most important of all, each time you go out, apply a generous amount of vanishing cream mixed with a few drops of skin lotion or, better still, use one of the good liquid powders for a base. You will be surprised at the results and you will also, incidentally be able to start the summer with a smooth, soft skin instead of a dry, parched one.

Helpfully yours, Agnes Carol

HAVE you any beauty ailment which you need help in correcting?

I will be glad to advise you, personally, about any problem of this nature.

MICHIGAN WANTS A NEW SLAVE DRIVER.

R. N. Holsaple is the salaried superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league in Michigan. He agreed to underwrite the political future of those legislators who should vote for his infamous life for a pint law, and he threatened the extinction of those who should not. Having successfully intimidated the Michigan legislature, he superintended a search for victims. A number of poor wretches were sacrificed for Holsaple, among them a woman. She was given the murderer's sentence of life imprisonment. None of the large liquor operators of Detroit nor the proprietors of the 20,000 saloons there have been selected for Holsaple's punishment.

Donald A. Perry is a brother-in-law of Holsaple. He is a bootlegger and he is serving a sentence in the Ionia reformatory for violation of the prohibition law. On Nov. 7, 1927, Holsaple appeared before the commissioner of pardons and paroles and asked that Perry be excused from further punishment.

A majority of the Michigan legislature votes dry, under the Anti-Saloon league whip. Holsaple had the freedom of the floor and he covered the legislators as a bandit covers employés and customers in a bank robbery. Not only did he demand the fourth offense law at the point of a machine gun, but he has with the same weapon prevented the amendment of that statute in the interests of humanity. Gov. Green has indicated some disposition to have a redefinition of felonies, so that rape, murder, and arson may be differentiated from the sale of a quart of 6 per cent home made beer. But Mr. Green is only the nominal executive. Holsaple is the actual boss. He responded to Mr. Green's Christian suggestion with a renewed frenzy of savagery.

In dictating what the state shall do in the matter of prohibition, fanaticism is dictating the entire legislative program of Michigan. For in order to secure its laws it must pledge the votes of its men for one measure and withhold them from the next. If the Detroit delegation votes against a fanatical bill, the city of Detroit suffers. Michigan has become deranged by its subjection to the Anti-Saloon league.

Lately the Michigan legislature has resented Holsaple's activity. Not that they quarrel with his measures because those measures are sponsored by the Anti-Saloon league, to which they have sold out. The legislators themselves have acquired to a considerable degree the offensive viewpoint and manner of their overlords, so that what they are prepared to take and what they have taken from the agents of the league is plenty. But they can no longer stomach Holsaple. They have married an ugly fortune, but they didn't bargain for hectoring by the fortune's son.

Fourteen dry members of the Michigan legislature have sent a letter to Bishop Thomas Nicholson, president of the Michigan Anti-Saloon league, requesting that he call off his hound, Holsaple. "Mr. Holsaple as a legislative dry lobbyist does the dry cause more harm than good," the prayer to Bishop Nicholson states. The legislators have no independence from the league. Instead of throwing Holsaple out of the statehouse they ask permission to have another agent of the league run their affairs. It is not a rebellion against taking orders from the league; it is a slavish request that they be shown some consideration as to the appointment of a foreman over them.

The league now is successfully engaged in plundering the state of Michigan. Candidates for political offices have been terrorized and subsidized; vicious laws have been written into the statute books. The league has commandeered the government and political machinery of the state and has reduced Michigan to the same state of depravity as it did Indiana, Ohio, and Illinois under Gov. Small. The removal of Holsaple from dominance will not give Michigan relief, although it may restore the appetites of several of the none too fastidious lawmakers for the Anti-Saloon league. There are not many Holsaples in the United States, but all of them are in the league, and if the Rev. Mr. R. N. Holsaple is removed another Holsaple will be substituted.

PRESIDENT HOOVER'S INNOVATIONS.

The fiction of the official spokesman appears to have been discarded at the White House. What Mr. Hoover tells the reporters for publication is quoted as having come from Mr. Hoover. Provided that the change does not mean a greater reticence on the part of the President, and we do not believe it will, the change is for the better. It is valuable particularly as an indication of the mind of the President. It is another evidence that he is willing to take responsibility for his acts and opinions and that he abhors subterfuge and evasion.

Another of Mr. Hoover's innovations has been the abolition of the daily reception of the citizenry. This has drained the physical and nervous equipment of some of his predecessors. The only gains from this extensive course in hand shaking have been political. It pleases the citizen who has touched the presidential palm and the congressman who won the privilege for the citizen. The daily receptions may have served once to keep the President in contact with the feelings and desires of his countrymen, but it has been many years since these receptions have been anything but a formality, and a childish one at that. The time and energy which the President has saved himself can be employed in better ways of acquainting him with the state of opinion in the country.

ANOTHER TAX STEAL.

The house committee on municipalities at Springfield has voted in favor of the bill which would authorize the city to levy a million dollars in taxes for four successive years to build the Calumet harbor. This bill is favored by Mayor Thompson and was helped along by Representative Schnackenberg, chairman of the committee, who happens, also, to be on the pay roll of Corporation Counsel Ettelson. Among those who appeared at the hearing was former Alderman Richert, who is still employed by the city although his disgraceful connection with the real estate experts' raid on the treasury was long ago exposed.

The voters of Chicago have signified their confidence in the present administration by refusing to give a penny to Thompson to spend. They know that money coming into these hands is money wasted and stolen. The voters have shown a nice discrimination in passing on bond issues in recent elections, for they have approved the proposals of the park boards by substantial majorities. The legislature is now invited by Schnackenberg and others to give the city administration what the people have denied. It might be well for the members to bear in mind, before accepting the invitation, that voters who can discriminate between bond issues can also discriminate between candidates for the legislature. The public is out of patience with crooked politicians.

MR. TROTZKY COMPLAINS.

Mr. Trotzky, exiled to Constantinople, abuses the government which drove him out of Russia. He complains that letters which he wrote to his daughter from his previous place of exile were not delivered to her for weeks and months during which she lay gravely ill. The letters were still undelivered when she died.

The cruelty of which Mr. Trotzky complains is real and revolting. Nature is pitiless, but man has learned to temper the cruelty which is so large a part of his inheritance, and in this aspect man is unique. The suffering of the victim never modified the behavior of a tiger, a hawk, a mosquito, or a hurricane, but it does alter the conduct of man.

Civilization has gone so far as to organize its quality of mercy into a code. The work is not yet completed and we still are unmoved by forms of cruelty which some day may be as abhorrent as Chinese torture is to most men in the western world today, but we seem to have made progress. Civilized man, for example, has come at last to be tolerant of minority opinions in politics. Occasions arise when even the most enlightened of nations find it necessary to suppress minorities by main strength, but for much the most part it is customary to permit the free expression of opinion and the free grouping of the opposition. Even when occasion seems to require that minorities be limited in their freedom, civilized men no longer suppress with the thumbscrew and its refinements.

Mr. Trotzky's complaint is therefore justified at the bar of humanity and particularly of democratic humanity, but it sounds queerly on his lips. He was far more ruthless toward his opponents than Stalin has been toward him. Trotzky, after all, remains alive. When he was at the helm, he did much more than wound the feelings of the opposition; he suppressed it by exterminating it. Only the fortunate evaded death through exile. It would be interesting to observe, should he ever return to power, what effects his recent suffering may have upon his future treatment of those who disagree with him on matters of policy.

GREATER PITTSBURGH HAS A UNIQUE CHARTER PLAN.

[Philadelphia Public Ledger.]

It is difficult to imagine a much more complicated task than that of the commission which has been preparing a charter for the proposed "consolidated city" of Pittsburgh. For its purpose is to provide a form of government that will be satisfactory to the people of 122 municipal units that will constitute one great community. They include cities, boroughs, and townships that are to be brought together into a harmonious whole. The report, which is now in the hands of Gov. Fisher, is of interest to all American cities that are looking ahead to an extension of their boundaries.

The scheme embraces features of both the commission and the city manager plan of government. The consolidated city is to be governed by a board of seven commissioners elected at large for four year terms. But these commissioners are not to head administrative departments, as in the true commission plan. One, called the president, is to receive $15,000 a year and be the chief executive officer of the city. In many of his powers and duties he will resemble a city manager. The other commissioners will be paid $9,000 each. Three must reside in the present city of Pittsburgh and three elsewhere in the county. Apparently the president need not be a local resident.

Elaborate provision is made for the retention by the existing municipal units of many of their local powers, their police and fire departments and schools. Oddly enough, they will keep their present names and even their boundaries and yet will form a part of a city of the first class with a population of about 1,500,000. The most striking change is the institution of a new system of minor courts to take the place of police magistrates, aldermen and justices of the peace. It will be composed of one judge for each 50,000 of population, to be appointed by the County court. These courts will hold sessions at night as well as in the daytime. Small metropolitan police and detective forces will supplement local forces now existing.

Matters of health, safety, finance and public works relating to the metropolitan community will be administered by the board of commissioners, who also form the chief legislative body. And all elected county officials are to serve out their present terms.

The absence of any "ripper" provision strengthens the prospect for the adoption of this charter by the people after its approval by the legislature. But it would have to receive the O. K. of two-thirds of the voters in a majority of the 122 communities. If the project is put into effect, it will represent a brand new consolidation scheme in many of its details. And Pennsylvania will be the only state in the Union possessing two cities of more than a million population.

BANAL SONNET.

Love, if my audience were not you only;
  If earth and all this universe were ours;
And the great stars stared cold, and stonily
And myriad other eyes, dark scattered rovers
  Upon the devious byroads off the Way,
Shouldered the great ones for a sight of lovers
  Whose words moved Moon by night and Sun by day;
And if in mighty music, awe-compelling
  For glory and grandeur, my voice reached all men;
If all men's ecstasy, articulate, swelling
  From my proud throat, sang Love triumphant, then
No more could our love move us than it has
  In these brief hours, knowing that love will pass.

THE MANCHESTER SQUARE CASE.

SYNOPSIS.

Police Constable Higgins, on duty in Manchester Square, London, discovers that Sir Algernon Somerset, apparently sitting quietly in his easy chair in a front window of the old Somerset mansion, has been killed by a bullet fired into the center of his forehead. Constable Higgins goes to work with great vigor on the case, but unfortunately is detailed for a few days to Piccadilly Circus, his place in Manchester Square being taken by Police Constable Buffkins. Constable Higgins takes a day off to attend the christening of the twins of his cousin, who runs a public house in Old Kent Road. It was a very pleasant party, and Constable Higgins, while proposing a toast to the twins, falls backward off the dining room table and sprains his neck, which further prevents his immediate return to Manchester Square. Just as he feels he is fully able to return to duty and relieve Constable Buffkins, to whom he has told nothing of the murder of Sir Algernon because Mr. Buffkins is a fat, unimaginative person, Constable Higgins meets a lovely young flapper who has won a beauty show contest and is known as the Pride of 'Ammersmith. He is quite infatuated, and while he knows he really should return to Manchester Square, he permits himself to be persuaded to esort the 'Ammersmith flapper to Madame Tussaud's famous collection of wax atrocities in Baker street. The telling of the synopsis having taken up most of the space we intended to give our story today, this installment will necessarily have to be very short. We hope you can remember the synopsis, because if we are compelled to run it every time we print a chapter of our thrilling serial it will take years and years before we can get to the end and have it published in book form.

INSTALLMENT XV.

Constable Higgins and Miss Pilkins took the tube to Baker street and entered Madame Tussaud's Exhibition in a very happy frame of mind, although Mr. Higgins was guiltily aware that Manchester Square was not very far away and he felt that he should really be walking his beat in the square and inquiring into the mysterious taking off of Sir Algernon Somerset instead of larking about with a very lovely but somewhat light-minded young woman.

The fact that Constable Higgins was in the neighborhood of Manchester Square was emphasized by meeting his friend, young Pestle, the apothecary's clerk in Berkeley street. For as Constable Higgins and Miss Pilkins entered the Chamber of Horrors at Madame Tussaud's, they ran full into Mr. Pestle.

"Wot ho 'Iggins," said Mr. Pestle, "tikin' a busman's 'oliday, I see."

"What do you mean—a busman's holiday?" demanded Constable Higgins with some asperity.

"Oh, coming down to the Chamber of 'Orrors to 'ave a look at the murderers and wot not. Wy don't you jolly well nab some of 'em just to keep your 'and in?"

"It's me day off," said Constable Higgins, with dignity. "I'm on pleasure bent."

"'Ave a good time," said Mr. Pestle, "there's a jolly good guillotine over there with the bloody 'ead rollin' out of it. That ought to give you a 'earty laugh. Well, enjoy yourself, for as the poet says, 'A policeman's lot is not a happy one.' But when you get all through come back to where all's 'appy an' there isn't no murders—nice little Manchester Square."

CHICKEN POX VACCINE.

VACCINATION as a means of controlling epidemics of chicken pox has developed to the point where it can be used in orphan asylums and children's homes and hospitals. It is not practicable for use in the community outside such institutions, nor for use except after the disease has shown itself in the community.

There are two methods. One makes use of clear fluid from a chicken pox blister, diluted with salt solution and injected into the skin of the children to be vaccinated. About 80 per cent of the children thus vaccinated will escape having chicken pox. When chicken pox attacks the population of a children's home where none have previously had the disease, about three-fourths of the group will contract the disease and about one-fourth will escape.

This method seems to raise the proportion who escape from one-fourth to three-fourths. Since there is no way of keeping this serum, no way of sending it around, the method is not suited for general use.

Another method of vaccinating children against chicken pox makes use of the blood serum of children who are recovering from an attack. This method makes use of blood serum taken in the third week of the disease. This is injected into the muscles of the children to be protected. This method offers an even better protection, at least for a time. Of those vaccinated in this way, nine out of ten escape chicken pox. While the immunity is short lived, it lasts long enough to break up the epidemic. This method is not of particular service except in children's institutions into which chicken pox has entered.

COBRA BITE SERIOUS.

J. F. writes: 1. Can you tell me something of the sensation or suffering from the bite of an Indian cobra of the hooded variety? Some one told me the victim suffers agonies for several hours. Some one else said the victim dies almost instantly, so poisonous is the bite. Which statement is right?

2. Is the bite always fatal?

3. Two years ago, while visiting my uncle in South America, I was bitten by a poisonous snake. I put my palm on a tree branch, and feeling a sharp prick, I cursed the thorns and started for the house a short distance away. My senses began to reel and it seemed to be getting dark, and as I reached the house my muscles were stiffening. I thought I was dying and told my uncle what caused my sudden illness. One look at my hand and he called loudly for help. I remember nothing after that until I regained consciousness with a doctor over me. My uncle had injected serum that he kept for just such emergencies, while some one rushed for the doctor. For the next 24 hours I suffered terrible agonies, not only in the wound but in my veins, it seemed. I would almost have been glad to die. I still have a scar from the wound.

4. What is the best measure to take in case of snakebite, if alone and without a remedy?

REPLY.

1. The bite of a cobra is apt to be quite fatal. Pain is of secondary importance as a symptom.

2. No.

3. Brazilian scientists have studied South American snakes unusually well. They produce and distribute several antivenins. Your description suggests that you were bitten by a fer de lance, or a palm viper, rather than by a more dangerous bushmaster or rattlesnake or a coral snake. There are no cobras in South America.

4. Slash the wound and make it bleed freely. Squeeze out the poison. Suck the wound either with the mouth or with a makeshift cupping glass. Apply a tourniquet Release tourniquet periodically. Use an antivenin if one can be had.

UNDULANT FEVER.

B. M. F. writes: Please give me information in regard to undulant fever, its symptoms, and the effects of the disease on the human body.

REPLY.

The symptoms of undulant fever are somewhat like those of typhoid. Unlike typhoid, the fever breaks and then relapses. The symptoms cause undulant fever to be suspected. The diagnosis must be made by laboratory tests. Most well developed health department laboratories are now equipped to make diagnosis as between undulant fever and other forms of relapsing fever.

The disease is caused by a bacillus which is carried by cows, goats and hogs. One gets it through drinking raw milk from an infected animal.

It is a widespread disease.

C. A. M. writes: Is it possible to remove a small mole from the face? It is on my left cheek and is very annoying to me.

REPLY.

It is. It may be cut away.

CANCER NOT CONTAGIOUS.

P. L. writes: Is there any danger in living with a man who has cancer and in sleeping in the same room?

REPLY.

No.

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

WASHINGTON.—It can be stated positively that the call for 200,000 additional men, recently mentioned in this correspondence as contemplated, will be issued tomorrow or the day after. It is intended to fill all deficits under the former call that may arise.

WASHINGTON.—Senator Trumbull of Illinois presented a memorial from the Board of Trade of Chicago asking for a ship canal on the American side of Niagara falls.

NEW YORK.—The World's New Orleans letter thinks there is reason to expect success from the new Red river expedition. The cavalry force has been sent to the front. The 13th and 17th corps, under Gens. McClernand and Franklin, with a coöperating force from Vicksburg, form the rest of the expedition.

CHICAGO.—The office of the Chicago Times, supposed to have been threatened by a mob, was guarded several nights last week by a squad of police, who, although denounced in that sheet as the vilest of the vile, were gladly accepted as guardians of the peace when wanted. We wonder if Storey didn't feel rather mean—supposing such a man to be capable of the feeling of shame—at finding himself obliged to summon to his aid men whom he has for months traduced. But, after all it was useless; there was no danger. Loyal men of this city look on that sheet and the establishment whence it emanates as very much like a skunk, and they are loath to foul themselves by touching it, even to kill. But Storey's guilty conscience magnifies the molehill of threats into a mountain of danger.

CHICAGO.—John Campbell and Miss Anna Curtis were married on March 14 by the Rev. W. C. Jackson.

MANILA.—Gen. Wheaton's column encountered the insurgents in force between Patros and Taguig. The cavalry attacked a rebel stronghold in the jungle, driving the enemy into Patros. Scott's battery shelled the city and woods effectively. Washington volunteers captured the town and burned it.

CHICAGO.—August A. Becker, the uxoricide, confessed that he killed his wife with a hatchet, cut her body in pieces, then boiled and burned them. The residuum of the bones he buried on the prairie near his barn in the rear of 5017 Rockwell street. The police found the bones where Becker said he buried them. The former butcher and sausage maker had previously said he pushed his wife into the lake. Chief Kipley says that if the details of Becker's confession are true the crime is more revolting than that of Adolph Luetgert, the sausage manufacturer, who murdered his wife nearly two years ago and destroyed the body with potash.

CHICAGO.—The Democratic machine agreed upon the following slate for the municipal ticket: For mayor, Carter H. Harrison; city treasurer, Adam Ortseifen; clerk, William Loeffler, and attorney, Andrew J. Ryan.

CHICAGO.—The town of Hegewisch, sixteen miles southeast of Chicago, wants a new name, and 100 citizens of the place petitioned Postmaster Gordon to give the town a chance by renaming it. They piteously set forth that a town whose name cannot be spelled or pronounced is handicapped.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

PARIS.—Emil Cottin, who recently attempted to kill Premier Georges Clemenceau, was today sentenced to death by the court martial which was trying him. The verdict of the court martial was unanimous.

BERLIN.—Two hundred and twenty men, all workmen, and not a single one of them in uniform, were stood against a wall in Moabit and shot to death with machine guns. A military officer said that is to be the method of executing revolutionists hereafter, as machine guns do the job much quicker than rifles and by firing into the heaps after the men fall insure the death of all the prisoners.

PARIS.—American members of the commission for fixing responsibility for the war, of which Secretary Lansing is chairman, have entered objection to the subcommittee's report suggesting criminal prosecution of the kaiser by recommending the formation of a high tribunal which should try those who brought on the war without regard to their rank.

CHICAGO.—Adolph E. Meyers, the "Pat Casey of the West," one of the founders of the Western Vaudeville Managers' association, died at his home, 4331 Prairie avenue, after a year's illness.

CHICAGO.—John A. Cooke, once a powerful Republican politician in Chicago, died at the Mayo Brothers' sanitarium at Rochester, Minn. He had gone there to care for his brother, William Cooke, who was suffering from a stomach complaint, and contracted pneumonia.

U. S. TOURISTS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Chicago, March 11.—The following is an extract from a letter which I received from my father last week from Stellenbosch, a town about thirty miles from Cape Town, South Africa:

"Our yearly agricultural show is coming off next Wednesday, and will be opened by the governor general. I believe we will also have a number of American tourists on that day. We had a letter from their manager. He asked us to charge each member of the tour separately at the gates and not to send the tickets in advance to him; they will then expect to get them free. They will, very likely, put up an argument that the tickets should be included in the tour.

"Some time ago Mr. Wicht, the president of the show committee, visited the Victoria falls in Rhodesia. A guide told him that he is darned fed up with these American tourists already. He would much rather have twenty parties of other nationalities there than one American party. They are terribly rude sometimes. They are continually criticizing, making unpleasant remarks, and they are always bragging about America. They want everything free and they are no sportsmen. This year we are not going to try to make things pleasant for them at all."

I really do not know what to say about this letter. It is not the first time I have heard such remarks about the Americans.

I have been in America for nearly two years now, and I think the American people are fine; friendliness and kindness are not lacking by any means.

I know very well what the attitude of most European countries is toward America. I am perfectly sure that South Africa cannot be counted among them. I remember when I was at home how the people there used to break their necks for the Americans to try to give them an enjoyable time and to make them get a good opinion of South Africa and the South Africans.

It is a great pity that a few ignorant, unmannerly people should spoil the good reputation of America. We South Africans in Chicago, as far as I know, always boost America and the Americans whenever we write home. It certainly puts us in an awkward position if we get reports like this from the folks, don't you think?
THOMAS O. HONIBALL.

CLEANING SCHOOLHOUSES.

Chicago, March 11.—I wish to set Joselph Golocz right on the school janitors' union. The school janitors have no business with a union.

The school helpers' job differs from any other cleaning job. It is not amenable to civil service as they should only be employed as needed. No sweeping should be done in any public school until after the children are dismissed. The dust should be allowed to settle over night and the dusting done between 6 and 8:30 a. m.

Just now the schools are run for the benefit of the ward politician. The only true and conscientious way to run a school is the old way with the engineer custodian in charge of the help. Better a few helpers in the bread line than millions of taxpayers in the bread line.

Mr. Golocz's "bread line" is a myth, as on investigation it was found the workers received more per hour than they are now getting. I am speaking of firemen. One fireman in a large junior high school was getting $200 per month where now he is getting only $140.
MRS. W. N.

STYLES FOR THE QUEEN.

Chicago, March 12.—A picture of the queen of England, the prince of Wales, and Prince George drew my attention. I have been wondering why is it that this great lady, the queen of England, always dresses in the most ridiculous styles.

One would think this queen would be in the very latest styles at all times. They all try to be so far ahead of us Americans when they come over here, and all we Americans have to do is look at a picture like this one to see the queen dressed in a style we Americans wore 25 years ago.

One would think the English, living so close to that great fashion plate, would adopt the style long before we Americans do. Is it that the English are as slow in grasping styles as they are in grasping a joke?
A [illegible].

REBEL SYMPATHIZER.

Chicago, March 12.—It is good to see that there are some level headed Americans who realize how dirty has been the policy of the United States in dealing with Mexico. I refer to the articles in this column written by G. R. Fort, Fair Play, and E. A. Schroeder.

How inconsistent this policy has been, and how unreasonable, is proved by the fact that for the last fifteen years this country has been helping in Mexico the party in whose administration more Americans have been killed, more American property has been confiscated, more outrages have been committed, mostly on Americans. It is beyond question that the actual government of Mexico is composed of men who are totally incompetent to run the country. This is clearly shown in what they have accomplished in the last fifteen years.

During that period Mexico has had three occasions in which the revolutionary government could have been overthrown and been replaced by a decent administration with able men at its head who would have carried the country to progress, but in each instance this country has helped the other side; that is why Carranza got established against Victoriano Huerta, Obregon against De La Huerta and Calles against the will of the whole Mexican nation. But it will be all right according to the men in Washington, because more Americans will be killed, more confiscatory laws will be enacted, more American property destroyed. Those men in Washington had better not talk about protecting American rights and interests any more; it is a joke the way they have protected them in Mexico.
D. F.

FOR ANNEXATION OF MEXICO.

Janesville, Wis., March 12.—When a country is unable to govern itself it should be merged into a country that can give good government. This applies to Central America as well as Mexico and its people would bless the day they became a part of the United States, enjoying peace, happiness and prosperity.

Had we taken the advice of Gen. Scott after the war of 1848, Mexico would now be enjoying the peace, happiness and prosperity of California, New Mexico, Nevada, Arizona, and Texas.

Today we find our government sending arms and airplanes to assist a government that was once a rebel itself which is now oppfessing 90 per cent of its people by force of arms. Instead of extending the hand of friendship to the oppressed, we send arms to destroy its people.
NORMAN RIECL.

TAKING SIDES IN MEXICO.

Chicago, March 12.—Mr. Schroeder is right: it's a rotten trick to mess in other people's affairs, more so if they fight for liberty. Uncle Sam can be proud of Nicaragua, his airmen in the Riff a few years ago, 1917, and now Mexico. Home of the brave, what?
RENE TOWNER.

PROPOSES A PATRIOTIC PARTY.

Chicago, March 13.—I believe the American Legion with the assistance of the millions of men and women who have been unfairly compensated at the expense of prohibition enforcement, aided by the members of the Republican and Democratic parties who believe in liberty at home as well as for liberty in Europe for which they fought could make up a party that would elect men to vote the same liberties for you and I, which they take for themselves.

BLONDE AID TO TYPEWRITER HEAD SUED BY HIS WIFE

Estranged Mate Asks $500,000 Damages.

New York, March 14.—[Special.]—While George E. Smith, head of the Royal Typewriter company, and his wife are fighting out their divorce battle in Mineola, Mrs. Smith today added complications by filing a suit for $500,000 against Miss Helen C. Meade of New York, charging alienation of the affections of her husband.

Mr. Smith's suit was brought in Nassau county. In Mrs. Smith's answer denying all of her husband's charges she asks for temporary alimony of $5,000 a month and $10,000 extra to enable her to collect the necessary evidence to prove her contention that there is no merit in her husband's charges and that an attempt was made to "frame" her. The divorce suit is expected to be tried in May.

In her complaint against Miss Meade, Mrs. Smith says that she and Mr. Smith were married twenty-four years ago and were living happily together at Great Neck, L. I., when, in 1923, Miss Meade came into his life. Since that time the Smiths have been estranged.

At the typewriter office of Mr. Smith his secretary said that Mr. Smith still was in Florida for his health. He filed the divorce suit in January.

In her answer to the divorce suit, Mrs. Smith declared that despite the blonde typist whom her husband installed in their $150,000 home in Great Neck she herself had refrained from bringing a divorce suit, believing that "Ed" sooner or later would come to his senses and because so many of her friends said that her bringing a divorce suit might injure him as head of the typewriter company.

DAYLIGHT TIME EXTENSION GETS HEARING TODAY

Aldermen Urge Public to Give Its Views.

Whether Chicago's daylight saving time should begin on the first or the last Sunday in April will be discussed at a public hearing this morning before a council subcommittee headed by Ald. Jacob M. Arvey [24th]. The hearing has been called to consider the proposal that the fast time be put into effect three weeks ahead of the usual schedule. The change has been approved by many citizens in letters to their aldermen.

So that the committee might have as complete an expression of public opinion as possible, Ald. Arvey yesterday requested that individuals appear in person or send telegrams to him at the city hall stating their position on the question. The voters themselves, it was pointed out, were the ones who have ratified daylight saving at referendums, though organized groups opposed it before the council.

Seeks General Public's Opinion.

"Many organizations have been invited to have representatives attend the meeting and have signified their intention of doing so," Ald. Arvey said. "However, it is the wish of the committee to hear expressions of opinion from the great majority of persons who will not be represented by speakers for these organizations. We wish to hear all the evidence."

Representations have been made to the council committee, it was learned, that the extra three weeks of daylight time would be detrimental to suburban train service, to business, and to the stock exchange. Letters which poured in on Ald. Arvey yesterday challenged those contentions.

"In the matter of accommodating our train schedules — principally the suburban service—to the change in time, it is immaterial whether it goes into effect on the first or last Sunday in April," wrote L. A. Downs, president of the Illinois Central Railroad company.

St. Paul Chief Takes Same Stand.

The same word was conveyed in a letter from H. A. Scandrett, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific railroad. "It makes little difference in our service which date the change goes into effect," he wrote.

Harvey T. Hill, assistant to the president of the Chicago Stock Exchange, wrote that the organization would not be affected much one way or the other.

LAKE FRONT BILL AGAIN READY FOR ACTION BY PARKS

Differences with I. C. Ironed Out.

The much altered lake front ordinance, which provides for the construction of the Randolph street viaduct and the Illinois Central suburban station in Grant park, is once more ready for submission to the south park board, George T. Donoughue, superintendent of the south parks, announced yesterday.

"The south park board, as represented by our attorneys and engineers, has finished negotiations with the attorneys and engineers of the railroad," Mr. Donoughue said. "We have remedied those features of the ordinance which were objectionable to the commissioners. It is possible that the board will act on the matter at the annual meeting next Wednesday."

Parks Blame Railway.

One hundred thousand customers of the Illinois Central have been hoping for some definite action on terminal conditions in Grant park for the last two years. Four times since last November disagreements between the park board and the railroad have led the commissioners to reject the ordinance. According to Mr. Donoughue, the arbitrary attitude of I. C. officials regarding the construction of additional streets which would increase the value of the railroad company's air rights has been responsible for much of the delay.

The last rejection by the park board was brought about by the discovery in the ordinance of a clause obligating the board to submit to a referendum within five years a proposition to build two extra sections of boulevard through the company's yards around Randolph street. The boulevard, it is estimated, would cost between two and three million dollars. The commissioners were willing to agree to the construction at such times as the extended boulevards became necessary, but balked at the mandatory phraseology of the agreement.

Customers "in Middle."

In the meantime, while bickering between the park board and the railroad continues, spokesmen for the hundred thousand customers declare that they are "in the middle." Through two disagreeable winters they have plodded an additional two blocks through the mud and slush, and their attitude toward the two parties concerned in the delay is far from pleasant.

U. S. RESTORES WALSKA JEWELS AT 3-MILE LIMIT

New York, March 14.—(AP)—Prior to the sailing of the liner Paris at midnight tonight with Mme. Ganna Walska aboard, the customs released her $250,000 worth of jewelry seized when she arrived here last year, but she wasn't allowed to put any of it on until the ship had passed out of American territorial waters.

The jewels and considerable clothing were held because Mme. Walska refused to pay duty, saying she was a resident of Paris, although her husband, Harold F. McCormick, lives in Chicago. The case still is pending before the customs court, but since there was never any question of wrong doing Mme. Walska was informed she could take any of the articles she wished back with her.

She said she would take the jewelry, but leave the rest. The jewel case, a foot long, six inches wide, and six inches deep, was delivered to the purser of the Paris.

URGES INVESTING OF CAR CASH IN CAR SECURITIES

Brokerage Co. Criticizes Low Rate of Interest.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Edwin L. Lobdell & Co., dealers in investment securities, joined the Chicago aldermen yesterday in criticizing the investment of Surface Lines cash at savings deposit rates. Officials of the Lobdell concern said the present system benefits the bankers, lawyers, and receivers, but not the owners of the properties.

Regular interest is being paid on first mortgage bonds, but not upon junior securities, although it is being earned, it was pointed out. The Lobdell company explains the situation as follows:

The money accumulated in these funds (to pay interest on junior securities), together with excess earnings, amounts to about $10,000,000 for all the surface lines. This sum will increase about $5,000,000 per year, if traffic continues as large as it is now.

May Be $20,000,000 Total.

"If the foreclosure of the Chicago Railways and the consolidation plans of the surface lines and elevated roads are deferred for two more years, there will be an accumulation of perhaps $20,000,000 of undistributed earnings for all lines, including interest on junior bonds of the Chicago Railways company, which will increase the equity behind the first mortgage bonds.

"This large sum should not be allowed to remain in the banks, drawing 2½ or even 3 per cent interest, when it can be used to buy in its own first mortgage 5 per cent bonds at a discount of 15 or 20 per cent."

It is reported that the south side surface lines (the Chicago City Railway company) have been using the money for that purpose, but the west and north side lines (the Chicago Railways company) have not. The Lobdell review of the transportation situation, regarding the west and north side lines, says:

"If the undistributed earnings of the Chicago Railways company—now about $6,000,000—could be invested in bonds at current prices, a saving in interest and discount in one year should amount to more than $1,000,000. The junior security would benefit by this saving and the first mortgage bondholders would not be injured.

Urges Profit for Owners.

"This large fund should be earning a profit for the owners of the property rather than bankers, lawyers and receivers. An application to the court for an order to invest this money in the company's own bonds might receive favorable consideration."

The Lobdell concern printed and circulated a statement on Surface lines' finances in 1927 and also in 1928. The present statement is a continuation of the former pamphlets. A few of the statements regarding the properties are as follows:

"Traffic for 1928 was the greatest in the history of the Surface lines. Earnings, gross and net, are the largest. The physical condition of the properties and equipment is excellent. The traction properties are the best in the world and capable of earning, and do earn, moderate profits every day."

The Lobdell statement has this to say about the present transit problems confronting the city:

"Without a prompt solution [of transportation] the world's fair proposed for 1933 may be jeopardized to the disappointment of many citizens who have the welfare of the city at heart."

Immediate Settlement Sought.

Speaking for the owners of the properties, the Lobdell booklet says:

"What the bondholders want is a settlement and they want it now.

"It makes little difference to the bondholders whether the general assembly passes needed legislation permitting consolidation of the Surface and Elevated lines and an indeterminate franchise before the city council approves of the details of an ordinance, or whether the companies and council first agree as to the legislation they want and then ask the general assembly for it."

JOHNSTON, SUSPENDED OKLA. GOVERNOR, QUITS STAND AFTER GRILLING

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 14.—(AP)—After a week of personal defense of his administration and his competency to resume the governor's office, from which he has been suspended, Henry S. Johnston today relinquished the witness chair in the Oklahoma senate court of impeachment to other defense witnesses.

He was excused with the understanding that he could be recalled by any member of the court who wished to question him.

A parting shot at Mrs. O. O. Hammonds, former confidential secretary to Johnston, who has shared the burden of much of the testimony against his administration, was fired by Senator Grover Thomas of Cordell. In the form of a question, Thomas intimated that Mrs. Hammonds had blocked him in an attempt to interview Gov. Johnston relative to a road program in Thomas' district. He intimated that she pounded her fist on a table and declared that the senator was neither her friend nor a friend of the governor.

Johnston replied he had been informed that Thomas' mission was to obtain the appointment of Mrs. Thomas as an automobile tag agent.

In reply to a question by H. Tom Kight, prosecutor and political enemy of the suspended governor, Johnston gave his version of an incident in which he was portrayed as consulting the signs of the zodiac for an auspicious time for the signing of a bill. Johnston said he had told newspaper men jokingly he was consulting the zodiac, and that he explained it was a joke after the story was published.

Wealthy Retired Broker Plunges 13 Floors to Death

New York, March 14.—[Special.]—Archibald Yule Jameson, 62, a wealthy retired broker, was killed today in a thirteen story plunge from the window of the bedroom of his fourteenth floor apartment to the roof of a one story extension below. Mr. Jameson had been suffering from dizzy spells, and his wife, Jean, believes he fell out of the window when seized with an attack of vertigo.

PRODUCE ALIBIS FOR DEFENDANTS IN 'BARREL' CASE

Alibis for the ten followers of Homer K. Galpin were offered in defense testimony before Circuit Judge Thomas Taylor yesterday. The ten precinct politicians are charged with using a false-bottomed barrel to stuff 400 votes in a ballot box in the 11th precinct of the 27th ward, Galpin's stronghold, at the April 10 primary election.

Linder Wilkerson, one of the defendants, denied the testimony of August Scholz, former prohibition agent, who turned state's evidence and gave details of the alleged stealing and marking of the ballots. Wilkerson admitted that only 315 persons voted, although 716 ballots were counted at the end of the day. He said, however, that at the time he is accused of marking the stolen ballots he was riding home in Anton J. Cermak's automobile.

Mrs. Olga Dorsey, wife of James Dorsey, a defendant, denied Scholz's testimony that the defendants met at her home. Dorsey declared that he was working as a sanitary district policeman on the evening the ballots were marked and did not return home until late.

John Huntzinger, janitor of the board of education building at 672 West Monroe street, in which the election was held, testified that no one was in the building the night before the election, at which time, the state contends, the ballots were marked.

MEXICAN TROOPS TRAP REBEL CHIEF IN TORREON CITY

Gen. Escobar Hemmed In on All Sides.

cobar sent his wife by automobile to El Paso, where she arrived yesterday. The other rebel generals have sent their wives and children to the United States.

Fear Rebels May Flee.

MEXICO CITY, March 14.—(AP)—Fearing that the rebels might evacuate Torreon and retreat toward Chihuahua without making a stand, Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles today ordered his forces to adopt every possible means to prevent a rebel retreat and to force a battle at Torreon. The general, in charge of all the federal forces, notified President Portes Gil of this move.

"I fear, however, that the unloyal army may take to flight toward the north," he said, "which I am trying to avoid by all means."

Gen. Calles advised the president that it was his hope "not to let a single insurgent to escape."

Today's bulletin told of another minor encounter at Encantada, a few miles south of Saltillo, in which thirty revels were killed and eighty, including several officers, captured. No federal loss was mentioned.

Escobar Ready to Move.

WITH THE REVOLUTIONARY ARMY IN TORREON, Coahuila, Mex., March 14.—(AP)—Prepared for the approach of the government forces advancing from the south toward Torreon, industrial city of Coahuila, the army of Gen. José Gonzalo Escobar, military dictator of the rebellion, was prepared to move at a moment's notice early today. The maneuvers contemplated by the rebel forces were not disclosed.

While the rebels made ready for the movement to be decided upon by their leaders, more than 3,000 citizens attended a gigantic rally last night in Torreon's public square, the scene of many revolutionary gatherings in the past. A great chorus of "vivas" greeted Gen. Escobar when he appeared before the crowd. All saloons of the city were ordered closed.

"I feel the necessity of an explanation of my conduct, in leading this movement," Gen. Escobar said. "It would have been far easier for me to have stayed at home than to obey the imperative command of duty. It is very easy for those who have no convictions and those who live lives of lies to turn deaf ears to the actual situation in the country that at present is in the hands of men without principles of right.

"Every one knows that not only myself but a large group of well known generals and civilians have done honor to their antecedents by protesting against the tyrants and the double crosser that was not satisfied with corrupting the Mexican government. We want in Mexico a clean government that has conscience—a government that will not steal, in fact, an honest government.

"We have organized a revolutionary movement with all good will, supported by the hearts of the people, and it will be a finish fight. Our movement is for the people."

Twenty-three generals were listed in a statement given out today by Gen. Escobar as having joined the rebel movement. They were Manzo, Gruz, E. Gutierrez, F. Topete, Iturbe, Raul Madera, A. I. Vallareal, J. M. Aguirre, Valle, Garza, M. Murrieta, F. Urbalejo, De La Vega, F. Barrera, J. G. Amaya, Ibarra, San Martin, Lopez De Mendoza, Cescaro Castro, Raul Michael, Luna Encisco, Luis Gutierrez and Sanchez.

Yanks Stranded in Torreon.

JAUREZ, Mexico, March 14.—(AP)—A number of Americans, most of whom declined to give their names, arrived here today by train from Torreon. It was learned that there are many Americans stranded in the town, unable to get funds with which to leave because the banks are closed. There is no way for Americans in Torreon to communicate with outside points, it is reported.

Rebels Evacuate Nogales.

NOGALES, Sonora, Mexico, March 14.—(AP)—An impending attack by rebels upon Naco, a border town recently occupied by the federalists, was forecast this afternon by Gen. Francisco Borquez as Nogales virtually was evacuated by revolutionary troops.

Gen. Borquez said that Gen. Fausto Topete, governor of Sonora, would lead an attack on Naco, which recently was taken over for the federal government by Gen. Olachea at the head of 1,200 Indian troops.

Naco, captured by the rebels soon after the outbreak of the rebellion, is an important rail head. Its acquisition by the federals through the unexpected coupe of Gen. Olachea, who was supposed to be supporting the revolutionary movement, was a blow to the rebellion as it drove a wedge between two rebel strongholds, Sonora and Chihuahua.

Borquez said that at least 2,000 men would be led to Naco to storm Gen. Olachea's postion. Gen. Olachea has strongly entrenched himself at Naco and expects to offer stout resistance to any attempt by the rebels to oust him.

Attack on Mazatlan Near.

NOGALES, Sonora, Mexico, March 14—[U.P.]—Revolutionary leaders here felt tonight that the long waited rebel attack on the important west coast seaport of Mazatlan, Sinaloa, was not far distant. A bulletin gave the location of rebel forces under Gen. Ramon Iturbe as less than 75 miles north of Mazatlan and predicted a battle before the end of the week.

An encounter has been believed imminent for the last week, but the bulletin explained that the advance of Gen. Iturbe had been hindered by bridge destruction wrought by federals in their flight to Mazatlan.

Buy More U. S. Munitions.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 14.—[Special.]—Indication that the Mexican government is finding the task of subduing the revolutionary movement harder than first was anticipated came today when Mexican authorities asked and obtained shipment of the second consignment of government munitioins.

The shipment includes Enfield rifles, as well as ammunition. The first lot of 1,000,000 rounds of ammunitior is already across the border, according to indications here. The second shipment may go across the border tonight or tomorrow.

Reinforcements of 300 troops have been sent from Fort Huachuca, Ariz., to Naco, near the Mexican border, to protect the water supply of Bisbee, Ariz., as a result of requests from Senator Ashurst and Arizona citizens.

Solons Condemn Revolution.

Four Officers Executed.

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, March 14.—(AP)—Eleven chiefs and 74 officers of Rebel Gen. Jesus M. Aguirre's forces were brought here today as prisoners after surrendering to federal forces at Achotal. A court martial was held and four officers were executed, including Gen. Jose Trinidad Rojas and Cols. Aviles, Manzilla, and Justo Hinostroza. The others were given prison sentences. Gen. Jesus Aguirre is hiding in the mountains on the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, waiting for an opportunity to leave the country.

PORTES GIL PHONES REBEL CHIEFS AND ASKS THEM TO QUIT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MEXICO CITY, March 14.—The central figure of the war struggle here is Provisional President Emilio Portes Gil, who seems to be tireless. He is at his desk in Chapultepec castle at 7 a. m. and follows every move of the armies in the field until after midnight. He has had installed a bed in his office, where he takes snatches of sleep.

He is the animating force which makes everything move about the castle. His enthusiasm and his confidence inspires every one about him.

President Portes Gil is in telephone communication with several of the rebel posts, and the president has urged the rebel commanders to return to duty and so prevent bloodshed, destruction, and vast injuries to the nation.

An artery was severed in Stewart's neck by flying glass.

Church Gets Precedence in Schools, Matrimony.

ROME, March 14.—(AP)—Political, religious, and moral aspects of the Lateran treaty between the Italian government and the Vatican were set forth at length by Premier Mussolini in a report published today.

The report is that which will be presented the new parliament April 20, when it convenes to deliberate ratification of the treaty, which was signed Feb. 11. It propounds in considerable detail the events and circumstances leading to the birth of the "Roman question," details of its existence through sixty years, and of its final solution as represented by the treaty.

One of the most striking points in the report is the veiled hint that the new Vatican city state will not apply for membership in the league of nations since, the premier points out, the Vatican city is recognized as a neutral. This, he says, involves inviolability and remaining aloof from "temporal competitions" among states.

Removes Misunderstanding.

The treaty is described by the premier as containing two parts, the first establishing peace between two powers, civil and ecclesiastical, and the second, or concordat, regulating collaboration between them.

"The first of the two acts was necessary," he said "to resolve the unhappy misunderstanding arising during the formation of Italian unity through the complexity of circumstances, derived perhaps more from the fatality of historic events than from ill will of men. That misunderstanding has disturbed for more than 70 years the conscience of Italians. This misunderstanding, which was concerned particularly with the territorial extent of the holy see and to guarantee the independence necessary to the supreme pontiff for the exercise of his spiritual mission in the world, demanded an accord of particular character and of essentially political nature."

Return Crucifix to Schools.

"For some time before the historic event of Feb. 11, the sharpness of relations between state and church was somewhat attenuated. Particularly through the merit of Fascism the state had affirmed that its character and that of the state were essentially Catholic.

"In the schoolrooms and courtrooms the crucifix had returned after having been a long time banished. The civil feast days were made to coincide with those of the church; spiritual assistance was established for the armed forces of the state and the young men's organizations, and ecclesiastical legislation was applied with a spirit."

Other religions, the premier said, will not be touched by the accord. "In the concordat the Catholic church is assured the free exercise of its spiritual power and receives a position of special prestige in consideration of the fact that the Catholic religion is the official religion of the state," he said.

Won't Close Doors to Others.

"The Italian state will be careful to oppose in Rome all that can be in contrast with the character of the Eternal City and episcopal seat of the supreme pontiff, the center of the Catholic work and the mecca of its pilgrims. But this does not signify that Rome ought to remain closed to currents of new ideas and the conquests of modern thought."

The premier remarked that a typical collaboration of church and state is shown in two particularly delicate fields—that is, marriage and public instruction. Marriages celebrated in churches now have the full juridical effect of marriages celebrated by the civil rite only. It might be said, he said, that substantially two systems of marriage remain for Catholics, although religious marriage has the same effect as if the rite were celebrated before the civil authorities.

This is homage rendered marriage as a sacrament in the eyes of the church. The admission of two marriages will avoid former contracts in dualism dangerous to the order of the state and civil morality. Even non-Catholics can celebrate marriages before ministers of their respective cults on condition that they observe the rules established by the laws of the state, while those not professing any religion can still have civil marriage.

Books Must Be Approved.

Once the faculty is admitted of being married by the laws of the church, the premier continued, it is natural that the validity of the marriage cannot be judged but by a competent judge in the matter—namely, an ecclesiastical court.

Concerning public instruction, he said, the concordat agrees that religious teaching besides being given in the elementary schools be extended to secondary schools. Ecclesiastical authorities have no rights of interference in the schools, not even regarding religion, with the exception that teachers in this branch must be provided with a certificate of competency from the bishop of the diocese and that books on religion must be approved by the ecclesiastical authorities.

GERMANY QUAILS AT REPARATIONS HOWL FOR CASH

Finance Minister Fears Alarmists.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, March 14.—In bringing up the German budget in the reichstag today Rudolph Hilferding, German finance minister, said:

"The situation is undoubtedly most grave, but it is the work of the irresponsible and malicious agitators or the utterly ignorant persons who seize this opportunity to write the dreaded word 'inflation' on the wall. It is not a question of the insolvency of Germany, but only of a temporary lack of cash."

The budget, he said, proposes $90,000,000 new taxes.

The minister of finance complained that the state's financial situation was more than ever under the fatal influence of the reparations payments. He refuted the charges of administrative extravagance by pointing out that only one-fifth of the ordinary expenditure of $2,400,000,000 was spent by the administration. He also announced the German cabinet's irrevocable decision not to accept any proposal entailing increased expenditure for any purpose.

The new taxes include considerable increases in the dues for alcohol which, the minister pointed out, are five times higher in England than in Germany. The budget proposal includes a $62,000,000 loan to enable the state to discharge its obligations toward the unemployed. The number of unemployed this winter of more than 300,000 is expected to be owing to the unprecedently cold winter.

Look to U. S. Banks.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, March 14.—Since the American federal reserve bank is not competent to participate in the capitalization of the proposed super bank to handle reparations all the other international financial obligations and private banking groups in America must take the United States portion.

It was pointed out here today that the American delegation alone is capable of underwriting whatever share is allocated to the United States.

It has been suggested that the directorate of the proposed super bank will include an American, a German, a Belgian, a Frenchman, an Englishman, a Japanese, and an Italian, or maybe two or three of each nationality with eventually some neutrals like a Spaniard, a Swiss, a Dutchman, or a Swede.

A Perpetual Honeymoon through the land of music

THEY were beginning to find marriage monotonous, to lose the happiness born on their honeymoon. Then they bought an Ampico—and now they're discovering that Illinois evenings can be made as glamorous as those they spent in Europe . . . Venice had seemed a magic city, but Venice in music can be even more thrilling than Venice in reality. Sitting in their cozy living room, listening to Pelletier play the beautiful Barcarolle from Tales of Hoffman, they have only to close their eyes and it seems as if again they were in a gently swaying gondola, gliding through the silvery waters of the Grand Canal . . . And so they pass the evenings, each more enjoyable than the one before. They are discovering that Chopin really wasn't a highbrow, that Wagner's tunes are often catchier than Broadway's. And when friends drop in unexpectedly, it takes only a moment to roll back the rug and stage a gay impromptu dance . . . The Ampico, and only the Ampico, reproduces with fidelity upon the piano itself the playing of great pianists.

BRIDGEMAN RIPS 'SCARE MONGERS' WHO PERIL PEACE

Britain and U. S. Lovers of Harmony, He Says.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Copyright: 1929: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, March 14.—A denunciation of "the scare mongering and loose thinking" on the subject of competitive naval building with the United States, a declaration of the British government's naval policy, in which there is again a reiteration that there is no naval rivalry, and pointed comments on armaments and peace were the main points of a notable speech made by the first lord of the British admiralty, W. C. Bridgeman, in the house of commons tonight, when he presented the navy estimates.

"The President of the United States, in his inaugural speech, drew attention to this scare mongering talk and, speaking for the British government, I indorse President Herbert Hoover's views," Mr. Bridgeman said.

Lovers of Peace.

Such talk is not borne out by any policy of the British admiralty, he said. The first lord insisted that the two powers are by interest and tradition both lovers of peace; that they both have denounced war as an instrument of national policy. Therefore, it was unreasonable to contemplate that either would be engaged in a war of aggression, still less in war against each other.

The house of commons listened to the swan song of the first lord. Mr. Bridgeman is introducing the naval estimates for the fifth and last time before his retirement from the political arena.

The estimates, which are for $279,325,000, show a reduction of $7,175,000 over those of last year.

"The peace of the world is not endangered from the fact that one, two, or more of the peace loving nations have strong navies as long as these powers are not animated by ambitions for territory or the lust of conquest, and no one can say that either of America or of ourselves," Mr. Bridgeman declared.

Challenges Logic of Reduction.

He challenged the logic of those who maintained that an evenly proportioned reduction of armaments all around was necessarily a step in the direction of peace. Proportionate reductions would leave the chances of success against a hostile power unchanged and the risk of peace to the remainder was just as before.

"The real fact is that substantial armaments in the hands of a peaceful power are not a danger to peace where no war spirit exists and mere proportional reduction in armaments is no guarantee against war when the spirit of peace does not exist," Mr. Bridgeman said.

"If it were possible to abolish the use of submarines, poison gas or aerial attacks on noncombatants it would be an immense step forward in the avoidance of incalculable suffering in war.

"I believe that perpetual harping on the question of war does breed that suspicion and fear that President Hoover so strongly deprecated. I do not know whether it is any good appealing to people on all sides to avoid helping this suspicion by perpetually talking about the dangers of war. Some people, with a self-righteousness that is very repugnant to me, assume that they are the only people that want peace. I regard that as a most offensive assumption and one that is totally untrue."

Tells What Britain Has Done.

Another untrue statement was the suggestion that Great Britain had not been sufficiently permeated by the idea of disarmament, he said. It suited the convenience of certain people to represent Great Britain as doing less than her share in naval disarmament, he said.

"We have done more than any other country," he said. "Since the armistice we have scrapped over 2,160,000 tons of ships of war up to Dec. 31 last, apart from the cancelling of over 314,000 tons of construction. Before the Washington conference we scrapped 1,650,000 tons, or ships of more tonnage than we have got now."

Mr. Bridgeman reminded the house that Great Britain now had only 52 cruisers, as compared with 114 before the war, and that if they replaced three obsolete vessels yearly they would have only 50 cruisers less than 20 years old in 1940. Moreover, two of the three new cruisers that are to be laid down during the coming year are armed only with 6 inch instead of 8 inch guns, he said.

MRS. CASSLER'S FREEDOM PLEA GIVEN SETBACK

CRIMINAL COURT.

James Watts, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary by Judge Harry B. Miller.

Joseph Williams, Joseph Mandino and Charles Ranalli, larceny, sentenced to 1 year each in the county jail by Judge John P. McGoorty.

James Coronis, murder, sentenced to life imprisonment in the penitentiary; Richard Mitchell, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary, by Judge G. Fred Rush.

A search of the records of the Criminal court yesterday showed, court officials said, that Mrs. Catherine Cassler, once condemned to death on the gallows and later granted a new trial by the Illinois Supreme court, has no chance of escaping the second trial under the provisions of the four term act. Mrs. Cassler's attorney, W. W. Witty, had announced that four terms of court had passed without her being tried and that therefore she is entitled to her discharge. She is now in the Bridewell hospital.

"Our records show that Mrs. Cassler, when brought into court in November, asked for a continuance of her case," said John H. Passmore, clerk of the court. "If the four term act did apply to her case, which I doubt, it would not start in operation until the month following the term at which she asked for a continuance. The four terms would not run out until the end of the March term."

Assistant State's Attorney John E. Northup gave the some opinion and announced that Mrs. Cassler would be tried next week before Judge G. Fred Rush unless she asked for another continuance.

UNIVERSAL LINES TO PUT FLEET OF 30 PLANES IN AIR

New Passenger Craft to Cost $2,500,000.

BY ROBERT WOOD.

Anticipating a large increase in the demand for air travel with the beginning of favorable flying weather, the Universal Air lines will put a fleet of 30 tri-motored passenger planes into service over its lines, it was announced yesterday from the offices of the company. The ships, it was stated, will cost $2,500,000.

The planes will range in capacity from 12 to 32 passengers, it was stated. Six tri-motored passenger ships are now flying over the company's lines. Nine more planes are being delivered from time to time as they are finished by the manufacturers and orders are being placed for the remainder of the fleet.

Carry Sleeping Berths.

Among the new ships to be ordered will be several 32 passenger Fokkers now in the process of construction by the Fokker company. These planes are being designed to accommodate sleeping berths which, when the lighting of airways is completed, will be used in night flying, the Universal officials state.

The remainder of the fleet will comprise 12 passenger Fokkers and Fords. Two Fokkers and four Ford air liners are now in use over the Universal routes from Chicago to Cleveland, St. Louis, Kansas City and the Twin Cities. When the airway between Kansas City and Omaha is lighted the company will extend its mail and passenger service over this route.

Planning Other Extensions.

Addition of the large planes yesterday indicated that Universal was preparing for other extensions to its lines, inasmuch as the new ships will be more than enough to accommodate traffic over its present lines. Officials of the company, however, were silent on the subject last night.

Besides the transport equipment the officials stated that several training planes, engines, and parachutes for use in their flying schools in St. Louis, Minneapolis and Marion, Ill., have also been ordered.

DROPS DEAD IN BARBER SHOP.

James Hamilton, 68 years old, 6315 South Union avenue, retired, dropped dead in a barber shop at 806 West 60th street yesterday. Heart disease is believed to have caused death.

Aviation Notes

Ray Fortner, flying the night air mail between St. Louis and Chicago, was forced down at Minooka, ten miles west of Joliet, by a dense fog Wednesday night. He had flown about over Chicago and Lake Michigan for some time, but was unable to locate the Municipal airport. Dropping flares at Minooka, he descended and landed safely. The mail was brought to Chicago by truck in time for morning delivery.

Passenger service over the Interstate Air Lines to Atlanta, Ga., and from Louisville through Evansville to St. Louis will be resumed on April 1, it was announced yesterday. Two new Fairchild cabin planes will be delivered for use in this service.

J. W. Sprowl of Pittsburgh was flown to Indianapolis from Chicago by a Gray Goose plane yesterday to make train connections to Anderson, Ind., where he was to address a gathering last night.

The Gray Goose company will open a flying school today at Pal-Waukee field. Four new Fleet Huskies have been delivered for use in flight instruction.

Glenn L. Martin, manufacturer of the Martin bomber, who recently entered commercial airplane manufacturing, yesterday announced that he had purchased a site of almost two square miles located ten miles from the center of Baltimore, to be developed for large scale aircraft production and for airport purposes. The field, which is located on Middle river, will have about three miles of water front for landing both water and land planes. Construction of the first unit of a large plant for the production of commercial, naval and military planes will be started next week, Mr. Martin said.

EAKER TO TRY TEXAS-PANAMA HOP TOMORROW

San Antonio, Tex., March 14.—(AP)—Capt. Ira C. Eaker, army air corps pilot, who will attempt a dawn to dusk flight from Brownsville, Tex., to France field, Panama Canal Zone, Saturday, plans to make a return flight to Brownsville Sunday and then fly from Brownsville to Washington, D. C., Monday.

Eaker made this announcement here late today on the eve of his departure for Brownsville, whence he will hop off at 4 a. m. Saturday for his Panama destination.

AGED BLIND WOMAN DIES.

Mrs. Anna Goldberg, 84 years old, 704 South Racine avenue, a blind patient at the Oak Forest infirmary, died there yesterday supposedly of heart disease induced by injuries suffered last January when she stumbled and fractured her hip.

HAND FED NEWS TURNS FOCH INTO SICKROOM REBEL

PARIS, March 14.—(AP)—Idleness, mental and physical, is Marshal Foch's most dangerous enemy as he lies on the sick bed where, since Jan. 14, the greatest military captain of the world's war has been fighting what many believe and fear will be his last battle.

Attacked by a coalition of diseases, in which heart, kidneys, and lungs joined forces, any one of which separately has proven fatal to countless mortals, Foch has rebelled against only one general order; namely, the complete repose.

Mind Becomes Bolshevik.

But the great disciplined mind that grappled with problems involving the lives of ten million men upon the fields of battle became bolshevik when doctors commenced feeding it extracts from daily papers dealing with the decrease of the birth rate in France and the influence of the Aurora Borealis, upon the belated spring season. The patient also deeply resented being carried from bed to sunlit window and back into the sheets.

"You tell me the Americans are worried about me," Foch once shouted at Dr. Daveniere, engaged in reading to his patient clippins from overseas publications, "let me see those papers. I want to read them myself."

It was done once, but the size of the headlines in the American newspapers, captioning dispatches from Paris referring to his illness simply staggered the marshal.

"Have I been as sick as all that?" he asked with a twinkle in his eye. The marshal has not seen an American paper since.

Has a Good Night.

It is impossible to deny that the illustrious soldier is retreating slowly toward a "certain position prepared in advance" and from which there is no counter-attack, but eternal stabilization of the front.

"Pray to heaven," said Dr. De Gennes, the youngest of the four medical experts attending the marshal, "that no further relapse occurs. Each relapse leaves our glorious patient a few steps down the ladder of life."

Foch had a good night and told his doctors this morning he was feeling much better.

STILLMAN GUIDE SEEKS TO INVOLVE FLO LEEDS IN SUIT

New York, March 14.—[Special.]—Supreme Court Justice Philip J. McCook today adjourned argument on the motion of counsel for James A. Stillman for a change of venue in the $500,000 slander suit brought against him by Fred Beauvais, former Canadian guide, from New York to Westchester county. The argument was adjourned for one week by consent of counsel.

Beauvais has obtained from the Supreme court in Brooklyn an order to show cause why Beauvais should not be permitted to serve an amended complaint in his $500,000 damage suit against James A. Stillman naming Mrs. Florence Leeds as a defendant. The order is returnable next Monday.

Mrs. Stillman named Flo Leeds in her suit several years ago. It is the desire of Benjamin Friedlander, Beauvais' lawyer, to name Mrs. Leeds as an alleged conspirator.

SCHEDULE PUBLIC MEETINGS TO FIX LAND VALUATION

Assessors Will Listen to Citizens' Opinions.

The complete list of public meetings which taxpayers may attend to discuss the tentative land valuations in their districts worked out by the special staff of the board of assessors in connection with the reassessment of Cook county property was announced yesterday by Harry S. Cutmore, director of the revaluation.

Charles V. Barrett, member of the board of review, warned that these meetings do not take the place of regular hearings before the board of review. At the public gatherings, citizens will be privileged to comment on the land valuations in general and the assessors may reduce or raise the land values as a result of the arguments raised.

Board Has Final O. K.

If, however, a taxpayer is still dissatisfied with the valuation placed upon his property, he has the right under the law, Mr. Barrett explained, to file complaints with the board of review up until ten days after the books are received from the assessors. These complaints will be heard by the members of the board of review, who have full power to change the assessors' figures.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 14.—[Special.]—Marked improvement in the American doughboy's rifle marksmanship was reported today by Maj. Gen. Robert H. Allen, chief of infantry. Of 24,260 enlisted men in the infantry engaging in firing tests during the last year, a total of 22,747 qualified as marksmen or better.

The outstanding regiment in rifle shooting for 1928 was the 65th infantry, San Juan, Porto Rico, composed of native Porto Ricans. Every member of this organization firing the rifle qualification course this last year obtained the minimum qualifying score.

The 57th infantry, composed of native Filipinos, had an excellent record, failing to qualify only seven of 810 men firing.

In 1928, 93 per cent of the infantrymen who fired the course obtained qualifying scores, while in 1927 91 per cent qualified. In 1928, 3,680 infantrymen reached expert qualification, entitling them to $5 extra pay per month, while in 1927, the number earning extra pay was 2,556.

The number of sharpshooters drawing $3 extra pay per month was increased from 5,272 in 1927 to 6,501 in 1928. The number of marksmen in 1928 was 12,566, as compared to 11,838 in 1927.

MITCHELL GIVES HOOVER ORIGINS QUOTA OPINION

Washington, D. C., March 14.—(AP)—Attorney General Mitchell today transmitted to President Hoover the opinion requested by the chief executive on the mandatory provisions of the national origins clause of the immigration law.

The question had to do with whether the President is required by law to proclaim new quotas on April 1, to become effective June 1, or whether this is optional with him. The content of the opinion was not made public, but it is expected that it will be given out shortly.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 14.—[Special.]—President Hoover discussed his program for farm relief today with Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, who was a luncheon guest. Earlier in the day the President conferred with Senators S. W. Brookhart [Rep., Iowa] and Gerald P. Nye [Rep., N. D.], who went to the White House together after talking with Secretary Hyde.

The two senators, both of whom have been identified with the radical group, expressed a desire to coöperate with the administration in working out agricultural legislation.

Might Incur Some Loss.

Senator Brookhart said that the government probably would incur some loss in making loans for handling crop surpluses. He was of the opinion that the revolving fund ought possibly to amount to as much as a billion dollars, which is considerably more than President Hoover is expected to recommend. Senator Nye also said the fund might have to be larger than the 300 or 400 million dollars which has been proposed.

Secretary Hyde tonight made his first speech since taking office over the radio, as part of the program of the American Farm Bureau Radio community meeting. He carefully refrained from discussion of farm relief policies.

"Ten days ago I undertook the duties of secretary of the United States department of agriculture," said Secretary Hyde. "I did so with full realization of its difficulties and with solemn recognition of my own limitations. I want to work with you. I want the department of agriculture to render an increasing service to the farm. I want to be of some service, however small, in effectuating the agricultural policies of our great President. As outlined in his public addresses these policies are sound and constructive. I believe they will achieve a larger measure of prosperity for the farmer."

Calls Farmer Efficient.

"It employs more people, requires larger investment, renders a more immediately vital service than any other industry," said Mr. Hyde. "The American farmer is efficient. He proved it during the great war. The gain in efficiency per man engaged on the farm during the last few years is one of real accomplishments of the industry.

"But the problems of agriculture do not end on the farm. Many problems only begin there. After the farmer has successfully met the problems of production, there remain serious problems of marketing and of distribution on such a basis as to return to the farm adequate compensation for the service rendered."

Search Dunes in Vain for Girl Missing Since Sunday

Valparaiso, Ind., March 14.—[Special.]—Porter county authorities and Dunes State Park foresters, despite a four day search, have failed to find Marian Smith, age 15, Chesterton, Ind., high school girl, who disappeared from her home Sunday after telling her parents she was going on a hike to the dunes. Officers believe the girl was either drowned in Lake Michigan or was kidnaped. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith, Detroit.

Bottled Sunshine!
Growing children need it, too
physicians advise

Medical authorities are now advising a simple but very effective way to help growing children keep up to par in weight, vitality and endurance.

They find that Bottled Sunshine—good cod-liver oil—given daily, builds up depleted vitality and increases general resistance to infections. It helps the underweight child to put on flesh and grow as he should.

The factors that make cod-liver oil such a valued health-builder are Vitamins A and D. Vitamin A promotes normal growth and nutrition, and increases resistance to infections. Vitamin D is the "sunshine vitamin" which growing children particularly need, since modern ways of living give them so little sunshine.

In prescribing cod-liver oil, thousands of physicians specify Squibb's. They advise it because it is tested and guaranteed to be very rich in the vitamins that protect, Vitamins A and D.

Ask your physician about Squibb's Cod-Liver Oil as a health-builder for your child. You can now get Squibb's Mint-flavored Cod-Liver Oil which appeals to older children especially. All good drug stores have it, as well as Squibb's Plain Cod-Liver Oil.

W. SIDE CITIZENS TO HEAR DATA ON MOTORWAY PLAN

Elevated Road to Cost 14 Million, Estimate.

BY PUTNEY HAIGHT.

A conference of more than 2,500 leading business and professional men and women of the west side is scheduled for tonight at Dreamland ballroom, 1701 West Van Buren street, to consider the proposed elevated highway planned to carry automobile traffic from downtown Chicago to the west city limits.

The west park board, at its meeting yesterday, placed its stamp of approval on the elevated superhighway project, acting on the recommendation of its advisory committee.

Perhaps the most important item to be disclosed at the meeting tonight will be the estimate of cost for such a structure, which has been gone over by a comittee of seventeen of the leading a committee of seventeen of thel eadchecked against a number of contractors' informal proposal. Although the work of the engineers' committee will not be completed until this afternoon, the preliminary scrutiny of plans has indicated that the entire seven and a half miles of 50-foot motorway will not involve an actual construction cost of more than $14,000,000.

Robertson to Present Data.

Dr. John Dill Robertson, president of the west park commission, at whose suggestion the conference has been arranged, expects to present the detailed cost report, together with a statement of requirements upon which the proposed $20,000,000 bond issue will be submitted. The legislation to enable the park district to submit the bond proposal to the west park district is now before the general assembly. So far as is known, there is no objection to passage of the bill and Gov. Louis L. Emmerson has indicated that he favors the assembly extending such aid to the project.

Among the speakers who have been invited to present an outline of the proposed enterprise, together with a picture of the benefits which would accrue to the west side, are E. E. re, auditor and fiscal controller of the west parks; James Igoe, congressional representative from the district; Charles J. MacGowan; representatives of three motor clubs, and Daniel Roberts, attorney for the district. Walter Bacon is to preside.

"The main purpose of the conference," Dr. Robertson said, "is to clear up many irresponsible rumors concerning the project which have emanated apparently from individuals or through civic associations, which see so much prosperity for territory through which the line might run and oppose it on the ground that other localities would not participate.

Route Not Yet Selected.

"I want to make plain that a definite route has not yet been determined, nor will it be without approval of the whole west side. At the outset, we used the Fulton street route as a tangible basis on which to work. If any other route would be preferable from the standpoint of economy and service there is no reason why it could not be selected.

"A west side association sent resolutions of objection on the ground that $20,000,000 of bonds would not finance the project. Our committee of engineers, representing the best in Chicago, has determined that the sum is ample for construction, property damage, and everything else."

FAILS TO SHARE IN WILSON WILL; KILLS SELF, GIRL

Mrs. Florence Smartt, who killed herself and her 11 year old daughter, Barbara, in Carmel, Cal., Tuesday, rather than surrender the child to a foster mother, was a niece of the late Milton H. Wilson, wealthy Evanston clothing manufacturer, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Oakland, Cal., last night. Mr. Wilson's estate totaled close to $10,000,000. Of this more than $8,000,000 was bequeathed to Northwestern university.

Mrs. Smartt shot herself and the girl when the child chose to return to Beverly Hills, Cal., with her foster mother, Mrs. Mabel Collins. Friends of the woman said they believed that disappointment at not being remembered in Wilson's will was partly responsible for her act. The bodies of mother and daughter were taken to Oakland, Cal., where double funeral services will be held today.

Accuse Husband of Putting Poison in Wife's Coffee

John Planenz, 42 years old, was locked up in the Fillmore street police station last night charged with attempting to kill his wife, Antonia. At breakfast yesterday Planenz refused to take any coffee, but pressed his wife to have some, insisting so vehemently, she said, that she took milk instead and then called the police. The city chemist found arsenic in the coffee.

COUNTY BUDGET SYSTEM BILL IS INTRODUCED

Illinois Also Would Have Uniform Expense Reports

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., March 14.—[Special.]—Two bills representing the results of two years of exhaustive inquiry by a special committee of the Illinois Manufacturers' association and a study by the National Industrial Conference board were introduced in the general assembly today.

Both searches were directed toward uncovering the weaknesses in the administration of public funds in the states; and, as a first step toward remedying the bad spots located, the association is sponsoring these two measures.

In the senate they were introduced by Senator Martin R. Carlson of Moline, president pro tem, and in the house of representatives by Roger F. Little of Champaign, the majority floor leader.

Budget System for Counties.

The first is to require that every country in the state install a budget system such as already is in effect in Cook county.

The second is to require uniform reports of expenditures to the state auditor by all of the thousands of local tax spending bodies in the state.

Their purpose, it was explained, is to systematize county expenditures in relation to income and to improve methods of accounting in counties, cities, villages, towns, drainage boards, park boards and all other local bodies with the ultimate aim of better service and increased economy.

Secretary Lamont Aided.

Particular comment was aroused by the fact that the roll included the name of Robert P. Lamont, now secretary of commerce in the Hoover cabinet, who was a member of the association board until he resigned all business connections at the time he was called to Washington.

The bills were brought here by James L. Donnelly, executive vice president of the Illinois manufacturers, who issued a statement on the subject.

"The administration of public funds," he said, "constitutes the most important aspect of the problem of taxation. The height of the tax rate is in direct relation to the honesty, efficiency and economy with which the proceeds of taxation are handled and expended.

"The two bills introduced today have as their aim, improvement in expenditure methods but, if enacted, they also would give the citizen understandable information about the reports and disbursements of his local governments which actually spend much the larger part of the money raised by taxation."

Fix Budget in December.

The first bill is to require each county to adopt annually in December a budget covering all anticipated revenues and proposed expenditures for the succeeding twelve months. With the exception of Cook, the counties are under no legal obligation to plan definitely the relation between what they are to receive and what they may spend.

The result in many cases is a floating indebtedness, upon which, in appearance, the county may pay no interest, but the person selling to such a condition naturally charges a higher price when he knows he must wait a year or two for payment or discount his claims.

The county finance bill, Mr. Donnelly explained, seeks to enforce a pay-as-you-go system.

Reports Lack Uniformity.

"Every local government or local officer handling public funds," said Mr. Donnelly, speaking of the second bill, "now is required by law to make some sort of a periodical report, but there is no uniformity in them nor in the financial accounts kept by such bodies and officers.

"Because of the multiplicity and diversity of financial reports, the average taxpayer is as ignorant of actual conditions as if there were no reports. This second bill requires the filing of these reports with the state auditor so that there will be, at a central place, full information as to local finances.

"In addition it authorizes the auditor to establish uniform standards for these reports and to prescribe methods of accounts and reports. Where such reports are not submitted the auditor is authorized to investigate at the expense of the local government, and he may, on request, audit local accounts at the expense of the local body or officer."

NEW POLICEMEN ON DUTY; DON'T DRINK, WARNING

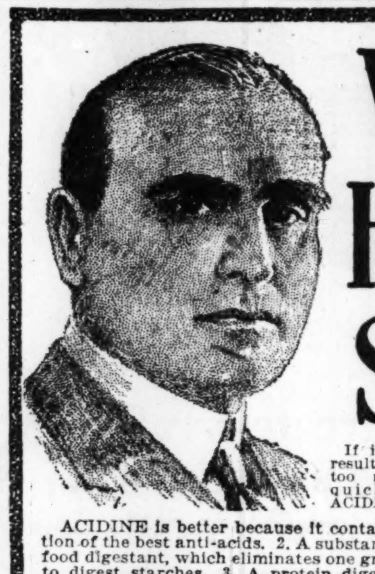
Patrolling the streets yesterday were 224 probationary policemen who had just completed their training in the police school and are now being given their probationary tests before they become full fledged members of the department. They are the first group to be added to the force under the council order authorizing the addition of 750 men in 1929. Eighty more student policemen will begin their course of instruction immediately.

"Drinking intoxicating liquor will subject you to a peremptory discharge from the force," Commissioner William F. Russell warned the recruits as they assembled for a review yesterday. "You men are on five months' probation under my direct supervision and drinking on the police force will be tolerated no longer.

"Your chief duty is to catch the criminals. The time will come when you will have 'influence' to contend with. But you are to do what your superior officers tell you and not what any one else says. You are about to embark on an honorable career. It is yourselves who will make it so. Most of you are veterans of the late war and you are going over the top for Chicago just the same way you did across the water."



Why Not Help Your Stomach

If it bothers you? Indigestion and its results—sour stomach, headaches, gas, too much acid which causes colds—quickly vanish with daily use of ACIDINE.

ACIDINE is better because it contains: 1. An entirely new combination of the best anti-acids. 2. A substantial amount of a powerful starchy food digestant, which eliminates one great cause of indigestion—inability to digest starches. 3. A protein digestant for meats. 4. A protective soothing preparation to prevent inflammation of the stomach walls. 5. A carminative to tone up and put life into the stomach. 6. The best, finest, purest U. S. P. materials it is possible to make.

It is a new discovery, recommended by doctors,—an ultra modern medicine for stomach troubles and resulting ills. No home should ever be without it. Your druggist recommends it or write the makers, Health Laboratories, Inc., Pittsburgh, Pa.

BUFFALO TEAM TAKES LEAD IN A. B. C. MEET

Blackburne Builds from Bottom Up.

This is the first of a series of articles by Mr. Vaughan on major league ball clubs and their pennant chances. Before the series is concluded Mr. Vaughan will have given Tribune readers a comprehensive idea of the forthcoming race.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

ALEX METZLER.

Dallas, Tex., March 14.—Russell [Lena] Blackburne, the boss of the White Sox has no rocking chair job. The building up of a rundown ball club is not accomplished over night. But Lena, the peppery one who regrets that he never has known what it is to worry, has confidence, enthusiasm, and knowledge of the game. He also has a lengthy list of promising youngsters with which to lay a new foundation for a duplicate of what was swallowed up in the 1919 world's series conspiracy.

Confidence, enthusiasm and a quantity of material, however, are not blinding the Sox leader to cold facts. He is making no threats to get up and toss the pennant contenders out the back door during the coming season. His sole aim is to get the nucleus of a team that inside of a couple or three years will reach its crest and for the time being, meaning the 1929 event, he will be satisfied if he can crowd his way into the first division. If he does that he will have done well.

Hitting Is Problem.

There is one thing about the Sox that is doubtful. It is their hitting, and this is an important item. The attack was weak last season—woefully so. Predictions that it will be vastly improved this year are based on the flashes made by a couple of youngsters last fall and the addition of a couple of new men with reputations.

When the Sox boss completes his task of whittling down the roster he will have in the neighborhood of 24 men with which to battle through the summer campaign. He wants to keep nine pitchers and probably will find that many are worthy of retention. He is going to have two sets of outfielders, one of whom, Bill Barrett, also can infield when necessary. He'll keep two extra infielders. Three catchers will complete the layout.

For the time being Blackburne is proceeding on the theory that his outfield will be Metzler, Hoffman and Reynolds, from left to right, and his infield Shires, Kerr, Cissell and Kamm from first to third, with Autry, the ex-Indian, as the regular catcher and Crouse and Berg to assist him.

Kerr Is Good Fielder.

Whether either the infield or outfield combination will stand up is going to be decided only by the heat of the flag race. Of Metzler there need be no doubt. He has been through the mill. Hoffman, the newcomer in center, hit well at Sacramento, but big league pitching is considerably more baffling. Reynolds on his work last season showed great possibilities, but he will have to keep going as both Barrett, now reformed and a bit serious about his work, and the veteran Mostil will be hanging around awaiting an invitation to get in there.

Second Basemen Hunnefield, a holdout, hasn't entered into Blackburne's scheme in any way. The keystone job has been given to Johnny Kerr, drafted from the Hollywood Coast league team, and the ex-Tiger has been doing an excellent defensive job in the drills down south. There is doubt about his hitting but Blackburne is going to keep him in there just the same.

For reserve infield strength Redfern and Clancy are going to remain and the former can play from second to third, although his stick is not an overtime worker. Clancy must be retained for utility work at first base and on the possibility that Art Shires, who walloped to a .341 tune in 33 games last fall, may not keep up the good work. If Shires flops the job will go back to Clancy.

Moore Has Good Chance.

The sixth outfielder probably will be Randy Moore who always has hit well in the Texas league but who faded slightly in two previous trials with the Sox.

The pitching will be about the same as last year, with a possibility of a slight improvement. The main load is going to be carried by Thomas, Lyons, Adkins, and Faber with Connally in his old role of relief man. What Blackburne needs is a southpaw and if Bob Weiland, who bowed into the league last season with a 1 to 0 win over the Athletics, proves as good as he looks the staff will rate with the best in the circuit. As yet there is no indication that Ted Blankenship is going to regain his one time effectiveness. He doesn't appear able to shed weight.

Braves Beat Yanks, 6-4, in Ten Innings

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 14.—(AP)—The Boston Braves today handed the world champion New York Yankees their first defeat since Sept. 29 of last year, winning in the tenth inning by 6 to 4. The game evened the series for the spring championship of St. Petersburg with one victory apiece.

Wilcy Moore went on the books as the losing pitcher in his first appearance of the year. He followed Heimach and Fay Thomas on the mound. Delaney, Seibold, and Hearn pitched for the Braves. Score by innings:

SENATORS BEAT CARDS.

Avon Park, Fla., March 14.—(AP)—Walter Johnson's Washington Senators hammered six Cardinal pitchers, five of them rookies, for seventeen hits and walked off with an exhibition game with the National league champions here this afternoon, 12 to 9.

After the veteran Grover Cleveland Alexander had held the Senators scoreless for the first three innings, Martin, a southpaw, blew up in the fourth and Washington batted around for six tallies.

Fred Fitzsimmons and Harry Kelly divided the mound work for the Giants, while Neal Baker, Pat Hatch, and Hobo Carson pitched for San Antonio. Andy Reese led at bat with a home run, two doubles, and a single.

Borelli, a recruit, starred at the bat for the Athletics, and drove in five runs. He hit a home run in the eighth with two on, and also made a single and a double in five times at bat.

REDS BOW TO BOSTON.

Bradentown, Fla., March 14.—[U.P.]—Hal Rhyne, former Pittsburgh infielder, starred in the Boston Red Sox 13 to 4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds here today. Rhyne drove in four runs in the first with two hits, the Red Sox scoring eight runs in that inning. Ethan Allen drove in all four of Cincinnati's runs.

VANCE'S BOSSES GIVE UP; AGREE TO PAY $25,000

Clearwater, Fla., March 14.—[Special.]—Two-thirds of the Brooklyn club's troubles were ended suddenly today when the directors acceded to Dazzy Vance's demand for a $25,000 salary for the coming season.

Secretary John Gorman announced the receipt of a communication from the home office to the effect that the club had surrendered to the star pitcher and, in view of Stephen V. McKeever's statement that he would be willing to give Vance $25,000, "or more if he wants it," and Robinson's known desire to get Dazzy at any price, the salary controversy was ended.

Gorman has apprised Vance of the club's action and has notified him to report for training immediately.

New York, March 14.—(AP)—Taking both of today's blocks, Allan Hall of St. Louis went into the lead in his 600 point three cushion billiards match with the world's champion, Johnny Layton. The score tonight stood: Hall, 400; Layton, 392.

CUBS BID AVALON ADIEU; AIM TO CLIP WINGS OF ANGELS

BY EDWARD BURNS.

CHARLEY ROOT.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 14.—Old Man Neptune, or whoever that venerable gent is that makes oceans roar up, gave the Cubs a break today, and, the final voyage of the year from Santa Catalina island to the mainland of California was as placid as the most skittish could ask.

Since the selling experience of last Monday the athletes have talked of little else except the prospects for a better sea for the return trip. This morning Capt. Charley Grimm, Pat Malone, Gabby Hartnett and several of the afflicted rookies were on the beach shortly after dawn studying conditions through binoculars. They were encouraged, and conditions got better as 3:30 o'clock, the sailing time, drew nigh.

Manager Joe McCarthy led his troupe off the training island with the assertion that the athletes are not as far along in their conditioning as they have been the two other years he's been out here.

29 Games Just Ahead.

The situation has not annoyed Boss Joseph, however, for he has twenty-nine exhibition games ahead of him and sixteen of these will be played where heat should be sustained, in Arizona and southern Texas.

"We're not as far along as expected, but all the boys are in good health and will be a million per cent coming out of Houston April 10," Joe said.

Tomorrow's game with the Los Angeles Angels will have something of a genuine grudge character. The Cub skipper has tried to laugh off the manner in which his nine was pushed around by Umpire Chet Chadbourne last Saturday but it doesn't take much ribbing to start him raving about the incident all over again.

Charley Root will get his first test of the year in the game tomorrow. He hasn't decided whether he will have the young man pitch the first five innings or the last four, but he said definitely that Root will be in the game.

Beck Leads Hitting Array.

English still is unable to play because of an infected toe, so tomorrow Beck will be at short and lead off the batting order while Blair will play third and bat second.

The closing of the training camp may be looked upon as a milestone in the 1929 ride of the Cubs, so maybe it wouldn't be amiss to set down a tentative summary of what the camp has shown.

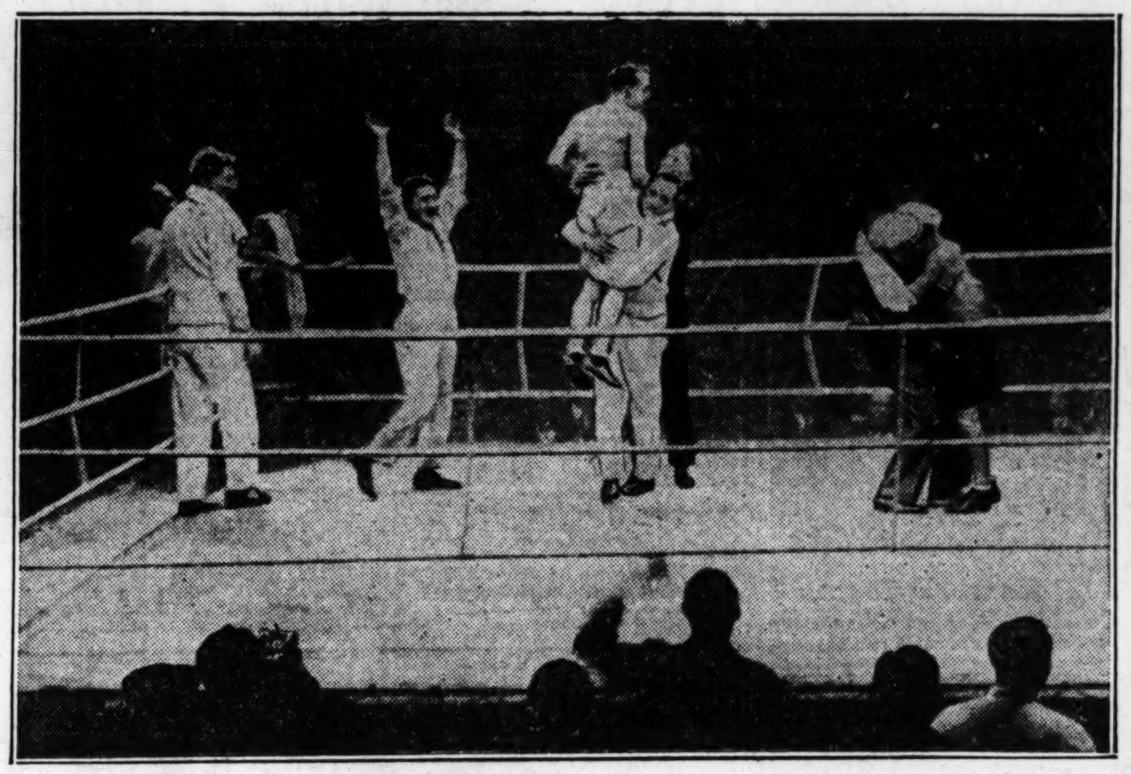
Tom Angley has a big edge on Earl Grace for the job of third Cub catcher on the basis of current performances. But Grace gets the edge when one stops to visualize what proportions the 216 pound Tommy would reach, not working every day as at present.

As we have reminded you several times before, the Cubs will play here against the Angels for five days. Then, they will engage the Detroit Tigers for five games on successive days.

ARKANSAS RACE BILL WILL GET GOVERNOR'S VETO

Little Rock, Ark., March 14.—(AP)—Gov. Harvey Parnell issued a statement late today saying he will veto the bill passed by the legislature legalizing pari-mutuel betting on horse racing.

WHEN GENARO TOOK THE COUNT



Thirty seconds were all Emile Pladner of France required to beat Frankie Genaro, flyweight champion, in their recent bout in Paris. Pladner landed only two blows. The victor is being hoisted onto the shoulders of admirers and Genaro is being helped to his corner.

BY ARCH WARD.

New York, March 14.—[Special.]—Others may rave over Salvatore Affinito, a redheaded bundle of fighting fury from Ascension parish, who whipped the daylights out of two men to win the 147 pound title in the New York Daily News amateur boxing tournament at the Garden last night. But many this morning were shouting the praises of Freddie McGrail, a middleweight, who is so good that he looks out of place in amateur competition.

The thing that made this writer's strings strum the loudest was Phil Rafferty's soul stirring triumph over plucky Pete Caesar in the lightweight title battle.

Entering the ring a second choice, Rafferty gave a masterly exhibition of boxing generalship and unadulterated fighting guts. Apparently with nothing left but his shoes when an extra round was ordered to enable the judges to render a decision, Rafferty came back with a beautifully placed right cross that let Caesar sniff resin for two seconds. That break swung victory his way.

Sees Trouble for Haines.

Roosevelt Haines, Chicago's Negro representative in the 135 pound class, will have a lot of trouble with Mr. Rafferty. Rafferty is a fighting Irishman and when the Irish are fighting it is well to be prepared.

Another development of last night's tournament was the exploding of the prediction that Buddy Hammer, Chicago welterweight, is almost sure to bring home a victory.

Hammer will be pitted against Affinito, one of the strongest members of the New York squad. Affinito doesn't attempt fancy stuff or waste time, energy and opportunity with needless feints. He strides from his corner blazing away with both fists and when he sinks that left in an opponent's stomach the latter usually folds around it like a wet dishrag and slumps to the canvas.

Interest at High Pitch.

New York fans believe they have a sure victor in McGrail, a 160 pounder, who until two months ago burned up amateur ranks around Boston. The only trouble with McGrail is that he looks too good. Left hands like his rarely are found among the simon pures. A record of 78 knockouts in 102 fights speaks for his class.

New York's team is stronger this year than in 1928 when Chicago was held to a tie. Paul Gallico, who had charge of the tournament that drew 21,028 to Madison Square Garden, admits it. But if memory serves us right, Walter Eckersall believes Chicago's battlers also are a little stronger and more skillful than last year.

New York is taking a remarkable interest in its amateur boxers. Every paper devoted a column of space today to a review of last night's bouts Tickets for the intercity match were placed on sale last night and Joe Boynton, chief of the Garden boxoffice, announced that $2,500 worth was sold in two hours.

ROOSEVELT HAINES.

This statement was made yesterday by Dave Barry, the former Canadian lightweight champion, and an expert in judging fighters. Haines will be Chicago's representative in the 135 pound class of the intercity matches with New York on March 27 in Madison Square Garden.

"Haines has everything which a professional must possess to reach the top," Barry said yesterday as he watched Haines go through his training at the Barry gymnasium. "He has a dandy left hand and his right is always cocked to shoot the moment an opportunity presents itself.

Roosevelt is colored and was born in Louisiana. He has been boxing in the amateur ranks for two years. He lives with his parents on the south side and intends to turn professional after the intercity bouts with New York.

Changnon to Lead 1930 Chicago Five; 'C' Awards Scarce

Harry Changnon, forward for two seasons, yesterday was elected captain of the University of Chicago basketball team for next year. Changnon, a graduate of Kankakee High school, is 20 years old and a member of Delta Upsilon.

Only three men were recommended for the major "C" by Coach Nels Norgren. Capt. Virgil Gist and Bob Kaplan, both seniors, won letters, in addition to Captain Elect Changnon.

The final game to determine the sectional championship and the right to enter the championship round at the University of Illinois next week will be played tomorrow night.

Harrison, victor in the district tournament at La Grange last week, and Chicago's surviving entry in the meet, was eliminated easily by Joliet, 29 to 20, in the opening game last night. Waukegan won its way into the semi-finals by defeating Rochelle, 23 to 21, while Sycamore won over Dundee, 27 to 23. Lineups:

MIDWEST'S BEST TO VIE IN TESTS IN ILLINI RELAYS

800 Athletes Show Stuff Tomorrow.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Nearly 800 athletes representing seventy-seven universities, colleges and high schools depart today for Champaign for the twelfth annual indoor relays of the University of Illinois tomorrow. The all around championships embracing seven events will be held tomorrow afternoon starting at 1 o'clock.

During the afternoon trials in the 300 yard run, high hurdles, 75 yard dash and low hurdles will be held. In addition, the finals in the college two mile relay and the college medley, the one mile high school and one mile college relay will be held. The night's program begins at 7:30 o'clock.

Among the leading performers in the individual events will be Warne of Northwestern in the pole vault; Simpson of Ohio State, Timms of Illinois and Elder of Notre Dame in the dashes; Haydon of Chicago, Allison of Iowa, Rodgers of Illinois, and Rockaway of Ohio State in the high hurdles.

Nine Relays on Card.

Illinois will flash a strong four mile relay team, made up of Abbott, Orlovich, White and Stine. The same runners will compose the two mile relay squad. Iowa, winner of the Western conference one mile relay with Stevenson in the anchor position, is favored to win. Wisconsin, by the way, will be represented by a strong quartet. The Big Six will be represented in both the relays and individual events while a number of the Missouri Valley conference schools have entered their best performers. Some southern schools, including the University of Texas, will be represented.

The entire program will be made up of nine relays, the seven event all around championships and ten special events. A new number, the 320 yards shuttle relay, will be held for the first time.

Baird Lends His Aid.

Jos Sivak, who will run in the anchor position for Butler college of Indianapolis, and Abbott of Illinois are expected to engage in an interesting race if the two runners start on even terms on the last mile of the four mile relay. Sivak is a former Illinois A. C. athlete and is considered one of the best milers in the country.

Rolls Games of 221, 237, 265.

BY HARLAND ROHM.

Buffalo started its bid for the 1930 tournament of the American Bowling congress on which the association will vote today, by taking the lead in the five man event at the Dexter Park pavilion last night. The Sahlen Packing company displaced the Bowlers' Journal from that spot by rolling 2,926, the first 2,900 series of the tournament.

The change in the team event standing wasn't a marker, however, to what the herd of bowlers thundering their balls down the alleys did to the singles and doubles standing in the afternoon. Most impressive was the effort of Jeff Davis of Chicago in the singles, with a count of 723, which is better than the winning total of the last two years.

Davis, rolling a fast ball with a slight backup to it, was hitting the 1-2 pocket solidly and hung up games of 221, 237, 265 for his total. His great finish was the highest game of the day, attained by seven strikes to start, followed by two spares, two more strikes an eight pin count on his last ball. The crowd of nearly 2,000 massed behind his alley as he was finishing that game, cheering every hit. In his two spares the first seemed a good hit, but the second was a bit high on the headpin.

Six Changes in All Events.

Most changes in the standings came in the all events, in which six of the first ten were displaced. Davis, helped by that 723, went into the lead, but his 1,871 wasn't good enough to give him an undivided first place. Paul Green of Chicago tied him with 613 in the five man, 619 in the doubles and 639 in the singles. Davis had hit 619 in the five man and 619 in the doubles.

The Sahlen Packing company came through to the lead only by virtue of a game finish which virtually tore first place from the Bowlers' Journal. In the first game they had scored 969 and in the second 954, so they needed 960 in their last game to take the lead and they didn't start so well. But they finished like champions.

J. Schwartz, leadoff man, had 97 in his fifth frame, and then hit five successive strikes, to finish with 225. F. Stuntz had 162 in the eighth, spared in the ninth, added two strikes and a 7 count for 209. F. Degen finished with 162, and C. Degen with 136 in the seventh, came through with three successive strikes and an error for 214.

Neffke Comes Through.

That rather threw the burden on F. Neffke, anchor man, who hadn't been going so well and had only 166 in the ninth. Needing every pin, he struck in the tenth, added another strike and a seven count to finish with 193. The team's final game count was 1,003, giving them the lead by more than forty pins.

The annual meeting of the association is scheduled for today, at which the place for next year's tournament will be chosen. Buffalo, Cleveland and Columbus are in the running, with Columbus having the inside track at present.

Stars Roll Tonight.

That annual meeting should be merely a forerunner to the pounding the pins should get tonight with some of the star teams of the country rolling. Three of the most famous bowling stars, Joe Falcaro, Mort Lindsay and Joe Scribner, will compete. Malcaro will lead his Cordes Mets of New York on to alley 26 on the 8 o'clock squad while Mort Lindsay will roll with the Dwyers of New York on alley 16 at the same time. He was captain of the team and all-events winner in 1919 which won the A. B. C. at Buffalo in 1914.

Joe Scribner won't appear before the 10:15 squad tonight, when his Risdon's Creameries bowl on alley 3. Meanwhile, at 8 o'clock, Joe Thum, "father" and president of the International Bowling tournament, one of the real veterans of the game, will shoot on alley 27 at 8 o'clock.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 14.—[Special.]—Tutti Frutti came home in front today in the feature event of the opening day's program at Keeney Park, where the Florida Jockey club has its new plant.

The Chilean horse, owned by H. Gutierrez, won all the way in the mile and a sixteenth race, opening up a four length lead at the first turn. Boris trailed him down the back stretch, but came on with a determined challenge on the last turn.

Jockey Legere took Tutti Frutti to the middle of the track, gave him his head and came breezing home five lengths in the lead, Boris, with Jockey Brown driving hard, took second place, five lengths ahead of his stablemate, Congo II.

Tutti Frutti was the 9 to 20 favorite and carried top weight of 126 pounds.

JONES WINS THREE

New Orleans, La., March 14.—[Special.]—Lightning Jones and F. Halbert rode five winners through the mud and rain at Jefferson park today. Jones scored a triple and Halbert a double on a program given over entirely to claiming races. Jones won with Illustrious, Edward Gray, and Jim Banola, and Halbert with Athey, and Grand King.

In the main event of the program seven went to the post, Halbert's mount being C. B. Hood's Grand King. He won by a head in a driving finish with Chatson, which got the place by two length. To win Halbert kept Grand King close to the early pace, came wide in the stretch and despite a bumping from some of the others come on with a rush to take the lead.

Motor Paced Races Usher in Six Day Bicycle Grind

Eighteen American riders and 12 foreign pedallers are entered in Chicago's twenty-first international six day bicycle grind that starts at the Coliseum Sunday night. In the last race the foreign riders outnumbered the Yankee entries.

In connection with the program tomorrow night professional, amateur, and motor paced races will be staged, featured by a five mile motor-paced match with Frances Georgetti, the motor paced champion of America, battling Victor Hopkins, the former American titleholder. The race will be decided in the best two in three heats.

Georgetti and Hopkins will ride their bicycles and will be motor paced by Jimmy Hunter and Charley Stein. Hopkins beat Georgetti in New York before thousands not long ago.

In another international match, Jimmy Walthour, New York youngster, will ride a mile match, the best two in three heats against Gerard Debaets, of Belgium, while Freddie Spencer, the American sprint champion, will hook up with Orlando Piani, Italy's premier sprinter, in a mile match, the best two in three heats.

A four cornered contest will bring together Otto Petri, Reggie McNamara, Klaas Van Nek, and Franz Duelberg. There will also be a half mile handicap and five mile open for professionals, while the amateurs will ride in a one hour team race and a half mile handicap.

N. U., MICHIGAN RENEW DUEL IN TANK TONIGHT

WALLY COLBATH.

Preliminaries will be held tonight in the annual western conference swimming championships in the Bartlett gymnasium tank of the University of Chicago.

Nine schools have entered 95 men in the nine events. The talent is the best ever to compete in this or any other college meet. Northwestern's team alone holds seven of the nine national intercollegiate records, and one of the band of stars, Al Schwartz, is proprietor of four of the records.

Despite all these records, the Purple may have difficulty in wresting the conference title from Michigan, for the Wolverines have another powerful squad. Conference rules allows one man to compete in only three events, including both relays. Michigan, with a more balanced squad, possibly will be able to score enough places to counteract the firsts Northwestern will amass.

Schwartz has been swimming in both relays and the 40, 100, and 440 yard free style events.

Four champions of last year are returning to defend their titles. Schwartz probably will swim in the 220, which he won last year. Garnet Ault and George Hubbell of Michigan will defend their titles in the 440 and 150 yard backstroke events, respectively, and Capt. Wally Colbath of Northwestern will face a strong field that will attempt to wrest his diving championship from him.

MAT MEET ON TODAY

Lafayette, Ind., March 14.—[Special.]—Leading wrestlers of the Western conference will go to the mat here at Purdue tomorrow afternoon in quest of championships in lightweight divisions. Entries from every school in the Big Ten have assured keen competition and the dual meet records of the outstanding contenders make picking the favorites a tossup.

Entrants in each weight will be nominated by the coaches tomorrow morning following completion of weighing in.

Four Olympic men—George and Hewitt of Michigan, Morrison of Illinois, and Scott of Indiana—are among the favorites. Lupton, Northwestern's captain, who is Big Ten and national intercollegiate champion at 125 pounds, however, will give Hewitt plenty to worry about.

JOYCE WETHERED, BACK ON GREENS, TO ENTER CLASSIC

LONDON, March 14.—(AP)—Miss Joyce Wethered will compete in the British women's gold championship at St. Andrews, beginning May 13, it was announced today.

After several years out of big competitions because she disliked the crowds and excitement of championship meetings, Miss Wethered, who is considered Britain's best woman player of all time, will form an unexpected obstacle to Miss Glenna Collett, Miss Maureen Orcutt and other American girls invading Britain this year with hopes of capturing the only major British golf title which has not at some time gone to the United States.

MISS WALL BEATEN BY MRS. STETSON IN SEMI-FINALS

Belleair, Fla., March 14.—(AP)—Mrs. G. Henry Stetson of Philadelphia, former women's national champion, defeated Miss Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, Wis., 2 and 1, today in the semi-finals of the annual Belleair women's golf championships.

Miss Jane Brooks of Nyack, N. Y., earned the right to meet Mrs. Stetson in the final tomorrow by eliminating Miss Pinkie Vahey of Boston, 6 and 5.

FOUR BALL GOLF TOURNEY IS WON BY HAGEN, DIEGEL

Miami, Fla., March 14.—(AP)—Walter Hagen, paired with Leo Diegel, won the annual international four ball match golf tournament today, defeating Gene Sarazen and Johnny Farrell, defending champions, one up.

Hagen won the last two holes of the final contest. The winners made a remarkable recovery from the tenth hole of the afternoon round, where they were three down.

DONOVAN CHOSEN 1930 CAGE PILOT AT NOTRE DAME

Notre Dame, Ind., March 14.—[Special.]—Clarence Donovan of Bedford, Ind., was elected captain of next year's Notre Dame basketball team here tonight at the annual Villagers' club banquet. Donovan plays guard and has been a member of the team two seasons.

Daniels, U. S. Diplomat, Wins Italian Golf Title

NORTH SECTION K. C. TITLE WON BY MARQUETTE

Setters Takes West Side Championship.

Marquette cagers defeated University, 22 to 14, to capture the North division championship of the Knights of Columbus basketball league last night at the Broadway armory. Hooker and Mehalek led the Marquette offense with five points each. The teams were tied for first place before last night's game.

Led by Rintleman, who scored seven points, the Setters defeated Hennepin, 15 to 12, and won the championship of the West section of the league on the same floor. Both teams played defensive basketball with neither having over a three point lead throughout the game. It was a playoff to decide the section championship, as both teams were tied.

Scoring half of his team's points, Dick Kraft led De Soto to a 24 to 12 victory over St. Cyrs to capture third place in the league. Lineup:

St. Mel Meets De La Salle in Tilt for Title

Catholic league fans will see two of the best heavyweight teams in league history in action tonight when St. Mel and De La Salle clash for the championship on the Loyola university floor. St. Mel won the championship in the north section of the league, while De La Salle captured the south division title. Both teams will play in the national Catholic interscholastic tournament at Loyola next week.

The St. Mel five was the only Chicago high school team to finish its season with an unbeaten record, piling up a string of 24 victories, including an early season 40 to 15 win over Crane Tech, winner of the city public school title. The team is coached by Paddy Driscoll, who also tutored the St. Mel team which won the national Catholic title in 1925.

De La Salle did not suffer defeat until last Sunday, when they were vanquished, 21 to 17, by De La Salle of Joliet, last year's national titleholder. Ed Krause, guard, led the Catholic league in individual scoring with 76 points. Lineup:

ST. MEL.		DE LA SALLE
Lassey	R. F.	Bramhall
P. Krause	L. F.	Johnson
Hoer	C.	Colbert
E. Krause	R. G.	McGuff

Entomological Golfer Should Like This Show

Ignoring the fact the booth of the greens section of the United States Golf association at the golf show in the Hotel Sherman has nothing to sell, the display of grasses, their friends and enemies, should interest every golfer who likes perfect putting surfaces.

The display ranges from seeds of the various bents, through pots of the grasses, to the bugs and grubs that damage greens, brown patch, and fertilizers. The bent seeds are arranged under a microscope, the tiny seeds much resembling oats when magnified.

Another microscope shows the tiny fungi which cause brown patch, the disease that ruins many fine greens, while bottles and cases contain the various grubs and beetles that work havoc on the smooth putting surfaces.

As the show approches its close tomorrow night, the several tournaments are working through the brackets to the final. The winner of the championship on the "Blue River" in door course will be decided tonight, and tomorrow night will play Jack Forrester, who won a similar championship at the New York show a couple of weeks ago.

Fields Settles Down to Work for Thompson Go

Jackie Fields, the clever California welterweight, who meets Jack Thompson in the windup of Promoter James C. Mullen's boxing show at the Coliseum, March 25, settled down to active training at the Barry gymnasium yesterday. Thompson is working at the Arcade. Promoter Mullen is arranging the supporting card. He will announce it in a few days.

Blackhawks and Rangers Play 1-1 Tie

New York, March 14.—(AP)—The Chicago Blackhawks, tailenders of the National Hockey league, put a successful end on a poor season here tonight by holding the world's champion New York Rangers to a 1 to 1 tie. The Hawks outplayed the Rangers most of the time, but could not score after the first five minutes.

Earl Miller, speedy Chicago wingman, put the cellar champions ahead early in the first period, coming from behind the goal to score after catching Roach asleep. Another brilliant play by Murray Murdoch of the Rangers tied the score near the end of the second frame. He broke through the Chicago defense, feinted Gardiner out of the net and put in an easy shot.

The lineup and summaries:

RANGERS.		CHICAGO.
Roach	Goal	Gardiner
Abel	R. D.	Taylor
Bourgault	L. D.	Wentworth
Boucher	C.	Couture
Bill Cook	R. W.	March
Bun Cook	L. W.	Miller

Tommy Loughran arrived here yesterday with Manager Joe Smith and Trainer Jack Brady and started training at once for his fight with Mickey Walker for the world's light heavyweight championship at the Chicago stadium on March 28. Following the arrival of Loughran, Paddy Harmon immediately telegraphed to Walker and to Tuffy Griffiths and Leo Lomski, who will battle ten rounds on the same card, instructing them to come here at once.

Jack Kearns, manager of Walker, answered Harmon with a wire to the effect that he would arrive from New York today and that Teddy Hayes would bring Walker on the early part of next week. Jack O'Keefe telegraphed from Hot Springs, Ark., that Griffiths has been doing road work there and that they would leave today for Chicago.

The ticket reservations passed the $60,000 mark yesterday and Harmon is now confident that the receipts will be the highest ever grossed for an indoor boxing contest. The downtown ticket office of the stadium will be opened at 78 West Madison street today.

Loughran and his party went to the Hotel Sherman yesterday. "Doc" Darwent has been urging Tommy to do his work at the Chicago Athletic association. Harmon would also like to get the champion to work out at the Barry and Arcade gyms so that the general public also can see him.

Work is being rushed to completion at the stadium. Seats are being put in and Harmon asserts that there is no possibility of a postponement. A letter was sent by Eric E. Hall, architect for the stadium, to Harold C. Strotz, chairman of the board of directors, stating that no attention should be paid to reports that the building will not be in shape for March 28.

Owner of Death Car Donates to Fund for Widow

Daytona Beach, Fla., March 14.—(AP)—J. M. White, owner of the Triplex racer in which Lee Bible was killed yesterday in his attempt to establish a new speed record, today donated $400 to a fund being raised for the driver's widow. White also agreed to pay all Bible's funeral expenses, as well as to turn over to Mrs. Bible the proceeds from the sale of the wrecked car.

It was announced that prior to the sale of the Triplex, the wreck would be put on exhibition, the admission fees to be turned over to Bible's widow.

SPEED RECORD SAFE, SEGRAVE QUITS RACING

Plans to Devote Time to Cement Business.

Daytona Beach, Fla., March 14.—(AP)—Maj. H. O. D. Segrave, British racing driver, who set a new world's speed record of 231.36 miles an hour here this week, today declared he definitely had retired from automobile racing.

Maj. Segrave said he will return to England after competing in the Biscayne Bay regatta at Miami next week and will devote himself to the cement business. He will continue to engage in power boat racing as a hobby.

The Golden Arrow, specially designed for super speed racing, will be taken to New York for exhibition before it is transported to England to be placed in a museum.

The Englishman's declaration cleared up speculation as to his future intentions. After setting the new record last Monday, Maj. Segrave announced he would quit, but later he said he would try to race his car to its maximum theoretical speed, 240 miles per hour. He had intended doing this yesterday, but cancelled the trials after Lee Bible's tragic death in the triplex. At that time, he declared he "was through," and the international speed trials accordingly were officially ended.

Today the major said he had lifted the record to a place where he believed it would remain for several years, and that he would retire from the competition.

CHARGE COUNTY'S GAS TAX FIGHT IS MISREPRESENTED

Motor Club Says Downstate Twists Motives.

BY PUTNEY HAIGHT.

Misrepresentation, deliberate or otherwise, of the motive for Cook county's opposition to the Emmerson 3 cent gas tax has been employed by downstate members of the assembly to line up the support which has carried the measure through the senate and thus far through the house, unscathed by amendment, it is charged by Chicago Motor club officials.

Under the leadership of Representative Homer J. Tice, who introduced the house bill and now espouses the cause of the measure passed by the senate, the lower house was repeatedly informed that amendments were being offered for the purpose of forcing the state to abandon all downstate bond issue road work and to confine its efforts to Cook county alone. Not only did Mr. Tice venture this intimation, but Representatives Frank E. McCarthy of Elgin and Leroy M. Green of Rockford, in their defense of the bill, pointed out that in reality Cook county is to receive overwhelming benefits from the Emmerson tax law.

Igoe Sets Them Right.

Representative Michael Igoe, minority whip and leader of the offensive against the bill, clearly stated the position of his coterie. He said that in the matter of road widening Cook county will get nothing under the program contained in the appropriation section of the bill.

"So far as widening work is concerned," Mr. Igoe said, "Cook county has gone ahead with its own widening, at its own expense, and with little or no help from the state, so far as Cook county territory is concerned."

"I understand," Mr. McCarthy said, "that the highway department intends to build 267 miles of roads in Cook county or its area during the biennium to finish up the state system in the county. It also proposes to spend $9,000,000 or more in road widening in Cook county."

No Provision in Bill.

Mr. Igoe responded with the assertion that no provision for $9,000,000 for widening in Cook county is contained in the bill and that no definite promise of completion of the bond issue roads in the county rests in the appropriation section."

"In asking for a fifty-fifty division of the proposed gas tax," Charles M. Hayes, president of the motor club, said, "and a time limit on the tax law, we are simply seeking a fair deal for urban motorists in all parts of Illinois.

"This county will pay 50 per cent of the gas tax and will get back 3.68 per cent of state highway expenditures—if the state builds the roads provided by law. Our most important interest now is to get the state to widen its highways outside Cook county and not in it."

HIS SWEETHEART PLAYS GUN CADDY FOR THIS BANDIT

An authentic type of the bandit's sweetheart as portrayed in the movies was discovered last night by Police Sergeant Ernest Sloey when he arrested Nancy Reniger, 16 years old, 113 South Aberdeen street, in company with Herbert Stillwell, 17 years old, 3603 West Grand avenue.

Nancy carried in her purse a .32 caliber pistol which Herbert used when necessary but which the police would be unlikely to find if they arrested the couple. Nancy and Herbert were in a car which the records revealed was stolen two weeks ago. Herbert was booked on several charges of robbery and burglary and Nancy was held as his accomplice. She admitted playing his lookout while her purse was his arsenal.

No Features—but Plenty of Syncopation.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

There were no great symphonies, string quartets, choral concerts, special features, or vocal or instrumental recitals of length on the air last night, but there was dance music and lots of it; nice songs and nice singing in solo, duet and quartet; many lighter selection by studio concert orchestras, also guitar numbers, solo and duet, and so on.

But at that, I want to assure the promotors of the W-G-N, 9:30 to 10, orchestral and vocal concert, that their musical program last evening was of the required standard to meet the approval of this column in all respects, that is: program, presentation and announcing.

While yet on W-G-N's wave length, it occurred to me that many listeners might want to know the name of the rich and beautiful first number played on the 11 o'clock Dream Ship program. It was "Reverie," an orchestral arrangement of one of Vieuxtemps' airs for violin. If a symphony of this entrancing beauty could be composed, which would require about an hour for performance, it certainly would become a favorite for all time.

In connection with the musically excellent and instructive weekly brass ensemble concert through WMAQ, 9 to 9:30, I must regretfully state that, in my opinion, the entertainment qualities of this concert are badly marred by the announcer's sing-song style of speaking.

The American farm bureau broadcast through WLS, 10 to 10:30, was of special interest to farmers.

Woman Held in Baby Death Case Faces Sterilization

St. Joseph, Mich., March 14.—An order signed today by Sheriff Fred Bryant recommended to Judge of Probate W. H. Andrews at a hearing tomorrow that Mrs. Ethel Lewis, 49, Eau Claire, Mich., in Berrien county jail since Feb. 12 on first degree murder charges, be sterilized and released. A sanity commission last week, examining Mrs. Lewis and her daughter, Mrs. Oakel Gorham, 25, found the mother feeble minded and Oakel insane. Oakel is to be sent to the Kalamazoo insane asylum.

GIRL SLAYER IS TAKEN TO PRISON; MAKES 2 TRIPS

Miss Florence Stokes, diminutive red headed slayer of her sweetheart, had to make two trips to the Joliet penitentiary yesterday before she was accepted as a prisoner. Her first trip was in the middle of a platoon of thirty hard boiled prisoners, who were charged with crimes of murder, robbery and burglary.

Miss Stokes was rejected by the penitentiary officials on her first trip because of the fact that the commitment papers were not in proper form. A clerk failed to sign the name of John H. Passmore, clerk of the Criminal court, to the mittimus. The girl prisoner was brought back to Chicago, the papers corrected, and she was then taken on her second trip.

The girl shot and killed James Glennon, a street car conductor, two years ago because he had spurned her affections, according to the testimony at the trial. She was convicted of manslaughter, which carries an indeterminate penalty of 1 to 14 years. The Supreme court after months of deliberation affirmed the sentence.

GOVERNOR GETS INSANE HOSPITAL PROGRAM TODAY

The $40,000,000 program to solve the problem of hospitalization of the insane and feeble minded in Illinois will be submitted to Gov. Emmerson today by members of a committee of Chicago doctors and jurists who perfected the plan. The committee, composed of Probate Judge Henry Horner, Judge Mary M. Bartelme of the Juvenile court, Dr Douglass Singer, president of the Illinois Society of Mental Hygiene, and Dr. Charles Read, a member of the society, left for Springfield yesterday.

The committee approves a ten year program making provision for approximately 6,000 mentally diseased, and 1,000 feeble minded persons now housed above the capacity of existing institutions. A contemplated increase of 5,750 persons is provided.

Under the program $20,000,000 is to be spent this year in remedying present conditions and $5,000,000 every two years to meet the estimated increase until 1939.

SWITCHMAN FALLS UNDER TRAIN.

GIFT TO PROVIDE MORE FACILITIES FOR RECREATION

Expansion of recreational programs for women and girls in Chicago's parks and playgrounds, and in some cases the purchase of additional land for recreational purposes, will be made possible through a gift by Mrs. Catherine Barker Spaulding, it was learned last night at the Spaulding hotel, Michigan City, where Mrs. Spaulding is now residing.

The gift is to be made in the form of a memorial to Mrs. Spaulding's mother, the late Katherine Fitzgerald Barker.

An adviser in the manner in which the gift is to be distributed, Miss Ethel Bowers, formerly professor of physical education at Brenau college, Gainsville, Ga., has been selected for Mrs. Spaulding by the Playground and Recreation Association of America. Miss Bowers, after conferring with Mrs. Spaulding in Michigan City, came to Chicago last night. She will start immediately investigating conditions of playgrounds and parks of various communities, with a view to improving their present activities.

Interment will be in Calvary cemetery. Mrs. Musham, who was born in Chicago and lived here all her life, was the daughter of Michael McFadden, early settler who came to Chicago in 1840, and was the widow of William H. Musham, once chief of the city fire department, who died in 1907. Three sons and two daughters survive.

Notables Attend Funeral of Frederick E. Erickson

Political friends and foes rode yesterday in the funeral cortége of Frederick E. Erickson, Republican leader for forty years, who was buried in Oakridge cemetery from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry A. Ash, 1418 Elmdale avenue, where he died on Monday of pneumonia. He was 61 years old. Among the mourners were ex-Gov. Len Small, Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom, whom Mr. Erickson first sponsored in politics; Louis Nettelhorst and John W. Gibson, members of the Cook county board, on which the deceased once served; Thomas Houston, president of the civil service commission, and Police Commissioner William F. Russell. Mr. Erickson is survived by his widow, Dora, and a daughter.

PROFIT TAKING CAUSES DROP IN WHEAT MARKET

Corn, Rye Lose Ground; Oats Unchanged.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Longs took advantage of unfavorable crop reports on winter wheat from the southwest to secure profits yesterday, and while there was an advance of ⅛@1⅛ cents early, the finish was within a fraction of the bottom with net losses of ⅛@⅜ of a cent, with March showing the most strength. The latter finished at $1.25¼, with May $1.29⅝ and July $1.31⅞. The May-July spread narrowed to 2⅛ cents at one time, against 3 cents recently, as the result of free selling of the July against purchases of May by local operators. Another set of locals did the reverse.

Corn was dull and at no time were prices above the finish of the previous day, the finish being at the bottom with losses of ⅝@¾ cent, March closing at 95½ cents and May at 99⅛ cents. Oats were unchanged to ¼ cent lower, with March 41¼@41⅜ cents and May at 49½ cents. Rye lost ⅛@1⅞ cents with March leading, the latter being $1.08⅝ at the last and May $1.10⅝.

Claim Crop Damage.

There has been a steady increase in the number of reports intimating that the new winter wheat crop has been damaged. The reports come mainly from Kansas, Nebraska, and parts of Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio, and partial confirmation of losses was secured in the Kansas weekly summary, which said high winds had caused considerable damage in southwestern and extreme western counties in that state. There was no rain of consequence in the southwest overnight and generally fair and colder weather was forecast. Floods were said to have caused some damage in parts of Nebraska.

In some instances local observers are now making efforts to express the prospective damage to wheat in percentages, but the general tendency is to go a little slow in this respect until the effect of growing weather can be more fully determined. George C. Bryant estimated that the loss in acreage in Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio would be about normal for the three states. It is expected that crop experts will start for the southwest shortly to examine the crop.

Winnipeg wheat was easy and closed ¼@⅞ cent lower, while Liverpool was off ¼@⅝d, and Buenos Aires was unchanged. Export demand at the seaboard was limited. India appears to have overbought, and London cabled that several cargoes were offered for resale by that country.

Corn Market Easier.

With outside markets continuing to sell cash corn to come here the local element has turned to the bear side and scattered selling was sufficient to make a lower range. Support was slow in developing. Trade in the aggregate was light. Local handlers bought 10,000 bu to come here from an outside terminal and 20,000 bu from the country. The spot basis was ½ cent higher to ½ cent lower. Weather conditions in Argentina were unfavorable for conditioning the new crop. Buenos Aires finished unchanged to ½ cent lower.

Trade in oats was light and the market easier in sympathy with corn. March rye is easily influenced, and that delivery declined rather sharply, due more to lack of support than to any material selling pressure.

PROFIT TAKING IN LARD

A break of 15c to 35c in hogs yesterday with less support from the general trade that has been active on the buying side of late weakened values for lard and meats and the former closed 5c lower with bellies 2½c lower and ribs neglected at 2½c decline. Trading in all was lighter and apparently some of the recent buyers were more disposed to take profits than to take on larger supplies. Lard in Liverpool was unchanged to 4½d lower and American cut hams there higher.

Shipments of lard and meats from Chicago were larger than a year ago. Despite the small receipts of hogs as compared with a week and a year ago prices declined and closed around the inside, yet they are out of line as compared with product.

Lard stocks in cold storage at leading points throughout the country on March 1 as given by the department of agriculture were 174,768,000 lbs, against 140,526,000 lbs Feb. 1, and 121,092,000 lbs March 1 last year. Stocks of all pork and meat products were larger than the previous week and last year. Prices follow:

ATTERBURY SAYS STEAM POWER IS STILL BASIC

Boston, Mass., March 14.—(AP)—General W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, speaking before the Boston chamber of commerce today, said that although railroad service in the United States now is the most dependable the country has ever experienced, railroads must continue to plan at least a decade ahead of general industrial progress in order to provide adequate facilities.

Referring to the electrification project of the Pennsylvania, Gen. Atterbury said that "it must not be thought that extension of electrified railroad lines implies that the days of steam transportation are ended." On the contrary, he said, steam power is basic to railroad operation, and electrification will supplement and not supplant it.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

Conflicting reports on the wheat crop from the southwest are the center of attraction for the time being and will be until the season is sufficiently advanced to fully determine what crop conditions really are. The southwest sent more unfavorable reports yesterday than on any previous day and presumably they were backed with a fair number of buying orders. The disposition to take profits on all sharp bulges and to buy on the breaks are dominating factors for the time being.

Outside interest in corn is light and trade sentiment in the pit is mixed. The unfavorable cash situation checks new buying and encourages selling of futures whenever there is evidence of weakness, while breaks run into supporting orders and the prices fluctuate as a result of an over bought or oversold pit situation, with no disposition on the part of the public to enter the market on a large scale.

A factor that some traders believe will be important later is the report on farm reserves in Nebraska which are 74,000,000 bu, against 138,000,000 bu last year. About 35 per cent of the crop is shipped out of the country yearly. Western Nebraska is said to be shipping corn to the Pacific coast, while eastern sections are moving it to Missouri river markets, where at present there are liberal supplies. With the latter absorbed later in the season and an opening up of the southeastern trade, cash handlers there are understood to be moderately bullish.

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

Foreigners are taking little interest in North American grain, and sales at the seaboard were limited. Local handlers sold 2,000 bu wheat; 54,000 bu corn, and 57,000 bu oats to the domestic trade. Deliveries on March contracts were 103,000 bu wheat, 10,000 bu corn and 15,000 bu rye.

BUTTER AND EGGS ADVANCE

Recent weather conditions were regarded by the trade as unfavorable for the movement of butter and eggs, and prices on the Chicago Mercantile exchange averaged higher. March butter had a range of ½c and closed ⅛c higher at 47⅛c. Butter make of the American association for the week of 4,941,000 lbs was about the same as the previous week, but nearly 4 per cent in excess of last year, while the Land o' Lakes creameries produced 1,465,000 lbs, off about 1 per cent from the previous week but nearly 8 per cent more than last year. Sales were 37 cars and receipts 7,202 tubs.

Fresh gathered March eggs gained ¼c for the day, closing at 27⅝c, while April, old, finished at 29c, gaining ¼c, and November refrigerators, old, were up a like amount at 31⅛c. Sales were 94 cars and receipts 16,464 cases.

Attention Manufacturers

Desiring direct representation in the Middle West

An Illinois corporation, 17 years in business with highest rating in Dun's, selling a product direct to the larger industrial concerns in the Middle West, through a large force of salesmen, will consider adding a product of merit that can be sold to industrial trade. Our selling season is the eight summer months. We especially desire a product salable in the winter months, or if it will fit in with our line, the entire year. Accounts carried, if necessary. TRADING IS STEADY IN WOOLEN GOODS

New York, March 14.—(AP)—Cotton goods held steady today with demand of seasonable proportions. Printed goods were very active. Raw silk was fairly steady and buying light.

The low end of silk merchandise was irregular in value, due to surplus offerings from small weaving plants. Trading in wool goods was steady. Worsted dress fabrics for fall will be opened on March 19, following the opening of the wool fashion show here. Burlaps were quiet.

Cotton Consumption Large, Yet Easterners Sell Freely

Two features stood out in the cotton market yesterday, all having effect, yet none predominated except for a time. Consumption during February of 598,098 bales were the largest for that month on record. They compared with 668,389 bales in January, with three more days, and with 572,875 bales in February last year. This, coupled with other factors, was considered as sufficient to make a bull market. But an apparent change of front on the part of large New York operators who were credited with selling May in that market checked the upward tendency in values. It was surprisingly well taken, however, and the market in all gave a good account of itself.

Stocks in consumers hands March 1 were 1,746,537 bales against 1,668,649 bales last year. In public stores and compresses, 3,876,215 bales, against 4,313,843 bales last year. Prices follow:

BY AL CHASE.

The Irving-Damen Building corporation has bought the southeast corner of Irving Park boulevard and Damen avenue, 125x123, from Henry Mawicke and is having plans drawn by Thomas Bishop & Son for a three story building to contain thirty-six apartments, ten offices and seven stores. The flats contain 1½, 2, 3 and 4 rooms each. An indicated $125,000 was paid for the site. The Garard Trust company is assisting in the financing of the property, which is reported to have a total value of $450,000. Mr. Mawicke, the seller, is head of the owning corporation.

The General Laundry Machinery corporation has leased from the Kewanee Boiler company the two story building at the northeast corner of Washington and Green, 100x100, for fifteen years at a reported term rental of $210,000, through Hart & Whetson. The lessee will move its general offices here from New York and Philadelphia and also will use the building just leased for sales and display rooms. The Kewanee Boiler company is moving its salesrooms and offices to its factory at 19th street and South Western avenue.

Buy Palatine Acres.

George G. Dewey of James H. Oliphant & Co., brokers, and J. Arnold Scudder yesterday bought 157¼ acres in Palatine township from Mabel Johnston Wakem and the estate of J. Wallace Wakem for an undisclosed consideration. The property was purchased in three parcels, of which forty acres are located at the northwest corner of Roselle and Palatine roads, seventy-seven and a half adjoining this immediately to the west, and forty acres at the southwest corner of Palatine and Roselle.

The property, which is west of the town of Palatine, is immediately to the south of the Meadow Grove Golf club. It is rolling and wooded and the northern section has a fine old house on it.

Forty-five flats at 6811 Paxton avenue, lot 46x189 feet, have been sold by Louis Cole and Isadore Shandeling to Ethel W. Downs for an undisclosed consideration, subject to $160,000.

Buys 30 Acres for Subdivision.

Percy Wilson & Co. have bought a thirty acre tract at the southeast corner of 159th street and Halsted, just outside the city limits of Harvey, from Henry Meyer at a reported $2,000 per acre and will subdivide it for business and residential purposes. The property just acquired adjoins on the east thirty acres purchased two months ago by Mr. Wilson. J. Alton Lauren & Co. were brokers.

BROKERS' LOANS SHRINK LITTLE IN CREDIT WASH

BY O. A. MATHER.

For the first time in several weeks stock market speculators yesterday ignored those twin bogies, the weekly report on brokers' loans and the weekly meeting of the directors of the New York Federal Reserve bank. They expected good news, they got it, and they bulled the market.

After the market closed the New York reserve bank announced no change in its 5 per cent rediscount rate and the federal reserve board announced a decrease of $20,000,000 in brokers' loans in the last week. It was expected the New York bank would make no change, inasmuch as the Boston bank and the Bank of England made no changes in their rediscount rates on Wednesday. The brokers' loan report was more cheerful than had been anticipated, in view of preparations for federal tax payments and payment on the new stock of the Radio corporation.

Current Total.

Loans to brokers and dealers in securities by the New York member banks now stand at $5,627,000,000, which is $42,000,000 below the peak established on Feb. 6, at the time when the reserve board issued its celebrated warning against the use of reserve credit for speculative purposes. The current total, however, is $1,881,000,000 above a year ago.

If the reserve board's desire was merely to check further expansion of speculative credit it has met with mild success. However, the shrinkage in five weeks has been less than one per cent. It would seem that the banks have used their own judgment about following the reserve board's warning, while corporations and other lenders, over whom the reserve board has no authority, have ignored it.

For the first time since data on brokers' loans have been published, big corporations and other lenders now are furnishing more than half of the total. Such lenders are putting $2,862,000,000 into the call money market, making an increase of $39,000,000 in the last week and of $1,652,000,000 in the last year. The interior banks are lending $54,000,000 more than a week ago and $315,000,000 more than a year ago. On the other hand, the New York banks reduced their own loans by $113,000,000 this year and are lending $86,000,000 less than a year ago.

The weekly statement of the federal reserve system, also issued last night, shows that borrowings of the member banks declined $33,549,000 in the last week, with the total now standing at $[illegible]55,623,000.

Holdings Decline.

Holdings of bankers' acceptances declined $21,543,000 but government securities increased $2,333,000. Deposits receded $5,759,000 and note circulation dropped $16,558,000. Gold and total reserves increased $17,288,000 and $24,[illegible]37,000, respectively. The ratio of reserves to liabilities rose to 70.7 from [illegible]7.7 per cent a week ago.

The improvement in the system's position appears to have resulted chiefly from the changes in the New York district. There loans declined $6,890,000, and acceptances remained about stationary. Desposits expanded $4,588,000. Reserves increased $37,[illegible]61,000 and the reserve ratio rose to [illegible] from 77.3 per cent last week. At Chicago, loans expanded $4,498,000 but acceptances declined $5,767,000. Deposits held about stationary. Reserves declined $5,475,000 and the reserve ratio eased to 62.1 per cent, compared with 62.6 per cent a week ago.

Outstanding bankers' acceptances totaled $1,228,027,796 on Feb. 28, a decline of $51,243,367 from Jan. 31, but an increase of $171,638,014 over a year ago, according to the American Acceptance council. The current decline is described as a normal seasonal reduction.

Chicago Postal Revenues Are Business Barometer

BY SCRUTATOR.

Just how far the postal revenues can be accepted as a barometer of general business conditions is problematical. But if the Chicago receipts in February are taken as an indicator, 1929 is going to see more activity than 1928—at least in the early months.

In the entire year 1928 there was a falling off in the amount of business done by the postoffice here from 1927. The decline, however, was only in money. The pounds handled in 1927 were 827,293,539 and in 1928 they were 844,066,711 pounds. Losses were due to decreases in postal rates in several classes.

Incidentally, 1928 was the first year since 1921 when a money gain over the preceding year was not shown. It should be remembered that 1921 was a time of severe depression. It was preceded in 1920 by a gaining year and in 1922 there was another gain of about 9 per cent in postal revenue in Chicago.

Revenues Gain.

January, 1929, found the revenues about nine-tenths of 1 per cent under those of January, 1928, although poundage was larger. But February, despite the lowering of rates and the fact that there was one business day less in the month, showed a gain of one and a half per cent in money over the same month in 1928.

How Chicago has grown as a postal center in the last three decades is shown by the stamp sales. In 1905, when the present federal building was occupied, the total was about 12 million dollars. Ten years earlier it was only 5 millions. By 1921, when Arthur C. Lueder became postmaster, the mark was 42 millions and in 1927 this had risen to 62 millions.

Postal officials see in the figures a reflection of Chicago's growth, particularly until the last year or two. They reason that big mailings mean big business. Recently there have been complicating factors, however, that tend to slow down the rate of increase. One is the tinkering with the rates and another the policy of the great mail order houses to decentralize.

Money Orders Decrease.

The mail orders are still tremendous, but the extension of the chain store systems belonging to the larger firms duobtless has prevented them growing far more. To some extent this is evidenced by the postal money orders cashed. The Chicago postoffice paid out nearly 224 million dollars in 1927 for such orders and about 210 millions in 1928. But this criterion, it has been pointed out, can hardly be accepted as accurate, because the use of checking facilities has grown greatly.

Chicago still holds the distinction of originating more parcel post than any other city. Postmaster General New several months ago announced that while New York sent out 66 cars a day and Philadelphia 32 cars, Chicago's daily average was 90 cars. As for first class mail, the total number of letters sent out in 1928 was 1,648,908,540, an increase of about 60 million over 1927.

Postal authorities regarded last year as one of only normal activity, both here and nationally, unmarked either by depressive influence or by anything like a boom. They profess to see in the February business a trend toward stronger conditions.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 14.—A statement by Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon that this was an opportune time for the prudent investor to buy bonds attracted widespread attention in financial circles here today. Mr. Mellon gave as the reasons for forming this opinion the slowness in the bond market, the comparative low prices and relative high yields of this form of security and the fact that it was easier to select a sound bond than a sound stock.

"This does not mean," said Mr. Mellong, "that many stocks are not good investments. Some, however, are too high in price to be good buys. For prudent investors, I would say that now is the time to buy good bonds."

First Direct Advice.

This is the first time that Mr. Mellon since becoming secretary of the treasury has given such direct advice to investors and the interest shown in his remarks was intensified by the fact that he is chairman ex-officio of the federal reserve board, which has declared warfare against the excessive use of federal reserve system credit for speculative activities on the stock exchange.

Mr. Mellon was asked whether buying bonds on a considerable scale would not take money out of the stock market and indicated a belief that it was doubtful that it would have any appreciable effect on speculative activities.

Follows Conference.

Mr. Mellon's statement came at a time when operations for the advance were being carried on in the stock market regardless of the warning statements by the federal reserve board, and the fact that on Monday it had been emphatically denied in behalf of Mr. Mellon that he was endeavoring to bring about a reversal of the reserve board's policy of restricting the use of reserve system credit for speculative purposes.

The statement today followed an extensive conference yesterday with President Hoover, but there was no information as to whether speculation and the credit situation were discussed by them.

New York, March 14.—Bull forces were in complete control of the situation on the stock market today and sharp recoveries occurred throughout the list. The advance reached the stage of downright violence in some directions, particularly among the specialties. Radio, for instance, made the veterans of last autumn's record breaking bull market sit up and take notice by whirling up nearly 34 points to a new high of 501.

The steels were bought in large blocks and the motors and some of the oils were in heavy demand from start to finish. Copper shares maintained

CHICAGO STOCKS GAIN; MERGER OF Q. R. S. NEARS

Bendix Shares in Gains of 6 7-8 Points.

BY GEORGE HAMMOND.

Prices shot up in Chicago stock trading yesterday under the stimulus of the failure of the Federal Reserve bank of New York to raise its rediscount rate and expectations of the drop in brokers' loans which was reported after the close. Net gains ranged up to seven points, with nearly the entire list participating.

In the general list Q. R. S. sold up a point. The company manufactures movie cameras and player piano rolls and will announce today the acquisition of the De Vry corporation, 1111 Center street, maker of moving picture cameras, projectors, printing machines for duplicating films and various accessories.

Enhances Position.

The new company will probably be called the Q. R. S.-De Vry corporation, according to Herman A. De Vry, president of the concern bearing his name. The acquisition will enhance the position of the Q. R. S. business in the motion picture camera field because of patents held by the De Vry company on new types of talkie-movie projectors, including those for home use. A contract for 1,200 movietone projectors has just been signed by the Western Electric company, according to Mr. De Vry, and negotiations are now under way for the signing of another contract which he says will be the biggest ever made in the movie camera field.

The merger will result in valuable rights to stockholders of the Q. R. S. company, it is understood, and a recapitulation plan to handle the expansion is to be submitted to stockholders at a meeting to be called today. An interchange of stock for the stockholders of the De Vry concern will be part of the plan.

Earnings for Year.

Minneapolis-Honeywell, manufacturer of regulating devices for heating plants, climbed 7 points on reports that business is considerably ahead of that for the same time last year. Reports that Vincent Bendix, who is in New York, is negotiating for a merger of Bendix corporation with Stromberg Carburetor brought a gain of 6⅞ to the Bendix stock. Other advances in the automotive list included Winton Engine, up 4¼, and Borg-Warner, 2½ higher.

Allied Products, automotive accessory manufacturer, sold up 2¼. The company's first annual report was issued last night and shows net earnings of $794,449 after all charges and federal taxes. This is equal to $15.88 a share on the 50,000 shares of class "A" stock outstanding. After payment of class "A" dividends of $3.50 a share annually, the remainder available for dividends on the 75,000 shares of common stock outstanding is equivalent to $8.25 a share.

Initial Payment.

Unit corporation sold a fraction higher. Sales for the first two months of 1929 were reported yesterday at $693,712, against $472,104 a year ago.

Inland Wire and Cable, the stockholders of which recently voted to sell the company to the Anaconda Wire and Cable company, subsidiary of Anaconda Copper, advanced 3 points. The company's annual report for 1928, issued yesterday shows net income of $685,561, equal to $6.67 a share on the 102,800 shares outstanding, against $524,882, or $5.12 a share, on 102,500 shares in 1927.

TAPLIN SCORES POINT FOR 5TH TRAFFIC ROUTE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 14.—While the ultimate disposition of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad is still obscure under the interstate commerce commission's order commanding the Nickel Plate to rid itself of its holdings in the smaller road, it is believed in some quarters that the commission's order has permitted F. E. Taplin, president of the Pittsburgh and West Virginia, to score a point in favor of his proposal to create a fifth traffic route in competition with the four large eastern trunk systems.

Still pending in the commission is the petition of the Pittsburgh and West Virginia for leave to take over the Wheeling. This application is part of Mr. Taplin's plan for linking his road with the Wheeling and with the Western Maryland to make an independent traffic route from the great lakes to tidewater.

The commission's unexpected ruling that the traffic which might possibly be diverted from the Wheeling to the three trunk lines "falls far short of being the true measure of the value of the Wheeling as a competing line" has suggested that this road will either remain entirely independent or be linked with some fifth route like that offered by the Pittsburgh and West Virginia.

The Alleghany corporation, the $180,000,000 investment company recently formed by O. P. and M. J. Van Swearingen, may assume full control of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, if it has not already done so, it was said in informed circles today.

The New York Central considers the decision of the commission without significance in respect to its affairs by reason of the fact that it sold its Wheeling stock to the Alleghany corporation last week. The Baltimore and Ohio also sold its Wheeling stock to the corporation and it is understood the B. & O. takes the same attitude toward the order that the New York Central has assumed.

National Distillers Products.

O. J. D.—A profitable December quarter brought the 1928 earnings of National Distillers Products corporation up to $5.43 per share on the preferred stock, against 55 cents in 1927.

Better markets for alcohol give reason to look for further improvement. Manufacture of glycerin and acquisition of an interest in solid carbon dioxide, a new refrigerant, by the subsidiary jointly owned with E. I. du Pont de Nemours have promise.

Net profit, after interest and depreciation, was $585,105 last year, compared with $58,974 in 1927.

Small receipts boosted cattle prices slightly, while hogs and lambs suffered drastic price cuts, the latter closing 50@75c below the opening price levels yesterday. Activity featured the hog market after a 25@35c lower price basis had been established and most of the 8,000 left were held off the market in hopes of a mild "come-back" today.

Extreme top and general average prices declined 30c at $11.70 and $11.35 respectively. Larger packers bought ly at the reduction, the Armour, Swift and Wilson houses taking 6,500 at $11.25@11.35 mostly. Small packers bought 9,200 and shippers, 5,000. Only 900 directs arrived.

Sell Quickly.

Steers sold quickly at stronger prices, with instances of 15@25c gain considering quality of offerings. Fancy light weights were absent and the best in load lots averaged 1,313@ lbs. at $14.00. Seven good 1,024 lb yearlings reached $14.25, although the trade agrees that fancy baby beef steers would sell readily at $15.00 if they were available. Bulk of steers sold at $12.00@13.75, against $11.60@ the previous Friday.

A sensational advance that carried veal calves to a new high of $21.00 and an equally sharp break in the afternoon were features in the cattle trade. Some late sales were as much as $1.00@1.50 below the high point of the morning. Butcher stock ruled strong, heifers averaging 645 lbs selling at $13.35. Stockers and feeders are in brisk demand at prices $1,00@1.25 above three weeks ago, desirable light weights going countryward at $12.50@13.00. Some feeders averaging 1,000 lbs. went to West Virginia at $13.00.

Lambs Slump 50@75c.

Following a firm opening on speculative account yesterday, the lamb market broke fully 50@75c, bulk of the supply selling on afternoon rounds at $17.00 and below. One of the larger houses obtained 2,000 lambs at $16.50@16.75 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

A scattering to yard traders and shippers during the forenoon reached $17.60@17.85, equaling the highest sales of the season. Choice 92 lb shorn lambs brought $15.75 at the finish. Aged and yearling sheep were scarce and 25@35c higher, light ewes selling to $11.00. Feeder and shearing lambs were in demand at strong prices.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 2,000 cattle, 17,000 hogs, and 8,000 sheep, against 2,249 cattle, hogs, and 11.208 sheep the previous Friday, and 1,408 cattle, 35,544 hogs and 5,456 sheep a year ago.

MITCHELL SEES POOR MART FOR GERMAN BONDS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 14.—Charles E. Mitchell, president of the National City bank, declared today that American money market conditions are at present highly unfavorable for the flotation of German reparations bonds in this country, and that conditions will not be favorable for the flotation of a volume of German or any other bonds until there is a marked easing of the money market.

Mr. Mitchell's interview was given to the A. B. A. News Service. In it, Mr. Mitchell expressed the view that easy money is the desideratum in the present situation. It would add stabilization to the stock market, it would effectively rebuild a bond market, it would result in the withdrawal of funds of "others," which have been attracted to the call market by high rates for money and for such funds a measure into direct security investment, he said.

So far as he is concerned, Mr. Mitchell's expressed views contradict reports that leading bankers were advocating high money as a preliminary step in the preparation of the American money market for the flotation of reparation bonds. The views were expressed in connection with the present tendency towards preference for stocks over bonds on the part of American investors. Mr. Mitchell attributed this preference to the desire of the American investor to have a share in the equity and potential earning power of American power corporations.

Curtain Goods Shipments Are Strong, Maker Says

Shipments of curtain materials are running 50% ahead of shipments this time a year ago, said J. W. Powdrell president of Powdrell & Alexander, Inc., who was in Chicago yesterday. Shipments for the first two months of this year were the largest for any similar period in the company's history. Volume of unfilled orders is very large.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, March 14.—(AP)—SUGAR.—Raw was firmer today. While refiners showed no interest above 3.71c for spots duty paid, operators were ready buyers at 1-32c more. Offerings were light. Sales included 29,400 bags of Porto Ricos and 14,000 bags of Philippines due the first half of April to an operator at 3.74c delivered. Futures were firmer, reflecting the steadier tone of spots and less aggressive selling by producing interests. Final prices showed net gains of 2 to 4 points. Approximate sales, 35,600 tons. Prices for the day follow:

	Sales. Tons.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. Close.
July	7,950	2.12	2.10	2.12	2.09
Sept.	7,900	2.19	2.16	2.19	2.16

March, 1930	6,600	2.29	2.27	2.29	2.26

Refined was unchanged at 4.90c for fine granulated. Withdrawals were fair, but new business was light and supplied through second hands at prices below those quoted by refiners.

BANK OF ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 14.—(AP)—The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes in pounds: Total reserve increased £324,000; circulation decreased £84,000; bullion increased £240,000; other securities increased £2,832,000; public deposits increased £3,651,000; other deposits decreased £464,000; notes reserve increased £315,000; government securities increased £40,000. The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability is 50.52 per cent; last week it was 51.69 per cent. Rate of discount 5½ per cent.

COTTONSEED OIL:

NEW YORK, March 14.—(AP)—OIL turned dull and irregular today, closing 5 points higher to 5 points lower. Liquidation of March and July was the trading feature, although there was also some local selling encouraged by depression in lard, hogs and grains. The higher ruling of cotton was a steadying influence and caused a small amount of covering in July at the close. Sales, 4,800 bbls. Prime crude, 9.00c; prime summer yellow, spot, 10.85c; March closed 10.78c; May, 10.76c; July, 10.98c; September, 11.12c; October, 10.06c.

STRENGTH IN OIL STOCKS FEATURE OF CURB MARKET

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 14.—Remarkable strength in practically every oil stock featured today's curb sessions. Prices generally moved to higher ground and in many cases the best levels for the week were attained just before the final bell. Gains ranged from 1 to more than 13 points. There were the usual number of weak spots, but where the trend was downward trading was light. The turnover was again small, transactions totaling only 1,128,000.

Trading had a distinct professional atmosphere, but operations for the most part seemed to be carried on without fear of what the federal reserve bank of New York might have done—but did not do—to its discount rate. It seemed at times as though the short interest was suffering great embarrassment.

There was no mistaking the trend in oils. Buying of robust nature pushed nearly all these stocks to a higher ground, the advances ranging from fractions to more than 4 points. Vacuum moved up 3 points, Imperial 4, Illinois Pipe Line 4, Humble Oil 2¾, and Ohio Oil 2.

Metals and mining shares had a firmer tone. American Chain suddenly spurted 13⅝ points to a new high at 34⅛. Striking gains were also scored in a long list of leading industrials, with new all time highs reached by Niles Bement Pond and Douglas in the aviation section. Yellow Taxi, Brillo, Haygart, Trans-America, Gold Seal Electric, Gramophone, Ground Gripper, and Westvaco Chlorine. Translux was active and strong around the former record best.

AMER. TOBACCO EARNINGS SHOW INCREASE IN 1928

New York, March 14.—(AP)—American Tobacco company today reported record earnings and sales for 1928. Net earnings totaled $25,066,299 or $11.19 a common share against $23,309,689 or $10.29 a share in 1927.

George W. Hill, president, said increased earnings were due to record sales of the company's cigarets through an extensive newspaper advertising campaign and were in the face of reduced prices in the spring of 1928.

Lower prices for its products caused a sharp decline in earnings of the United States Cast Iron Pipe company. Net profit for 1928 was $1,812,227.

SHAREHOLDERS VOTE TO DOUBLE CAPITAL STOCK OF ANACONDA

Butte, Mont., March 14.—(AP)—Stockholders of the Anaconda Copper Mining company, at a special meeting here today, voted to double the present capital stock of the company. Authority was granted to increase the stock issue from six million shares of $50 par value to twelve million shares of the same value.

A total of 3,205,032 shares of stock, or more than two-thirds of the stock now outstanding, was represented at the meeting, at which J. R. Hobbins, vice president, presided.

The meeting approved the proposal of the board of directors, made on March 5, to offer the additional shares to its stockholders at a price of $55 per share, the funds thus raised to be used for retirement of principal on $103,803,000 of the first consolidated mortgage bonds, series A, due Feb. 1, 1953. The new stock will be issued to present stockholders at the rate of two shares for each five now held.

FINANCIAL NOTES

The executive committee of National Air Transport, Inc., has recommended a 20-for-1 stock splitup. The plan calls for the exchange of 20 new no par shares for each of the present $100 par shares. The recommendation is to receive the consideration of the directors and stockholders.

The syndicate is composed of Yeager, Young & Pierson, Inc., Pirnie, Simons & Co., Inc., and Vought & Co., Inc.

A new issue of $3,358,700 Tennessee Copper and Chemical corporation 15 year convertible debenture gold bonds, series B, has been sold. The bonds are convertible into common stock.

National Toll Bridge company markets today its $2,100,000 issue of 10 year 6 per cent convertible debentures at 98 and accrued interest, to yield more than 6.25 per cent.

The stock is being marketed by Bertles, Rawls & Donaldson, Inc., and Parker, Robinson & Co., Inc., each unit priced at $49, to yield 6.63 per cent.

WOOL.

LONDON, March 14.—(AP)—The wool auction sales were continued today. Offerings amounted to 9,094 bales, of which 8,000 were sold. Fine qualities ruled steady, but lower grades were irregular and in buyers' favor. Punta Arenas sold freely at ⅛d decline.

ROCK ISLAND R. R. ACHIEVES RECORD EARNINGS IN 1928

A new high record in net earnings of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway was achieved in 1928, the annual report issued yesterday by Charles Hayden, chairman of the board, reveals.

Net income totaled $13,167,696 after all charges and expenses. After the payment of dividends on the 6 and 7 per cent preferred stocks there remained a surplus for common stock of $9,600,511, equivalent to $12.91 a share. This compares with a net of $12,564,830 or $12.10 a share on the common stock in 1927. The balance carried to profit and loss totaled $5,139,031.

"The outstanding feature of the income account is the fact that traffic representing an increase of over $3,500,000 in gross freight revenue was handled with a reduction of over $400,000 in transportation expenses," says Mr. Hayden in his remarks to stockholders. "This was due principally to economies in operation produced by improvements to facilities and improved condition of the equipment."

Current assets and current liabilities are carried at $23,772,097 and $14,396,380, respectively, against $42,177,369 and $14,945,913 in the preceding year. The surplus account totals $36,861,366, compared with $32,882,992 at the close of 1927.

Credit Outlook.

Improved feeling over the credit outlook was the chief factor in today's forward movement. Word was recevied before the opening that the Bank of England's discount rate had been continued for another week and a little later came the news that the directors of the Federal Reserve bank in Boston at their weekly meeting had adjourned without disturbing their 5 per cent rate. This convinced traders in general that the New York reserve board would be as gracious at their meeting in the late afternoon—a confidence which proved fully justified.

Some of the more optimistic indeed, went so far as to persuade themselves that the "crisis" has definitely passed and that there is no further danger of a raise in the local rate.

Call money was in plentiful supply all day at 7 per cent, but time money was a trifle firmer. Secretary Mellon's comment on the bond market outlook in the afternoon helped to reassure those who were afraid of tight money.

Analysis showed that strength of today's list was more uniform and more extensive in the number of points gained that it has been for at least two weeks. Every active group came in for an airing at one period or another and the gains were frequent and impartially distributed in the closing tables.

Steel shares were well up in the van of things throughout, Bethlehem going to 108⅝, a new high for all time, and closing at 107⅝, a net gain of more than four points. United States Steel common did even better, winding up the day with a net gain of nearly 5 points. Republic did not fare so well, but managed to stay on the plus side of the column.

The motors showed more strength than they have in a long time, General Motors being in particularly heavy demand. At the close it was selling more than 5 points above its previous close. Chrysler went ahead for 3¼, Hudson was up 3⅝, and Packard 3⅝. General Motors at 86, was at its 1929 high. Demand for the motor shares was stimulated by reports from the manufacturing centers that production for March continues to gain, with prospects that the month will set a record in excess of one-half million units.

Oil stocks were moderately higher. Barnsdall, Texas corporation, and Atlantic Refining were among the leaders. The move in oils which seemed so promising earlier in the week seems to have spent its force, however, traders turning to other fields of speculative activity.

Radio began its pyrotechnics early, the initial transaction being a sale of 25,000 shares of the new stock at 95½, up a point and a half. Before noon it was selling at 98 and the price continued steadily upward to 100⅞, later easing off to a final of 100½. The last sale of the old stock was at 501, the top for the day. Presumably a part of the advance was at the expense of a short interest, although some of it was undoubtedly due to continued talk of merger negotiations between the corporation and Western Union.

All But Ignored.

The railroad stocks were all but ignored. New York Central gained 2¾ points on a small turnover and Atchison profited to the extent of about a point, but Baltimore & Ohio, a late trading favorite, wound up with a minus sign opposite its niche in the column.

Whether it was true or not, today's buying on the stock exchange was attributed to "powerful banking interests" that are supposed to sponsor a special group of stocks. It was sufficient for Wall street's purposes that the advancing group was made up to a large extent of stocks that are specially favored in high financial circles. There happened to be, behind the various movements, a powerful impetus which could not fail to impress the rank and file of traders.

The best gains of the day were made by the so-called "blue chips," of which there seemed to be an unusually large number today. The turnover amounted to 4,600,000 shares.

ENTERS OIL PRODUCTION.

United Gas company, Houston, Tex., has actively entered oil production with the purchase of 651 acres of leases, including a producing well, in the Refugio, Tex., field.

ENGLISH PRESS RAPS EXCLUSION OF U. S. INVESTORS

LONDON, March 14.—(AP)—The action of the British General Electric company in restricting its new issue of shares to British subjects led to questions in the house of commons today. Members sought to induce the government to take some legislative action to prevent such discrimination, but a government spokesman replied that matters of this kind were thought most unsuitable for legislation.

The strong denunciation of the scheme by the newspapers, begun yesterday and general today, will be continued tomorrow when the Chronicle will print a two column protest based on the argument that discrimination may provoke retaliation to the detriment of British investments abroad.

THE MEDBURY FORT MURDER

By GEORGE LIMNELLIUS

SYNOPSIS.

Maj. Hugh Preece of the Royal Army Medical corps has just been transferred from Bath to Fort Medbury, which is not far from London. He is about to leave his office one day to take his wife and children for a ride when Lieut. Lepean is announced and he has to stay and examine him. The lieutenant is suffering from a mild disorder and the major prescribes for him. After the young officer leaves Maj. Preece remembers that he has seen him before and recalls the occasion. The visit puts the major in a reminiscent mood. He recalls his first love affair with Prunella Lake, an actress on the London stage; then his being sent to West Africa and his unhappiness at parting from Prunella. On his return to London he again sees Prunella. He asks her to marry him, but she refuses. Shortly afterwards she marries Tremayne Ronan. Preece marries Claire Chisholme, sister to one of his West African associates.

A few years later Prunella and Hugh meet again at Swindon, where they spend the night together at a hotel. Preece remembers seeing Lieut. Lepean in the hotel corridor as he leaves Prunella's room in the morning.

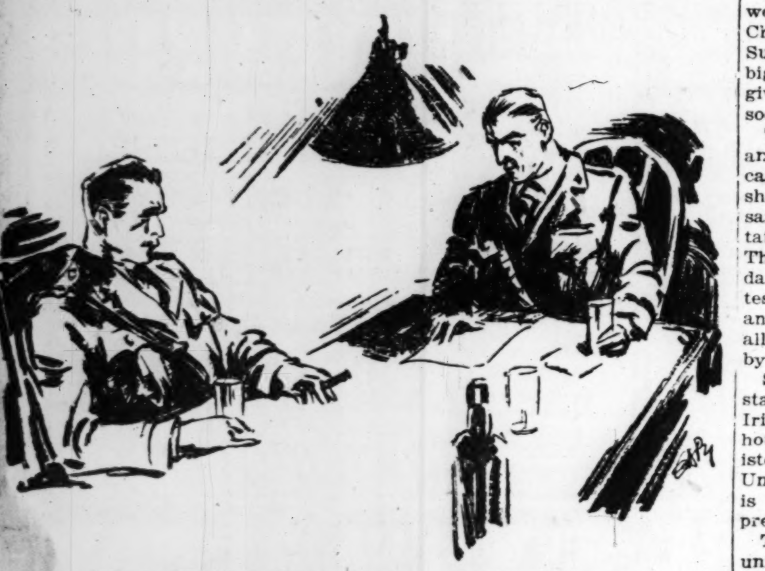
MEDBURY FORT [MONDAY].

Medbury fort lies on the estuary of the Thames, and had been, until a short while before the great war, one of the chain of forts in the Thames and Medway defenses. The evolution of coastal defense artillery had rendered it obsolete. The modern 6 inch and 9.2 inch guns were now sited at the mouth of the river, where their increased range could be effectively employed. The fort was a square, each side being two hundred yards in length. At each corner was a rectangular bastion—relicts of an obsolete form of warfare—designed to afford mutual protection and enfilade fire along the outer walls of the fort. In each bastion was the turntable for the huge 80 ton guns formerly mounted there; the guns themselves had gone; the phosphor bronze and other valuable parts removed, and the barrels sawn into segments by oxyacetylene flame and finally reduced to the basic metal. They had never fired a shot in anger. Indeed, the fort itself, from the day of its completion in 1809, had never played the rôle which it had been so carefully and expensively constructed to fulfill. The massive walls rose a full forty feet above the dyke, itself twenty feet deep and forty feet wide, which entirely surrounded the fort. Entrance to the interior was permitted by a drawbridge on the south side overlooking the river, from the banks of which the fort was separated by a towpath. At this point the walls were pierced by an archway. From the interior of this archway a door led directly to a small room used as a guardroom; on the far side of this room a narrow stone staircase formed the sole entrance to the officers' mess and quarters. The quarters were built into the outer wall of the fort. The mess, consisting of anteroom, dining room, kitchen and offices, were on the opposite side, looking into the interior of the fort. A block of huts had been erected on the square, so that the men should no longer be forced to occupy the damp casements which formed the original accommodation for the garrison of the fort. The officers' quarters remained unchanged. The occupant of one of these quarters obtained a very fair idea of what life must have been like in a mediaeval castle. When the fort had been condemned for coastal defense purposes it had been utilized to accommodate troops during their annual musketry course. The rifle ranges were situated on the marshy ground immediately outside the fort, parallel to the river.



"And now, Major," Lepean commenced, "to business."

The party now temporarily occupying the mess and quarters consisted of Maj. Preece, Capt. Wape, commanding A company; Lepean, his subaltern, and Harris, the assistant adjutant of the battalion.

It was an exceptional night for early June. The big anterooom, with its low ceiling and small deeply recessed windows, felt comfortably warm as the four men entered it after dinner. Wape, entering last, switched on the electric light. Preece crossed over to the letter rack; the evening post had arrived whilst dinner was in progress. There was one letter for him. Preece glanced carelessly at it. With a slight sense of disquiet he realized it was addressed in Prunella's handwriting. He slipped it into his mess jacket pocket unopened. He would read it when he was alone, later on.

Wape strolled over to the letter rack. Only one other letter had arrived by post, and Wape passed the envelope across to Lepean.

"Thanks, Skipper." Lepean ripped open the envelope and rapidly scanned the contents of the note inside. For a second he looked disconcerted; then he slipped the letter into the pocket of his mess jacket and suggested a game of bridge—"or poker," he added.

"No poker for me, thanks," Harris remarked dryly. Wape raised his eyes from the evening paper he was reading and shot a keen glance at the speakers. Dark, with a pale face in which deep lines had been graven and an habitually sardonic expression, Capt. Victor Wape was, nevertheless, one of the most popular officers in the battalion. He was a keen and efficient soldier, below the average height and slight in build, but in first rate condition physically. He was the senior captain in his regiment.

"No, no poker, I think," he observed, quietly, "but what about a rubber? Major, will you play?"

"Certainly," Preece replied, absently. It had suddenly flashed across his mind that the handwriting on the envelope of Lepean's letter, of which he had caught a glimpse, was that of Lady Ronan. He felt certain he had not been mistaken; the fact was disquieting.

Lepean had an annoying habit of talking while the hands were being dealt and the players sorting their cards.

"Did you go down to your ancestral home this week-end, Skipper?" he asked.

"Don't call me Skipper. Sounds so like a sardine," murmured Wape. "Yes, I did," he added.

"Sister? She is at school now, I suppose?"

"No. She was at home for the half term. She is not going back."

"Expelled?" queried Lepean, with a laugh.

"No, she's not. My mother-in-law decided to have flu, so the family had to stop at home. One no trump."

"You're on the ranges at six a. m.," Harris reminded him. "Damn! Major," he said, "come and have a nightcap in my room."

Preece, following the subaltern down the echoing stone passage, wondered if he should try to discover, in casual conversation, whether Lepean knew Lady Ronan.

"Do you always lock your room?" Preece asked, idly.

"Yes," returned the other, switching on the light. "Come in, Major. And," he continued, "I always lock my door at night, too, because I often sleep heavily, and any one could get in without disturbing me. By the same token, I've had an attack of coughing the last few nights. Do you think you could give me something to make me sleep? I feel rather done in."

Preece went to his room and returned with a few grayish tablets in his hand. Lepean had mixed two whiskys and soda. The major gave him one of the tablets: "Put that in your drink. You'll sleep all right."

"A detestable youth!" thought Preece. "Cheerio! My hat!" aloud he added, "Here's how!"

Preece had a horrible premonition of impending disaster as he watched the other take a letter from his pocket and smooth it out.

"Listen to this," Lepean continued; his face had flushed a dull crimson, but his voice had a note of cruel amusement as if he savored some hidden jest. Even in the tension of the moment, Preece found himself thinking: "The fellow's got strong saddistic tendencies."

Gayety to Rule the Birthday of St. Patrick

Thousands Are to Dance; Services Planned.

"St. Patrick's day in the mornin'" won't end until the mornin' after in Chicago, according to the plans for Sunday night dances, all beside the big shamrock ball for 15,000 to be given by the United Celtic-American society at White City.

That dance will be the twenty-ninth annual affair of that society in Chicago, and will be featured by real shamrocks from Erin, some fifty thousand of them. Five hundred entertainers will do Irish jigs and reels. There will be an Irish championship dancing contest, an Irish beauty contest. There will be blackhorn sticks and Irish pipers. And the queen of all Chicago's Irish will be crowned by Judge John J. Sullivan.

St. Patrick day festivities really will start Saturday with a banquet of the Irish Fellowship club at the Palmer house, with Michael Mac White, minister of the Irish Free State to the United States, as speaker. This affair is in charge of Edward J. Keiley, president of the club.

The Bricklayers and Stonemason's union No. 21, of 9,000 members, will celebrate their fiftieth anniversary with a banquet and dance at their hall, 912 W. Monroe street. The Connaught Men's club will celebrate at the Huntinghouse Dancing academy, 4616 North Clark street.

Also on Saturday evening Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity will hold St. Patrick's day hop at the Ambassador hotel. The American Association for Recognition of the Irish Republic, said to be 10,000 strong, will dance at the 131st infantry armory, 16th street and Michigan avenue. The Ancient Order of Hibernians will banquet at the Auditorium hotel with Alderman John S. Clark as toastmaster and Judge John P. McGoorty orator.

On Sunday there will be solemn high mass at St. Patrick's church, Adams and Des Plaines streets,

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Ben Howich, 1860 West Madison street, was awarded $5.

The Question.

The Answers.

Ned Kornaus, 1621 West Division street, bookkeeper—I don't know. A man's chances of living through a trip at such terrific speed are slim. One would have to have a lot of luck to avoid mishaps. Lee Bible lost his life Wednesday afternoon trying to beat the 231 mile an hour record.

Mrs. Xine Prabel, 3359 South Western boulevard, housewife—Provided he drove fast enough. They can't go too fast for me. My only fear would be that something would cause a sudden stop. I would not want to be sent up in the air. It would be all right as long as the auto kept going. Some day they will have folding wings on automobiles, then we will be set. We couldn't ask for more.

H. L. Davidson, 208 South La Salle stret, bond salesman—Not for me. When I am to go over 150 miles an hour I want to be in an airplane. However, the rapid advancement of the automobile in a comparatively few years is wonderful. It is no simple matter to design a machine that will attain a ground speed of 231 miles an hour.

Miss Anne Hannon, 4357 West Monroe street, secretary—I would. I would willingly go in for anything like that. It's in the line of sports. I have ridden in a speed boat, and believe me, they stir up some spray. It is a regret of mine that I once turned down a chance to take an airplane flight, and I hope that thrill is yet to come.

Edward Blahna, 5015 South Western boulevard, auditor—Sure I would. The wonder is that it is possible to steer and control the mechanism of a car dashing along the ground at that speed and not loose one's head or in some other way run wild.

And it fits me like a glove;
The sky is bright and the world's all right,
'Cause I'm in love.

"There is a lesson in this popular song hit of Al Jolson's for the Christian as well as a thrill for the theater goer," the Rev. C. Leslie Glenn of New York told an audience at the Garrick theater Lenten services yesterday. "It is not mere sentimentality or pious poetry, but common sense. God is a person and if we serve him, we get the same joy out of it, as we get out of loving a friend.

"What are we going to say about the good people who never go to church, or don't even appear to have the slightest interest in religion? Why bother with religion, if you are good enough anyway? This is the attitude of noble security. We often hear men say: 'The open road and the golf course are my religion. I am not a weak sister that needs to be pepped up on Sunday.'

"The first thing to be said about this attitude is that without God most of us are not as good as we might be. When a man says he is not strong on the church or the creeds or theology, ask him how strong he is on the ten commandments. He can't have a reasonable answer, unless he is in touch with God. When you know what the tide does to a stranded boat that it lifts off the shore, you understand what religion means to a man.

"Noble security is a kind of grim stoicism, a determination to live up to a code of ethics without hope, and for no good reason, except perhaps that it is a tradition or a personal preference. To some this seems even more splendid than the attitude of the Christian who lives his life for a friend and with some joy. We don't hook up to God because we need strength to live a certain kind of life but we live a certain life in order to be close to him. It is like being in love with a girl. God is not a power, he is a person.

"Many persons today are afraid of the old fashioned notion of God as an old man with a white beard; so they think of him as electrons and protons or ultimate reality. I would rather worship a kind of Santa Claus than a dynamic ether. Christianity is not a program, it is a secret, and the secret is the availability of God. It isn't good advice, it is good news and the news is that some one cares.

New Italian Composer Writes with Idea Music Is Pleasant

BY EDWARD MOORE.

The Gordon String quartet played the last of its three Orchestra hall foyer concerts yesterday afternoon, though it is by no means ready to disband for the season. Other assignments await it in the chamber music series at the Blackstone, in one of which it will make audible the justly famous latest quartet by Arnold Schoenberg.

Another novelty was played yesterday afternoon. This was a bright, sprightly, and attractive quartet by Vittorio Rieti, a young Italian composer who does not appear to think that modern music should be burdensome. On the contrary, he is haunted by the theory that he ought to write good tunes and the no less momentous idea that he ought to stop when he gets through. As a result, he leaves joyous memories. For a second section, the Gordons went into a gorgeous performance of the quartet in D by Franck.

The evening brought forth a varied assortment of music. First on the list was a joint recital by Grace Muhs, pianist, and William Pfeiffer, baritone, in the Young American Artists series at Curtiss hall. Miss Muhs has a highly promising talent, the more engaging because in a prelude by Bach and the Schumann Novelette in F sharp minor she played works well within her technical grasp and consequently permitting her to use all her interpretative faculty unhampered, and she has quite a bit. It was the part of wisdom to choose as she did, and other young artists will do well to follow her example.

Mr. Pfeiffer, in a group of Italian songs including an uncommonly trifling aria from Verdi's "Sicilian Vespers," displayed a fairly pleasant voice which could be considerably more pleasant if he used it in a different manner, one tending toward less breathy quality and less laborious manner in light and rapid passages.

The Chicago Madrigal club, directed by D. A. Clippinger, was next on the list for its second concert of the season at Kimball hall. It was heard in works by Marenzio and Lassus, sung carefully, with good tone and excellent balance, if without all the joyous quality that the words indicated might be there. Gilbert Ford, tenor, was the soloist, but his appearance did not coincide with the visit to the hall.

Still chronologically, Alverna Stetzler's piano recital at Lyon and Healy hall contained a group of preludes and études by Chopin, works by Debussy, Albeniz, De Falla, Turina, Delibes-Dohnanyi, and concluding with the first movement of the Tschaikowsky Concerto in B flat minor. Heard in the middle section of this list, she registered such pleasing qualities as a firm but pleasant touch, an evident liking for what she was playing, and a technical equipment to make it sound easy.

The last on the list was a "pop" by the Chicago Symphony orchestra of which the featured number was a concerto for that unusual solo instrument, the oboe, composed and played by Florian Mueller, a member of the orchestra. This was missed, because advance programs had indicated it would come immediately after the intermission. Timing the tour to arrive at Orchestra hall for that purpose, it was then discovered that the solo piece had been played before the intermission.

Jews to Debate Sunday on Effects of American Life

That modern tendencies in America will lead to the absorption of the Jew is the subject for the debate between the Menorah societies of Northwestern university and the University of Minnesota to be held Sunday, March 24, at 8 o'clock in the evening, at Sinai temple, 4600 Grand boulevard.

Herzl Friedlander, Lee Srole, and Phil Heller of Northwestern will uphold the affirmative and Guita Bearman, Ted Gordon, and Al Shapiro of Minnesota the negative. Dancing in the community center adjoining the temple will follow the debate.

Seven Poor People Share $119,100 in German Lottery

BERLIN, March 14.—[U.P.]—Seven persons, most of them pitifully poor, today shared in the drawing of the 500,000 marks [$119,100] first prize in the Prussian state lottery. Fritz Seifert, a blind street peddler, suddenly found himself possessed of 50,000 marks [$11,910] for his eighth of a ticket. There were five other holders of an eighth of a ticket each. One of these was a crippled charwoman. A stenographer, a hospital attendant and a taxi cab chauffeur were among the others.

War Secretary Halts Plan for Women's Help

Wants More Time to Consider Idea.

Washington, D. C., March 14.—(AP)—The efforts for participation by American women in handling certain national defense problems suddenly have halted.

MRS. JOHN F. SIPPEL.
[Harris & Ewing.]

Secretary Good announced today that a meeting of women interested in the plan, which was to have taken place yesterday, had been indefinitely postponed until details of such participation could be worked out by war department officials.

Former Secretary Davis, just before retiring, announced initiation of the plan which contemplated the appointment of women civilian aids to the secretary of war to act between the women of the country and the war department. He announced the appointment of Mrs. John F. Sippel of Baltimore, the president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, as chief woman civilian aid to the secretary of war. It had been planned also to appoint an aid in each of the nine army corps areas to act for the women.

At their first meeting here a dozen or more women, members of various women's organizations who were acting in their individual capacity and not as representatives of those organizations, discussed the scheme with Secretary Davis. Since then there seems to have developed a division of opinion among women as to that plan. As a result Secretary Good decided to postpone further activities. He said he thought the details of any such plan should be carefully worked out before the women went too far.

Chicago Called Art, Library, as Well as Industrial Center

"Chicago lies close to the geographical center of the United States," Dr. Keppel declared. "It lies within a very few miles of the industrial center of the country. It is an art center, an educational center, and it is the great center of the modern library movement which is international in scope."

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, March 14.—The former kaiser's second wife, the self-styled Empress Hermine, took a notable departure from the traditions of the German imperial court this week when she gave her first cocktail party. This took place at the former kaiser's old palace of Unter den Linden in Berlin and was attended by most of his former courtiers.

Hermine has apparently cultivated a sudden taste for cocktails, for within a week she has attended three more cocktail parties. One of them was given by Frau von Pannwitz in the Esplanade hotel, in one of the most exclusive sections of Berlin, where the "empress" held a formal court supported by two gentlemen in waiting and two pages.

The second party was given by Frau von Dirksen, the mother-in-law of the German ambassador to Moscow, and also gathered together all that is left of the old days of imperial court splendor.

'49 Gold Rush Note Taken for Benefit Dance

BY THALIA ——.

If your morning's stack of mail contains a square white envelope with "The Forty-Niners" inscribed in the left hand upper corner, don't overlook it as an advertisement, or you'll miss a priceless chuckle.

It will be one of the invitations to the Lower North Community council's benefit party, and it's most amusingly gotten up. Large sheets of flimsy paper printed in odd type faces bear the legend, "The Forty-Niners of Red Gap Gulch invite you to a breakdown at Black Eye Dance hall (122d field artillery armory, 234 East Chicago avenue) on Friday, April 5th at 10 p. m."

"High class dancing, singing, play acting and eating" are promised, and prospective guests are admonished, "No shootin'. Ladies is expected to be ladies at all times. Gents, leave your shootin' irons to home. 'Taint necessary to slick up." The committee personnel follows, and order cards for tickets are enclosed.

Ellsworth Laflin Jr. and Arthur Meeker Jr. have written the sketch that will constitute the "play acting" and the "eating" is to be an old fashioned lunchroom supper. Guests are expected to wear appropriate costume for that colorful mining era when the watchword was, "There's gold in them thar hills, etc."

One of the enthusiastic and talented members of the South Shore Country club's revue, "Blackbirds of 1929," to be presented next Friday and Saturday evenings, tells me that this show is to be the biggest hit yet and that IS a record. Many of the old timers who have been appearing off and on through the 11 years of annual shows are to give an old time minstrel show brought up to date.

Henry Paulman Jr. is to do his imitation of George Primrose, Benny Watson, his take-offs of Eddie Cantor and Al Jolson; Ralph Woods, the club's first interlocutor, is to function as such, and others of the minstrels who will do specialties will be the George L. Careys, the Albert Bateses, who have put on countless funny sketches; Natalie Frees, who is the club's prize comic artist; John Wilson, Joe Lawler, Dr. Ralph Parker, Johnny McGovern and Marcia Masters.

The land of the cherry blossom was suggested in the decorations used at the tea given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Andrew McLaughlin at her residence at 5609 Woodlawn avenue in the interests of Kobe college in Japan. The hostesses wore houri coats, and the tea was served from Japanese dishes. Mrs. Leeds Gulick and Mrs. William Woodard, recently come from Japan, spoke.

Mrs. William H. Bush and several members of the American Friends of China are to assist at a tea to be given this afternoon at 5 o'clock, following a lecture by His Eminence Tai Hsu, a Chinese Buddhist bishop, who is on his return trip to China after a tour in England, France, Belgium, and Germany. The tea and lecture are to take place in the Open Court Conference room, on the eighth floor of Wieboldt hall.

Mrs. Jacob Baur, Mrs. Charles S. Peterson, Mrs. Olive Garnett, Mrs. William Grover, Mrs. William A. Wieboldt, and Miss Pauline Frederick will be hostesses at a tea today at the Chicago Galleries association to open the exhibition of paintings by Marie E. Blanke, Lucie Hartrath, and Gerald A. Frank.

Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick is to open her residence for the first benefit concert sponsored by the All-Illinois Society of the Fine Arts on Tuesday, March 26, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The society was founded for the purpose of exhibiting and promoting the sale of the works of Illinois artists.

Mrs. Godfrey Haggard, wife of the British consul-general, has arrived in Chicago with the Haggards' daughters, Joan and Vivi, and they are all installed in the apartment Mr. Haggard has leased at 1411 North State parkway. The two girls are to leave in April for Bishop Strohan's school in or near Toronto, Canada.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Edgar O. Crossman (the former Mrs. Helen Farrell Caldwell) that their plans to remain for several years in the Philippines, where their marriage took place on Jan. 21, have been changed and they are sailing on March 30 to China, Siberia, on to Paris, and expect to reach this country by July. Details of the change in plans are being forwarded by mail. The Crossmans spent their honeymoon in the mountains and have returned to Manila. Mrs. Crossman's father, Dr. P. J. H. Farrell, is to join Mrs. Farrell in Arizona next month.

The John Alden Carpenters are at Atlantic City, N. J., for a few days after attending the wedding on Monday of Miss Harriot Norton Lee to Joseph Winterbotham, which took place at Charlotte, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale Holden Jr. have returned to Lake Forest, after a lengthy stay in California.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Forgan of Lake Forest are in New York City for several weeks.

Mrs. Stuart J. Templeton of Lake Forest, who went east a while ago to visit in New York, has gone on to Miami, Fla., for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Kelley of Lake Forest are off on a trip to Bermuda, where they are to stay for almost a month.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wellington Beet of Ashland, Wis., announce the engagement of their daughter, Hester Elizabeth to Gordon Dymond Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simpson Smith of 98 Robsart road, Kenilworth. The wedding is to take place in late June.

The picture just reached Chicago, having been relayed to Dr. Farrell here.

THREE DAYS OF FETE FOR ROYAL NUPTIALS AT NORWAY'S CAPITAL

OSLO, Norway, March 14.—(AP)—Three days' official celebration of the marriage March 21 of Prince Olaf of Norway to Princess Martha of Sweden are being planned in this capital.

On March 19 King Haakon will give a ball for his son and future daughter-in-law at the palace. Invitations have been sent to 350 personal friends of the young couple.

The entire royal family and their guests, including the bride's parents and many other royal personages who will be here for the wedding, will attend the gala performance at the National theater of a drama by one of the great Norwegian playwrights, Ibsen or Bjornson, which will be the feature of the second day's celebration, on March 20.

The wedding day itself, March 21, will be given over to public celebration. After the noonday ceremony in Our Savior's church, the newly married crown prince and princess will drive through the principal street of the city in the royal coach which will be drawn by four horses, and preceded by outriders, escorted by cavalry in full dress uniforms. On their arrival at the palace, they will be guests of honor at a bridal luncheon given by King Haakon and the queen, for about 200 guests.

BERLIN, March 14.—For the first time since the war a member of the English royal family will tread German soil tomorrow when King George's second son, the Duke of York, with his wife, are scheduled to reach Berlin, whence after a short stay they will proceed to Oslo for the marriage of the Norwegian crown prince, Olav, to the Swedish princess, Martha.

FARM AND GARDEN

BY FRANK RIDGWAY

Deep snows in the middle west and northern fruit growing sections have made it possible for rabbits to cause serious damage to many trees. Reports from Illinois and Michigan indicate that many young apple, pear and cherry trees have been girded by rabbits, and will die if they are not properly cared for during the next few weeks.

Snow drifting high in orchards gave rabbits a chance to gnaw the bark off trees many feet above the ground, damaging many trees that have been given protection with chicken wire, sacks, wood, cornstalks and other wrapping material.

Where trees have been girded scions must be used to bridge the peeled area, and the wounds covered with grafting wax so that growth will start in the spring. Sometimes where the bark has been gnawed off practically all the way around the trunk, but not peeled down to the wood the tree may be saved, if treated in time. The wound often will heal over, if covered with paint made of white lead and raw linseed oil, commonly used on barns and houses.

Grafting wax is used also to protect the wound while it is healing. The paint or wax keeps the exposed wood and under layers of bark from drying. Waxing and painting of all the wounds should be done as soon as possible even in winter.

Some skill is required in bridge grafting. Experts find it advisable to start grafting injured trees in the spring soon after the sap begins to flow and immediately after the bark can be peeled easily.

Treating tree wounds with paint or wax is a simple matter, but bridge grafting methods should be thoroughly studied before being attempted by an inexperienced orchardist.

Briton Rebels When Tea, American Style, Is Offered to Him

New York, March 14.—[Special.]—"Tea? In America?"

"Impossible," says Harold C. Lewis, an English visitor who says he is a friend of Sir Thomas Lipton. "I have been coming to the United States for the last 20 years and I have yet to find one hotel where a human being could taste a real cup of tea. Why is it that they cannot learn to make tea with boiling water here, instead of with water from the faucet? It's bad enough to have to drink tea with iced cream or milk without having the tea itself cold.

"Why do not the American hotels know that an epicure of tea will insist on having it hot, a thing that every child of 18 months knows in England? The tea here is absolutely damnable. I gave a tea for a party of friends at one of your finest New York hotels last week and had to send the tea back three times to get anything that was even drinkable. And the price—why a pot of tea at the leading hotels costs anywhere from 90 cents to $1.50. Cocktails cost nothing by comparison."

Before the Pilgrims Landed

When Plymouth Rock was just a rock unknown, unheralded, Jean Denys of Harfleur sailed the Rognoust across the seas to Newfoundland, the first of many hardy and forgotten men to reach the lands Jacques Cartier later claimed for France in 1534. ✧ Even great Spain requested Breton pilots in those spacious days when seamanship meant conquest. ✧ Soon the Grand Banks were full of dancing cockleshells...and still they fish two thousand miles from home. ✧ And so traditions of the sea grew greater still, till not a port around the earth but knew the steady eyes of Breton sailormen. ✧ With comrades from Provence, they man today those French Line ships whose service is their birth-right and their pride. ✧ The "France" the "Paris" and the "Ile de France", giants that form the Weekly Express Service between New York, London and Paris, take only men who graduate with honors from lesser units of that world-girdling fleet that numbers one hundred and ten. ✧ The "De Grasse" and "Rochambeau" for a leisurely cabin crossing.

Catholics Planning New Hospital with Reduced Fee Scale

A maternity hospital offering service to the family of small income at the fee of $50 will be established in the Lakota hotel, Michigan avenue at 30th street, for the Catholic mothers in Chicago, it was announced yesterday by Cardinal Mundelein. The service will include the care of children under 10 years of age at the hospital during their mother's confinement.

The gift of F. J. Lewis, head of the firm which bears his name made possible the acquisition of the hotel building, the cardinal's statement said. The hotel, when remodeled into a hospital about April 15, will be equipped to care for 300 mothers, and will have a staff of trained obstetricians and graduate nurses equalling the higher priced hospitals. It will be open only to white mothers who are Catholics.

The entire service, prenatal care, hospital service, rooms, nurse, physician, and care of the small children will be provided for $50. This fee the statement explained is only for families with incomes less than $500 monthly.

New Gowns Call for Slim Figger, and Call Loudly!

by Antoinette Donnelly

If any woman inclined to plumpness had an idea that the new type of dinner and evening frock of flattering lace, piled tier upon tier from an uneven hemline, would bring her day to hand—well, she must bear up under the verdict that it isn't at hand at all.

The new dinner and dance frock, if anything, requires more and cleaner slenderness. The frock of the moment is revealing. Arms are exposed mercilessly, backs brazenly, and knees haven't been done so hansum by either, have they?

But the one thing I observe inside and under the dress of which we talk is the pressing need of erect carriage. I don't know what that very long line of frock from shoulder to shoe heel does to a figure, but if there is a rounded shoulder it does aplenty that a snappy young woman does not want done. There is the aura of floating chiffon and billowy lace so that one naturally looks for an ethereal, sprightly type of femme within. And when you don't find her you wonder if the solid old satins and printed crêpes weren't just a bit kinder to maturity after all.

However, no daughter of Eve ever lets an obstacle stand in her way when an emergency has to be met. And it will be only a matter of six weeks or two months before one can be shorn of that heavy roll between the shoulder blades that ruins the back of the frock. That is, if the aforesaid daughter makes up her mind to be more becoming to the dress.

A straight, lithe figure is what has to be coveted, and with such fervor that ten minutes' exercise morning and night will not frighten her. I will not outline any particular movements except to advise that the well known bending and stretching at the waistline are just about as useful for this form of improvement as any other kind of movement. But of great importance is the use of the kind of mirror that will give you a fine profile view of your back. It can't curve, nor cave in, nor round perceptibly at the neck and below the waist. It must bear the impression of flatness, though you have to accomplish it with a corset of good make. Because so much of the dress designer's efforts are put into the perfect back effect, you have to lend coöperation with a complementary good foundation.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

M. W.: BUNIONS ARE THE RESULT of great pressure and friction on the joint, caused by short shoes or stockings. The joint should be relieved of all pressure. If possible a loose slipper should be worn to allow the toes to spread, then take a piece of adhesive plaster and bandage the great toe, bringing it into its natural position.

M. S.: HERE IS AN EXCELLENT exercise for developing thin legs: Suspend a pillow in the doorway on a level with your shoulders. Stand back about two feet—then kick the pillow, first with one foot, then with the other. Be sure to kick hard. Gradually increase the height of the pillow. Other exercises may be had for a stamped addressed envelope.

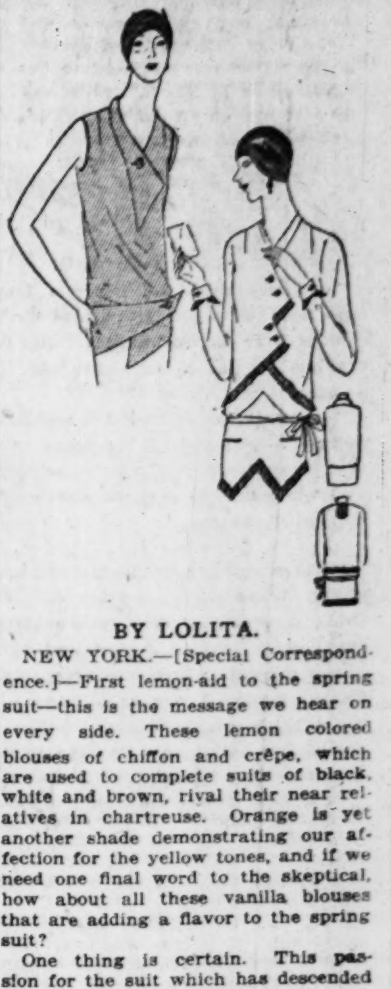
The Suit Creates a Need for Many Blouses



BY LOLITA.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—First lemon-aid to the spring suit—this is the message we hear on every side. These lemon colored blouses of chiffon and crêpe, which are used to complete suits of black, white and brown, rival their near relatives in chartreuse. Orange is yet another shade demonstrating our affection for the yellow tones, and if we need one final word to the skeptical, how about all these vanilla blouses that are adding a flavor to the spring suit?

One thing is certain. This passion for the suit which has descended upon us with all the fury of a Belasco snowstorm has brought in its wake a corresponding appetite for the blouse. Yes, she who would be well dressed today can no more dispense with a number of blouses than she can with the right sort of makeup.

Today we show two delightful models proving to you that both the sleeveless and the sleeved type are in equally good repute and that both are susceptible to infinite variations. Above is a lemon colored crêpe with exceedingly interesting development of both collar and band. The former functions only on one side, where it is merely a loose tab adjusted by a self-colored button. The fold molding the hips is equally moody, but it carries out the same idea as the neckline.

Below we find in vanilla color crêpe a model which demonstrates the adaptability of the bolero to blouse modes, for it is exactly this becoming line which is achieved by tiny plaited ruffles going upward in front to repeat a V shaped seaming above the twisted girdle and the inverted V of the hem. The latter, as well as the cuffs, are finished by these same plaited ruffles. As a final detail of finesse, note that the ruffles on the cuffs also pursue the same V shaped policy observed elsewhere.

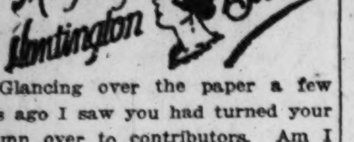
Mother of Five Gives Pointers to Other Parents

Mrs. Bevans has prepared two booklets, one on "Prayers and Graces for Children" and another called "Books to be Read to the Children or by Them," which will be sent free on receipt of stamped, self-addressed envelopes.



"Glancing over the paper a few days ago I saw you had turned your column over to contributors. Am I too late to put in my little say, I wonder?

"In rearing a family of five children to nearly man's estate there are two things I found particularly helpful, and while neither may be new, each will bear repeating.

"Never punish a child while you are angry. When you have taken time to think it over you may realize what the child's intentions were and find it had wanted to help, not aggravate. To illustrate: I was in a hurry to get a big washing done and had not screwed the drain plug in the wash machine very tightly. My little one who always enjoys watching the suds foam and helping put the clothes in the wringer, noticed the drip and tried to tighten things up, but turned the wrong way with the result that the plug came out.

"As the water was scalding we could only let it run out, heat more water, and start all over again. Vexed? Of course I was, but her contrite kiss and quick flush when she realized her idea had gone wrong, more than made me glad that I had said and done nothing which would hurt her.

"I could tell of at least one life that was warped and saddened when a sensitive boy was punished severely, and most unjustly, as he still thinks—a hot tempered father beating the child over the head and shoulders, while angry over a tale of misdeed which had reached his ears, never giving the boy a chance to tell his side of the story. It does not make a pretty thought, but many parents hurt their children worse with caustic remarks than if they took a club to them.

"Be a DO mother, not a DON'T one. When a child gets into mischief, why not suggest something attractive for it to do instead of ordering it to stop? Much of a child's touching forbidden things or doing them is caused by a desire to know. If we threaten all sorts of dire results if we are not blindly obeyed, and a surreptitious try at the thing does not cause the calamity promised, two things happen. The child's faith in us is shaken and a certain slyness and deceit is fostered. It must learn by actual experience that 'mother knows best.' P. L."

Popularity May Be Won by Indifference to It, Doris Suggests

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"I want to ask you the question of why I am so unpopular. I've tried to figure it out and can't. I'm not bad looking, I dress well and am 18, an age when most girls are running around with boy friends and having a good time.

"When out with a boy, which is seldom, I am a good sport. I'm not a wonderful dancer, but am willing to learn. People claim that in order to be popular a girl must be a heavy necker and petter. I think every girl indulges to some extent. I admit I do, myself, but do not let a fellow have his way all the time.

"Do you think my circle of friends is too small? I gave a party and had a lot of people. Most of the boys took my phone number and promised to call—but only one did and he didn't keep the engagement.—SYDE."

I must admit to discouragement at times on this subject of popularity, just as the hundreds of girls who write me are discouraged. Why is it so easy for one girl to attract all the boys she wants while her neighbor or chum, with no less physical lure, money or social advantages, cannot get a single escort? But it is the constant cry of youth—boys and girls alike. They want to be liked, to be invited about, to be active members of a group and not the deserted wallflowers thereof.

I'm beginning to think the very eagerness that the not popular girl feels on the subject of wanting to be more generally liked may be a handicap. She may show her anxiety to please over much. She may repel by her eagerness. At 18, with many good years ahead of her, a girl can look at this "slighted" stage of her life with a lot more philosophy than she usually subscribes to. And perhaps the indifference with which she could fortify herself might add charm.

Of course, there are certain things you have to be to be liked. You have to be likeable—that is, have a cheery temperament and a kind one. Then you have to be a person of nice appearance, and a young woman does help her social career along if she is content to be nothing less than a very good dancer.

My best recommendation is not to become obsessed with the idea of being unpopular. Rather withdraw from the ring for a bit where you can get a air perspective on the show and watch and study the popular members of your set and, if possible, fashion your ways after theirs.

Bright Sayings of the Children

Little Kathryn, aged 3, was listening to the story of the three bears, and on hearing that the bears were away from home when Goldilocks arrived she asked her mother where the mamma bear had gone.

"I do," said little Kathryn, "I'll bet she has gone to the club." A. E. H.

On inauguration day, I asked the children why we were having a celebration.

PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

[Registered U. S. Patent Office.]

WOMAN'S OR MISS' DRESS.

This dress is especially designed for general daytime wear, is decidedly smart, and should be generally becoming. The surplice closing bodice ending at the side, meets the skirt that fits trimly through the hipline with button trim over the grouped plaits. The pocket at the right side of the bodice adds a sportive touch. Featherweight tweed, jersey, crêpe satin, silk crepe and challis are smart suggestions.

The pattern, 2561, comes in sizes 16 and 18 years, and 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3⅝ yards of 40 inch material, with ⅜ yard of 32 inch contrasting.

Halibut Timbales.

A slice of halibut is almost as staple a year around product as a potato. We might call it an easiest to prepare food, but now there are on the market frozen fish fillets that require even less work for the preparation than does the slice of halibut—because it has a skin. This skin need not be waste, however, if we know how to make a fish stock for a sauce or a chowder.

Of the items besides chowder, and baked fish in sauce, and hash, that may be made from a slice of halibut, there are the pretty and time-honored timbales, pretty enough for a party and tasty enough, as well.

To make the timbales, first poach a thick or one pound slice of halibut. One way to do this effectively is to have the slice of halibut on a fish drain—you can use a piece of new cheese cloth if you have not a drain—dip it into boiling water and then lift out. This sets the albumin, they used to say, or corresponds to the searing of meat to keep in the juices.

When the water boils up again, put the fish in and cook it gently for twenty minutes at just the boiling point of the water, of which there should be enough to cover the fish. The water should be salted lightly and in it may be a little green pepper, a slice of onion, a few drops of lemon juice, etc.

Now we have something we may use as a foundation for a number of dishes or eat with an egg sauce at once. For the timbales drain and cool the cooked halibut, flake it fine with a fork and you may even sieve it, if you like. Mix this measure of fish with the unbeaten whites of two or three eggs, but before that you may add two tablespoons of thick cream, per cup of flaked fish, which binds and makes the fish smooth, and makes any sieving to make velvet-like less necessary. The timbales will be daintier if to the fish is added a fourth of its measure of cracker crumbs, but you will need all of three egg whites and the cream then to keep it from crumbling.

Butter earthen cups, put in the preparation, set them in a water bath on a wire stand, cover the kettle and steam for twenty minutes. Serve with cheese sauce. The cups may have red pepper or other garnishes put in before the fish.

A youthful complexion ...regain it and keep it

MAKE THIS TEST

Once, before you allowed skin-sluggishness, sallowness and clogged facial pores to hide it, you had a youthful complexion. Why not bring back its original loveliness? It is SO easy if you follow a modern, approved method like this...(try this three-minute test)... Gently pat (do not rub) Lady Esther Four-Purpose Face Cream into your skin. Then wipe dry. Repeat this treatment for three minutes. Note how the dirt and grease, which soap and water does not affect, gradually disappear and permit the warm radiant glow of youth to brighten up your countenance. Every pore tingles delightfully—revivified by this marvelous cream. Now rub the back of your hand over your face and feel how velvety smooth it is. No greasy film. Keep your complexion youthful always—use this four-purpose cream every day. It cleans, softens, strengthens and provides a perfect powder base. 50c—75c—and $1.25 at all drug and department stores. At a reception following the procession the Jensens will be officially welcomed back to Waukegan by Mayor L. J. Yager.

WANTED. SEVERAL YOUNG WOMEN

A large Chicago newspaper seeks the services of several young women, either married or single, between the ages of 22 and 26, for work of a clean and dignified character in its classified advertising department.

The work requires adaptability and intelligence. Although not essential, we prefer, therefore, that applicants have a college education or its equivalent.

You need not have previous experience in advertising work to qualify, but you should possess more than average determination and the ability to convince those with whom you would have contact of the value of consecutive advertising. In other words, you must be able to talk convincingly and persuade advertisers to accept your suggestions.

Do not hesitate to reply to this advertisement if you have not had sales experience, as all new employes are thoroughly trained in the mechanics of advertising and the fundamentals of salesmanship.

The work is not easy, but will prove very interesting to one possessing the above qualifications. The earning possibilities, considering the amount of time put in, from 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. Friday, and from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. Saturday, are far above the average amount paid for part time work by other organizations. The environment and associations are of the best.

In reply give your age, education, business experience, if any, whether married or single, and your phone number.

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

SECOND MORTGAGE LOANS

President Hoover has always been a thinking man and he has always been a doing man.

Mr. Hoover said to Mr. Rosenwald: "It seems to me that the rates charged on second mortgage loans to the modest home owners are entirely out of range with the costs in other real estate financing."

Mr. Rosenwald is a thinking man and Mr. Rosenwald is an understanding man, as well as a doing man.

Mr. Rosenwald had some conversations with Mr. Walling, President of the Chicago Morris Plan Bank, in which he suggested to Mr. Walling that if the funds were made available would the Chicago Morris Plan Bank help to work out the problem and relieve the burden of excessive costs on the modest home owner of Chicago?

There is no institution in this city which has a more sympathetic understanding of the intimate family problems than the Chicago Morris Plan Bank. There is no institution in this city which takes greater delight in tackling any job, no matter how hard, if it is going to help Chicago families to get ahead.

Consequently it gave Mr. Walling, President of the Chicago Morris Plan Bank, great delight in undertaking to prove President Hoover's contention that second mortgage rates were too high.

So that is the way we happened to be interested in second mortgages.

For Mr. Rosenwald placed at the disposal of a group of men who are directors of the Chicago Morris Plan Bank a fund of $1,000,000, to be used in this enterprise. The original rates which we charged were from 40% to 60% lower than the rates charged by others in Chicago, but we found that the rates could be even lower, and they have been reduced three times. Today they are 6% accruing interest and a commission of:

$90.00 per $1,000 for 3 years.

It is obvious that any thoughtful, thrifty home owner in this community, who desires second mortgage financing will find our plan well conceived and scientifically constructed. He will also find that our rates are unquestionably the lowest rates in Chicago.

We will be delighted to have you place your problem before us.
